I. STATEMENT OF JURISDICTION

This Honorable Court has exclusive appellate jurisdiction over the Petition for Review, as Amended/Supplemented, in this matter pursuant to Pa. Const. art. II, §17, which provides that:

Any aggrieved person may file an appeal from the final plan directly to the Supreme Court within thirty days after the filing thereof. If the appellant established that the final plan is contrary to the law, the Supreme Court shall issue an order remanding the plan to the commission and directing the commission to reappportion the Commonwealth in a manner not inconsistent with such order.

Petitioners' Petition for Review, as Amended/Supplemented is brought pursuant to Rule 3321 and Rule 1501 et. Seq. of the Pennsylvania Rules of Appellate Procedure. See Holt v. 2011 Legislative Reapportionment Comm'n, 38 A.3d 711 (Pa. 2012) ("Holt I")

Furthermore, to establish standing in Pennsylvania the Plaintiff must allege a substantial, direct, and immediate interest in the outcome of the litigation. Wm. Penn Parking Garage, Inc. v. City of Pittsburgh, 346 A.2d 269 (Pa 1975) citing Keystone Raceway Corp. v. State Harness Racing Commission, 173 A.2d 97 (Pa. 1961). Here, the Petitioners have a substantial, direct, and immediate interest in the outcome of the litigation because they are registered voters and citizens of Butler County, and the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

III. STATEMENT OF SCOPE AND STANDARDS OF REVIEW

This Honorable Court's review includes Holt I and Holt II involving the Legislative Reapportionment Commission ("LRC") as the review in appeals is ultimately de novo and "entails all consideration of all relevant evidence, and legal authority, that a Final Plan is contrary to law."

Holt v. 2011 Legislative Reapportionment Comm'n, 38 A.3d 711, 730 (Pa. 2012) ("Holt I"). Further,

The reapportionment process is outlined in the Pennsylvania Constitution, and that charter specifically confers upon any aggrieved person the right to appeal directly to the Supreme Court. Pa. Const. art. II, § 17(d). Section 17(d) goes on to specify a standard of review and the appropriate remedy: if the appellant in a redistricting matter establishes that the final plan is contrary to law, the Pennsylvania Supreme Court shall issue an order remanding the plan to the commission and directing the commission to reapportion the Commonwealth in a manner not inconsistent with such order. On its face, the Constitution does not dictate any form of deference to the Legislative Reapportionment Commission (the LRC), it does not establish any special presumption that the LRC's work product is constitutional, and it also places no qualifiers on the Supreme Court's scope of review.

Id.

This Honorable Court will review the Pennsylvania Constitution, Article II, Section 17(d) to determine if the LRC Final Plan is contrary to law. Petitioners have the burden of demonstrating that the Final Plan is contrary to law. Id. at 737-738.

Furthermore, in the Pennsylvania redistricting scheme, the LRC has a constitutional duty to craft a Final Plan that comports to the law. Id. at 738.

IV. QUESTIONS PRESENTED

1. Is the Final Plan dividing 50 senatorial and 203 representative districts adopted by the LRC on February 4, 2022, contrary to law because without absolute necessity it divides counties, incorporated towns, boroughs, townships or wards?

Answer: Yes.

2. Should the Final Plan adopted by the LRC on February 4, 2022, be remanded to the LRC and should the LRC be directed to reapportion the Commonwealth in a manner not inconsistent with the Court's Order?

Answer: Yes.

3. Are Petitioners entitled to attorneys' fees and costs in bringing this Challenge?

Answer: Yes.

V. STATEMENT OF THE CASE

The Pennsylvania Constitution requires that representative districts “shall be composed of compact and contiguous territories with as nearly equal populations as practicable.” Pa. Const. art. II, §16. Counties, cities, incorporated towns, boroughs, townships and/or wards should not be divided unless absolutely necessary. Id. In the Legislative Reapportionment Commission’s (“LRC”) proposed Preliminary Map, Butler County was composed of three separate legislative districts all contained within Butler County as the constitution requires. Without notification of any proposed changes to the Preliminary Map, the LRC issued a Final Map that divided Butler County into four legislative districts that cross county lines into Lawrence and/or Mercer Counties. Petitioners allege that the Final Map was based upon subordinate factors to the criteria set forth in art. II, §16 and that the division of Butler County and other counties, towns, boroughs, townships, and/or wards was not “absolutely necessary.”

