

Organization: Pennsylvania Board of Law Examiners

Position: Reader

Posting Date: 11/29/22

Description:

The Pennsylvania Board of Law Examiners is seeking readers, i.e. graders, to grade the Uniform Bar Examination (UBE) starting with the February 2023 bar administration. All graders are independent contractors.

A grader will be assigned to grade one-third of the answers for one of the multi-state essay exam (MEE) questions or multi-state performance tests (MPT) for both the February and July administrations of the UBE. The Board pays a per paper fee for grading, which will approximate $4500 for a July exam and $2500 for a February exam.

Minimum Qualifications:

- Licensed attorney in good standing in Pennsylvania; AND
- Five years of legal experience.

Additional Requirements / Preferences:

- Attendance at a Friday through Saturday afternoon meeting that will occur in early March and early August is required. Travel and accommodations are paid by the Board.
- Strict adherence to established deadlines and compliance with security specifications required.
- The ability to operate a computer is required.

How to Apply:

Send a cover letter outlining your areas of legal experience and expertise and a resume to pabaroffice@pabarexam.org. In the subject line, please write "Reader."

Pennsylvania Board of Law Examiners
PO Box 62535
Harrisburg, Pennsylvania 17106

Persons employed by or otherwise affiliated with a law school or bar review course are not eligible for the position.