

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN RE: PETITIONS FOR REVIEW : No. 569 Judicial Administration Docket
CHALLENGING THE FINAL 2021 :
LEGISLATIVE REAPPORTIONMENT :
PLAN :

ORDER

PER CURIAM

AND NOW, this 4th day of April, 2022, the calendar for the General Primary Election to be held on May 17, 2022, as set forth in this Court’s Order dated March 16, 2022, for seats in the General Assembly and for State Party Committees is MODIFIED in the following respect:

Last day that may be fixed by the Commonwealth Court for hearings and to render decisions on objections that have been filed to nomination petitions	April 13, 2022
--	----------------

Further, in order to expedite the appellate process regarding appeals from challenges to nomination petitions for any and all candidates running for office in the May 17, 2022 General Primary Election, Pa.R.A.P. 903(c)(1)(ii), providing for a ten-day appeal period from an order in any matter arising under the Pennsylvania Election Code, is TEMPORARILY MODIFIED to provide for a five-day appeal period.

Additionally, Pa.R.A.P. 107 is TEMPORARILY SUSPENDED to the extent it specifies that weekends and holidays are to be excluded from calculating the five-day appeal period.

In appeals arising under the Election Code that fall within this order, appellants shall file briefs within twenty-four hours after filing their notice of appeal and jurisdictional statement. Appellees’ briefs are due within twenty-four hours of the filing of appellants’ briefs. Further, Pa.R.A.P. 2113 (regarding reply briefs) is TEMPORARILY SUSPENDED in these matters; no reply briefs will be permitted.

Notices of appeal, jurisdictional statements, and briefs shall be filed electronically when counsel or the litigants have a PACFile account. Otherwise, counsel or the litigants shall contact the relevant filing office during normal business hours to make alternative arrangements to ensure that the filing office actually receives the submissions by the applicable deadline.

Pa.R.A.P. 1931(a) and (c) (regarding the deadline for transmittal of the record when complete) are TEMPORARILY SUSPENDED in these matters, and the record shall be transferred as soon as practicable. The lower court may transmit partially completed records in the interest of facilitating prompt resolution of any appeal in these matters.

Applications for reconsideration or reargument will not be entertained by this Court on election matters falling under this order.

Any court deciding a matter that arises under the Pennsylvania Election Code in relation to the May 17, 2022 General Primary Election shall append a copy of this order to its decision.