Therefore, Petitioners request that the Final Map should be remanded to LRC for reapportionment pursuant to the factors set forth in the Pennsylvania Constitution.

VI. SUMMARY OF ARGUMENT

The Pennsylvania Constitution requires the LRC to create state legislative districts composed of compact and contiguous territory as nearly equal in population as practicable. Pa. Const., art. II, §16. The LRC may not divide counties, cities, incorporated towns, boroughs, townships, or wards between districts unless absolutely necessary. Id. While the LRC may consider other “community interests” in creating legislative districts, those other interests are subordinate to the neutral Section 16 constitutional factors. Regardless of intent, community interests or other factors cannot supersede the threshold constitutional factors in the composition of legislative districts.

The Final Map of February 4, 2022 is based upon political and other unidentified “community interests” rather than the Section 16 criteria required by the Pennsylvania Constitution. Butler County is divided into four districts which cross county, city, town, borough and ward lines into Mercer and Lawrence Counties, diluting the votes of Butler County residents and denying them access to and representation by representatives from their own communities. The Final Map had a domino effect state-wide, which placed political interests above neutral constitutional considerations.

Because the Final Map was created without applying the appropriate constitutional criteria, it is a violation of the “fair and equal” clause of the Pennsylvania Constitution (Pa. Const., art. I, §5). Furthermore, because the Final

Map was issued without notice to constituents based upon closed-door, unpublished communications intended to protect party incumbents, it is also a violation of Pa. Const., art. I, §1 and U.S. Const., amend. XIV. Further, it violates Pa. Const., art. I, § 26 by discriminating against Butler County voters and infringing on their right to vote and denying them, and other citizens in the Commonwealth similarly situated, access to and representation by representatives from their own communities

Petitioners are entitled to a remand of the Final Map to the LRC for reapportionment along constitutional lines consistent with Section 16. Furthermore, due to the substantial time and effort in Petitioners in pursuing a constitutional map and the double-dealing, collusion, conspiracy, and bad faith of the LRC, Petitioners are entitled to costs and attorneys' fees to be paid to their counsel.

VII. ARGUMENT

A. Factual and Procedural History

Under the Pennsylvania Constitution, state legislative districts are reviewed every ten (10) years by the Legislative Reapportionment Commission (“LRC”) following the U.S. decennial census. The Pennsylvania Constitution clearly defines the criteria for the composing of state legislative districts as follows:

[each district] shall be composed of compact and contiguous territory as nearly equal in population as practicable. Each senatorial district shall elect one Senator, and each representative district one Representative. Unless absolutely necessary no county, city, incorporated town, borough, township or ward shall be divided in forming either a senatorial or representative district.

Pa. Const. art. II, § 16.

The LRC was created via the Constitutional Convention of 1967-68 and is codified as Article II, section 17 of the Pennsylvania Constitution. On September 16, 2021, the United States Census Bureau released decennial census data from the 2020 census to state redistricting authorities and the public.<sup>2</sup> According to the 2020 Census, Pennsylvania has 13,002,700 residents and the Pennsylvania House of Representatives is made up of 203 districts. Thus, the ideal district population is about 64,053 persons per district, pursuant to Pa. Const. Art. II, § 16. The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania reviewed, and distributed population data received from the U.S. Secretary of Commerce. This data is commonly referred to as “P.L. 91-171 data,” (hereinafter “data”). Pub. L. No. 940171, 89 Stat. 1023 (1975).

