York County Courts Advise of Incorrect Jury Summons

Harrisburg – York County Court Administration is advising county residents who received a jury summons for county Common Pleas Court to closely check the report date, before reporting for duty.

A recent vendor computer error has resulted in jury notices sent to county residents with erroneous jury service dates, some more than five years old.

Any resident receiving a jury summons with a date prior to the current year may disregard the summons and need take no further action.
