ORDER

PER CURIAM

AND NOW, this 2nd day of November, 2022, in conformity with this Court's October 21, 2022 Order designating the Honorable Renée Cohn Jubelirer to serve as Special Master charged, inter alia, with developing an evidentiary record in furtherance of disposing of the Secretary of the Commonwealth's pending Application for an Order Holding Appellees in Contempt and Imposing Sanctions in this matter, Petitioner Appellee Fulton County's Emergency Application for a Preliminary Injunction to Enjoin Discovery in Special Master Proceedings and to Compel Legal Rulings Preceding Said Discovery is referred to the Special Master for decision. This Order is without prejudice to Petitioner-Appellee's rights to seek discovery-related relief before the Special Master in due course and in full conformity with any prior or future orders or directives issued by the Special Master.

Because this Court's entry earlier this day of a temporary stay pending consideration of the instant Application interfered with the Special Master's October 28, 2022 Order with respect to the parties' discovery production deadline, that Order hereby is amended as follows: The deadline for responses, productions, and objections to the parties' discovery requests originally scheduled for 12:00 P.M. on November 2, 2022, established in paragraph 5(d) of the Special Master's Order is hereby extended to 12:00 P.M. on November 3, 2022. Correlatively, the deadline for the parties' submission of any discovery objections by motion with memoranda of law set forth in paragraph 5(e) of the same Order is extended to 12:00 P.M. on November 4, 2022. In all other respects, the Special Master's October 28, 2022 Order remains in effect unless modified or displaced by the Special Master.