This data showed population growth in Butler County with an increase of 9,901 people, raising Butler County’s population from 183,862 people per the 2010 census to 193,763 following the 2020 census. Butler County had the largest population growth in Southwestern Pennsylvania. See Certified LRC Record #000107. All counties surrounding Butler County, including Mercer and Lawrence Counties, experienced a population decrease. Furthermore, Butler County had the fourth largest percentage growth increase in the Hispanic share of population between 2010 and 2020 with an 88.8% increase. Certified LRC Record #000556. The data did not show any significant Hispanic population or growth in Mercer County. Id.

Applying the ideal population of about 64,053 persons per district, Butler County’s current population results in Butler County supporting three (3) state representative districts all inside of Butler County.

On December 16, 2021, the LRC released its Preliminary Map for Butler County, which did just that and divided Butler County into three (3) state representative districts all contained within in Butler County. These districts were comprised solely of Butler County residents with populations equal as possible within compact and contiguous territories.

The transcript of the Public Hearing held on January 6, 2022, reflects that the House Republican team had identical submissions to the Preliminary map for Butler County:

We received binders of map proposals from the House Republican team, and we had frequent meetings with them to discuss issues they raised, as well as issues that we all identified. In fact, last evening, we identified twenty<sup>3</sup> counties in the Commission's preliminary map that are identical to submissions made by House Republicans. That list includes Armstrong, Cameron, Clarion, Clinton, Blair, Butler, Carbon, Bedford, Elk, Forest, Fulton, Huntington, Indiana, Jefferson, McKean, Potter, Susquehanna, Sullivan, Union, Warren, and Westmoreland.

Certified LRC Record 000814.

Chairman Nordenberg acknowledged that the Butler County districts proposed in the Preliminary Map were appropriate based upon population and county lines:

Butler County is an area that has experienced strong growth and is perfectly sized for three full House districts . . . Similarly, Mercer and Lawrence Counties are perfectly sized for three full House districts.

Certified LRC Record, Stenographic Report of February 4, 2022, Hearing, p. 1748.

On February 3, 2022, upon being notified that the LRC planned a last-minute change to the Butler County legislative districts that were not reflected in the Preliminary Map, Butler County resident and State Representative Marci Mustello sent an email to LRC Chairman Mark Nordenberg requesting his immediate attention to the “radical” “last-minute changes to the state legislative districts in Butler County.” See Exhibit G to Petitioners’ Amended Petition.

Chair Nordenberg did not reply until February 7, 2022, three days after the Final Map was issued. Mr. Nordenberg claimed that one of the Republican caucus leader’s top priorities was “to unpair two Republican incumbents who had been drawn into the same district as a part of the preliminary plan. To accommodate that expressed priority, we needed to bring those two representatives back into Butler County, which is a part of their current districts.” Id. Mr. Nordenberg further stated, “this also permitted us to be responsive to some of the “community of interest” comments that had been submitted to us.” Id. In the ten-thousand-six-hundred-and-ninety-seven-page (10,697) certified record from the LRC, there is no record of any Butler County residents who raised comments of the kind described by Mr. Nordenberg. See Certified LRC Record.

Counsel for Petitioner located two letters addressed to the Chairman Nordenberg from Grove City, Mercer County residents that appear to have been written for the benefit of the incumbent State Representative in Mercer County. LRC Published Submissions Archive, Tab 39, pp. 5821-5822 and 6058-6052. The one individual, although he did not identify himself as the same, is the Campaign Chair of the Mercer County incumbent. LRC Published Submissions Archive, Tab 39, pp. 5821-5822. The second individual is the Grove City Mayor, who resides in close proximity, recently appeared in a photograph, and is financial donor for the Mercer County incumbent. LRC Published Submissions Archive, Tab 39, pp. 6058-6062.

Upon information and belief, neither letter was published as part of the public agenda and no notice to the public was given regarding their contents. Furthermore, neither letter was part of the public hearings for discussion that followed the January 6, 2022, hearing (when the House Republican team and the LRC had identical submissions for Butler County as contained in the preliminary map) up to the February 4, 2022 meeting adopting the Final Plan.

