

Chief Justice Roger Mompesson

1662-1715

Term

1706-1707

Education

- Oxford University,
- Lincoln's Inn, 1685
- Admitted to Philadelphia Bar, July 9, 1703

Professional Experience

- Recorder, Southampton, 1688
- Member, House of Commons, Parliament, 1669-November 1701
- Judge, Vice Admiralty Court for Connecticut, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, April-December 1703
- Chief Justice, New York, July 15, 1704-1715
- Member, Council of New York, 1705-1715
- Member, Council of New Jersey, 1705-1715
- Chief Justice, New Jersey, 1705-April 1709, August 1709-1711
- Chief Justice, Supreme Court, commissioned April 17, 1706-November 20, 1707

Publications

- Jus Regium: Or the King's Right to Grant Forfeitures (1701)

Sources

John Hill Martin, Martin's Bench and Bar of Philadelphia 12-19, 295 (1883); Paula Watson and Ivar McGrath, Mompesson, Roger, 4 The History of Parliament: the House of Commons 1690-1715 839 (2002); Roger Mompesson, Wikipedia, Roger Mompesson - Wikipedia.