Nevertheless, without notice, the LRC on February 4, 2022, effectively pulled a bait and switch when it issued a new and Final Reapportionment Plan (hereinafter “Final Map”), drastically changing Butler County state house of representative districts without consideration given to dividing Butler County, its cities, incorporated towns, boroughs, townships, wards, municipal boundaries, school districts, or other logical boundaries. Under the Final Map, Butler County is unnecessarily divided, splitting Butler County house districts into four different districts that include portions of Lawrence County and/or Mercer County. The voice and votes of the residents of Butler County have been diluted for the political benefit of the residents and incumbents of other counties.

The Final Map does more than create legislative districts that make up piecemeal portions of three different counties. It also divides Butler County school districts, with seven of eight school districts being split into multiple state representative districts that extend into both Mercer and Lawrence Counties. The Pittsburgh-Butler County Regional Airport, located in Penn Township, Butler County, is now in District 8, which extends into Lawrence County, where an out-of-county incumbent State Representative resides. The Butler County airport is critical to Butler County development and business and has little to nothing to do with Lawrence County.

Furthermore, growing areas in Penn and Middlesex Township, Butler County that border Allegheny County were moved in the Final Map to also become part of District 8, which is more rural, extends into Lawrence County, and traverses all the way to the Ohio state line. A resident of these Townships would now need to travel through District 11 in Butler County to find his or her state representative in District 8 in Lawrence County, where an incumbent resides.

The Final Map also places Slippery Rock University, a public university in Butler County, into a district that is comprised of mostly Mercer County residents and the private Grove City College. Professor Stanley Chepaitis from Indiana, Pennsylvania testified at the September 21, 2021 LRC hearing,

I am asking if you would take a very close look at all of the towns which host the universities of the State System, and other universities as well, and I'm sure there's similar issues in State College, and I think when you do you will find that they were districted in such a way to split and mute the voice of these communities of interest which always gather around a university. If you reverse gerrymanders, I'll call them gerrymanders, and by the way, I was very interested in the map that the lady held up of Butler County, because right there at the nexus of all of that crisscrossing is Slippery Rock University, which is another one. But anyway, if you reverse these gerrymanders, it's probably not going to have a major effect you know, on the political calculus statewide, but it will give these communities of interest which gather around universities more of a voice. It will ask their Representative to heed that voice, to be very mindful of that voice, because I think now they can safely more or less ignore it. And it might just help us save the State System, if that's still possible. I don't know.

Certified LRC Record, p. 698-699.

The Final Map's disregard of county, city, town, borough, township or ward lines creates a domino effect that reaches throughout the Commonwealth as constitutional boundaries are ignored. For example, Allentown is a heavily Democratic city with a population of 126,364, so that it must be divided into two districts, but the Final Map divides it unnecessarily into three state representative districts. The City of Lancaster, population 58,431, is divided in half even though its population is small enough that the entire City can be held in one state representative district. The City of Reading was divided into three representative districts even though, based on population, it only needed to be split into two state representative districts. Harrisburg, population of 50,679, can be easily contained within a single representative district yet is improperly split for partisan reasons. State College, home of the Pennsylvania State University, with a population of 40,508 that could easily be placed in a single representative district, was split into two districts, dividing the campus of the University itself for partisan reasons. The LRC received substantial comments about the splitting of State College but ignored this feedback. See Final Map.

The division of counties and cities extends to state Senate districts as well. Butler County's state Senate district extends into Beaver County. The City of Pittsburgh was divided into three Senate districts— SD-38, SD-42, and SD-43, even though, based on population and constitutional criteria it should only split once. Finally, South Whitehall Township in Lehigh County was unnecessarily divided into two districts in the Senate Plan—SD-14 and SD-16 -- even though the Township could have been kept whole inside one district. See Final Map.

B. Discussion of Questions Presented

1. Is the Final Plan dividing 50 senatorial and 203 representative districts adopted by the LRC on February 4, 2022, contrary to law because without absolute necessity it divides counties, incorporated towns, boroughs, townships or wards?

a. The LRC Final Map violates Pa. Const., art. I, § 5 and Pa. Const., art. II, §16.

Pa. Const. art. II, §16 requires that:

The Commonwealth shall be divided into 50 senatorial and 203 representative districts, which shall be composed of compact and contiguous territory as nearly equal in population as practicable. Each senatorial district shall elect one Senator, and each representative district one Representative. Unless absolutely necessary no county, city, incorporated town, borough, township or ward shall be divided in forming either a senatorial or representative district.

Id. (emphasis added).

As the Court observed in Holt v. Legislative Reapportionment Comm'n (Holt II), 67 A.3d 1211, 1226 (Pa 2013):

The Pennsylvania Constitution does not define contiguity or compactness as related to legislative districts, but this Court has defined a contiguous district as ‘one in which a person can go from any point within the district to any other point) within the district without leaving the district, or one in which no part of the district is wholly physically separate from any other part.

Id. (quoting Commonwealth ex rel. Specter v. Levin, 448 Pa. 1, 298 A.2d 15, 23 (1972)). In other words, the general rule associated with state constitution contiguity is that one “must be able to go to every part of the district without leaving it.”

Certified LRC Record 00092.

Further, Pa. Const., art. I, §5 provides, “Elections shall be free and equal; and no power, civil or military, shall at any time interfere to prevent the free exercise of the right of suffrage.” The “free and equal elections” clause requires neutral criteria to be used to create legislative districts:

These standards place the greatest emphasis on creating representational districts that both maintain the geographical and social cohesion of the communities in which people live and conduct the majority of their day-to-day affairs, and accord equal weight to the votes of residents in each of the various districts in determining the ultimate composition of the state legislature.

League of Women Voters v. Commonwealth, 178 A.3d 737, 814 (2018).

While the LRC is not prohibited from considering other “community interests” in formulating the map, it cannot do so at the expense of the factors set forth in Section 16 or in violation of the “free and equal clause:”

As we understand the constitutional commands, there is nothing at all to prevent a particular reapportionment commission from considering political factors, including the preservation of existing legislative districts, protection of incumbents, avoiding situations where incumbent legislators would be forced to compete for the same new seat, etc., in drawing new maps to reflect population changes. However, we are unpersuaded by the argument that these political concerns are constitutionalized, that they must be accommodated, or, more to the dispute sub judice, that their consideration can justify what would otherwise be a demonstrated violation of the specific constitutional constraints enumerated in Section 16.

Holt v. 2011 Legislative Reapportionment Comm’n (Holt II), 67 A.3d 1211, 1235 (Pa. 2013)

The neutral Section 16 criteria creates a “floor of protection” against the dilution of votes in gerrymandered districts. League of Women Voters v.

Commonwealth, 178 A.3d 737, 817 (2018). Further, this standard does not require a showing that the creators of congressional districts intentionally subordinated these traditional criteria to other considerations in the creation of the district in order for it to violate Article I, Section 5; rather, it is sufficient to establish a violation of this section to show that these traditional criteria were subordinated to other factors.

In the instant matter, the LRC acknowledged that it had the ability to create legislative districts based upon the factors of population, contiguity, and compactness in not only Butler County, but also Lawrence and Mercer Counties. See Certified LRC Record, Stenographic Report of February 4, 2022, Hearing, p. 1748. There was no “absolute necessity” to divide Butler County, its cities, incorporated towns, boroughs, township or wards. Nevertheless, Chairman Nordenberg expressly acknowledged that the LRC subordinated this criteria to satisfy subordinate political and “community interest” factors. Certified LRC Record, Stenographic Report of February 4, 2022, Hearing, p. 1748. See also Exhibit G to Amended Petition.

As a result, the votes of the Petitioners and others similarly situated have been diluted and their right to fair and equal protection under the Pennsylvania Constitution subverted. As discussed infra, they have been placed in legislative districts with voters in different counties, different school districts, different demographics, and different needs. A resident of Penn or Middlesex Township in Butler County would have to travel through district 11 all the way to Lawrence County to find his or her representative in district 8. As the court observed in League of Women Voters v. Commonwealth, 178 A.3d 737, 816 (2018),

When an individual is grouped with other members of his or her community in a congressional district for purposes of voting, the commonality of the interests shared with the other voters in the community increases the ability of the individual to elect a congressional representative for the district who reflects his or her personal preferences. This approach inures to no political party's benefit or detriment. It simply achieves the constitutional goal of fair and equal elections for all of our Commonwealth's voters.

Id.

The constitutional rights of the citizens of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, including the Petitioners, to fair and equal elections and legislative representation by members of their own communities cannot be subverted to protect the “community interests” of two Mercer County political incumbents who wish to protect their seats. The entire state Final Map must fall like a house of cards.

Finally, the LRC made a policy decision to count prisoners at their last known address that is arbitrary and capricious and not based on law. In order to reallocate prisoners, one would need to ask each prisoner where they intended to reside in accordance with the law. This did not happen.

As the Court in Holt II found, “[t]he Constitution ‘trumps’ political considerations. Politics or non-constitutional considerations never ‘trump’ constitutional requirements.” Id., 67 A.3d 1211 (quoting Legislative Districting of the State, 370 Md. 312, 805 A.2d 292, 326 (Md. 2002)).

b. The LRC Final Map violates Pa. Const., art. I, §1 and U.S. Const., amend. XIV.

Article I, Section I, of the Pennsylvania Constitution provides “all men are born equally free and independent, and have certain inherent and indefeasible rights, among which are those of enjoying and defending life liberty, of acquiring, possessing, and protecting property and reputation, and of pursuing their own happiness. Constitution of 1968.<sup>4</sup> The rights afforded under Article I, Section I of the Pennsylvania Constitution coexist with the 14th Amendment due process clause of the United States Constitution, which says “no state shall deprive any person of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law. Pa. Game Comm’n v. Marich, 666 A.2d 253 (Pa. 1995). In addition, the 14th Amendment to the United States Constitution forbids a State from depriving any person of life, liberty, or property without due process of law.

The government is prohibited from depriving individuals’ life, liberty, or property, unless it provides the process that is due. Commonwealth v. Turner, 80 A.3d 754, 764 (Pa. 2013). The basic elements of procedural due process are adequate notice, the opportunity to be heard, and the chance to defend oneself before a fair and impartial tribunal having jurisdiction. Id. at 764.

<sup>4</sup> The Constitution of Pennsylvania, as amended by referenda of May 17, 1966, November 8, 1966, May 16, 1967, and April 23, 1968, and as numbered by proclamation of the Governor of this Commonwealth of July 7, 1967, pursuant to the act of August 17, 1965 (No. 180), shall be known and may be cited as the “Constitution of 1968.”

As set forth above, Petitioners had no notice of the Final Map that drastically changed the Preliminary Map. The letters from the two Mercer County commenters with political connections were not part of any public agenda and were not identified at any public hearing. Butler County residents had no notice that the Preliminary Map had been withdrawn from consideration. Indeed, State Representative Mustello only learned of the new Final Map on the eve of its adoption. Even then, Chairman Nordenberg ignored her email expressing alarm that it diluted to votes of Butler County residents until after the Final Map had been approved. As a result, the Petitioners were deprived of due process during the proceedings and became the victims of off-record meetings and communications that led to the Final Plan. Petitioners' due process rights continue to be violated in this process as Petitioner seeks time for receipt and review of LRC's answer and brief with an opportunity to respond and present oral argument.

c. The LRC Final Map violates Pa. Const., art. I, § 26.

Pa. Const., art. I, § 26 provides that “neither the Commonwealth nor any political subdivision thereof shall deny to any person the enjoyment of any civil right, nor discriminate against any person in the exercise of any civil right.” This Honorable Court held in League of Women’s Voters of Pa. v. Commonwealth, 178 A.3d 809 (Pa. 2018), “[i]t is a core principle of our republican form of government that the voters should choose their representatives, not the other way around.”

As set forth infra and incorporated into this section, the adoption by the LRC of the Final Plan deprives the voters of Butler County and throughout the Commonwealth of meaningful input into legislative elections because of dilution of their vote across counties and other governing boundaries. The Final Map deprives the voters of proper representation by forcing many to travel outside of their home county and their local communities, sometimes through other legislative districts, to see their state representative and/or state senator.

Furthermore, the Final Map fails to take into account the needs and demographics of Butler County and its residents. Butler County is the only county with a growing population in its area, including a substantial growth in its Hispanic population. None of the surrounding counties, two of which share legislative districts with Butler County residents in the Final Map, share the same demographic data. By diluting the vote of Butler County residents, the Final Map discriminates against the voters in Butler County and denies the people of the civil right to freely vote for their own representatives.

2. Should the Final Plan adopted by the LRC on February 4, 2022, be remanded to the LRC and should the LRC be directed to reapportion the Commonwealth in a manner not inconsistent with the Court's Order?

For the reasons set forth above, the Final Map is contrary to law. The remedy is outlined by Holt I, 38 A.3d 711, 761 (2012), which held, “[w]here, as here, aggrieved citizens prove that a redistricting plan is contrary to law, the Constitution specifies that the remedy is a remand to the LRC and the Final Plan does not have force of law.” Any disruption to the primary election calendar is “unavoidable.” Id. Questions related to the scheduling of primaries or special elections are to be left to the legislatures. Id.

3. Are Petitioners entitled to attorneys' fees and costs in bringing their Challenge to the Final Map?

Pa. Const., art. II, §17(g) provides for compensation to those working on legislative maps:

The General Assembly shall appropriate sufficient funds for the compensation and expenses of members and staff appointed by the commission, and other necessary expenses. The members of the commission shall be entitled to such compensation for their services as the General Assembly from time to time shall determine, but no part thereof shall be paid until a preliminary plan is filed. If a preliminary plan is filed but the commission fails to file a revised or final plan within the time prescribed, the commission members shall forfeit all right to compensation not paid.

Id.

Unlike the LRC, who has attorneys who are paid by the taxpayers, the citizen-Petitioners and their counsel have incurred substantial time and expense to bring forth this vital Challenge to enforce Constitutional and civil rights. Accordingly, Petitioners seek costs and counsel fees.

Petitioner also seeks counsel fees due to the dilatory, obdurate, vexatious, arbitrary, and/or bad faith conduct of the LRC and/or as a sanction pursuant to 42 Pa.C.S.A. § 2503. The Final Map is clearly based on political gerrymandering despite the admission of the LRC that Butler County districts can be created using Section 16 criteria. Nonetheless, the Final Map was issued without notice or opportunity for public comment and at the expense of the citizens of this Commonwealth. A person acting or purporting to act in an official capacity or taking advantage of such actual or purported capacity abuses office when knowing conduct is illegal, he or she denies or impedes another in the exercise or enjoyment of any right, privilege, power, or immunity. 53 Pa.C.S.A. § 5301.

4. Incorporation by Reference

Petitioners incorporate by reference by reference the averments, arguments, and exhibits contained in their Petition and Amended/Supplemented Petition herein. Petitioners further incorporate by reference the averments, arguments, exhibits, and brief of Kerry Benninghoff at 11 MM 2022 pursuant to their Joinder herein.

VIII. CONCLUSION

The Final Map is composed of districts that do not meet the requirements of Pa. Const., art. II, §16 and which were created without appropriate notice and due process. The Final Map fails to follow the law and is partisan driven to the detriment of the People in Pennsylvania. As a result, the Final Map is unconstitutional and does not have the force of law. The Final Map must be remanded to LRC and re-drawn using constitutional mandated, neutral criteria. Petitioners are entitled to attorneys fees and costs.
