MEMORANDUM OF LAW IN SUPPORT OF THE PRELIMINARY OBJECTIONS OF THE PENNSYLVANIA DEMOCRATIC PARTY

Pursuant to this Court's Order of December 22, 2022, proposed intervenor the Pennsylvania Democratic Party ("PA Dems") files this Memorandum of Law in Support of its Preliminary Objections.

INTRODUCTION

This Court is called upon to answer a narrow question: is the Petitioner entitled to halt the Department of State and Allegheny County Board of Elections from administering the ongoing special elections in House Districts 34 and 35, scheduled for February 7, 2023, the same date as the scheduled special election for House District 32?

Because Petitioner has not met his burden, the Court should sustain the objections below and dismiss the Petition for Review in the Nature of a Complaint for Declaratory Judgment (the "Complaint").

At its core, the Complaint asks this Court to insert itself in the resolution of a non-justiciable political question regarding the issuance of writs of elections, an act that is constitutionally vested solely with the Legislative Branch. The Secretary of the Commonwealth—who is cognizant of the requirements imposed by the Pennsylvania Constitution and Election Code—processed the facially valid writs of election issued by Leader Joanna McClinton. Petitioner has not set forth in the Complaint why this Court should disregard longstanding principles respecting the separation of powers amongst the three branches of government.

Even if this Court could overcome the separation of powers issue, which it cannot, Representative McClinton was the sworn Majority Leader the day she issued the writs and she was the selected leader of the party that prevailed in the majority of seats on Election Day. Leader McClinton adopted as her chosen date for these elections the very day that former Speaker Bryan Cutler had attempted to select, albeit unsuccessfully, for one of the three special elections.

Were this Court to decide that it should delve into whether Leader McClinton was authorized to issue the writs on December 7, 2022, as a pure technical matter the Court must consider that Leader McClinton led the caucus with a majority of certified members because, as of that moment, the Department of State had certified more Democratic House seats than Republican House seats (largely as a result of delays arising from court challenges to 23 seats.)

The Acting Secretary of the Commonwealth acted reasonably in processing Leader McClinton's facially valid writs. The elections in the 34th and 35th Districts<sup>1</sup> have been scheduled, the parties have nominated candidates, the campaigns have begun, and the Allegheny County Board of Elections has proceeded to take the required steps, on an expedited schedule, to ensure that the special elections can be conducted on February 7, 2023. Leader Cutler has offered no support for the proposition that this Court should nullify that process and deprive the residents of Districts 34 and 35 of timely representation in the General Assembly.

 $<sup>^{1}</sup>$  The date of the election in the  $32^{nd}$  District has been resolved by a stipulation of all parties and the proposed intervenor.

BACKGROUND

Pursuant to the Pennsylvania Constitution, legislators' "term of service shall begin on the first day of December next after their election." Pa. Const. art. II, § 2. Consequently, the 207th General Assembly commenced on December 1, 2022.

For the current term in the 207th General Assembly, there are three vacancies in the Pennsylvania House of Representatives. The first vacancy occurred on the first day of the term because the Hon. Anthony DeLuca passed away in October but was reelected posthumously. The second and third vacancies both occurred on December 7, 2022, when Congresswoman-Elect Summer Lee resigned her seat in the 34th House District, effective 10 a.m., and Lieutenant Governor-Elect Austin Davis resigned his seat representing the 35th House District, effective at 10:30 a.m. All three districts are in Allegheny County and are adjacent to one another.

Joanna McClinton has, at all times relevant hereto, been the Democratic Leader in the Pennsylvania House of Representatives. She served as Minority Leader during the 206th General Assembly and was selected as Democratic Leader for the 207th General Assembly. Leader McClinton has publicly stated that she intends to be the next Speaker of the House. Elections for the Speakership of the Pennsylvania House of Representatives are scheduled for January 3, 2023.

Bryan Cutler was the Speaker of the House for the 206th General Assembly and has been selected as Republican Leader for the 207th General Assembly. Leader Cutler has publicly stated that he does not intend to stand for another term as Speaker.

On November 30, 2022, after adjournment sine die and before the end of the then-current term, then-Speaker Cutler issued a document, purporting to be a writ of election for a Special Election in House District 32, and attempted to schedule the election for February 7, 2023. Though Leader McClinton publicly disagreed with the validity of the November 30 writ on several grounds, she announced she would respect the date Former Speaker Cutler attempted to set and would issue a subsequent valid writ for the special election in House District 32 for February 7, 2023.

On December 7, the Acting Secretary of the Commonwealth rejected Leader Cutler's November 30 writ for multiple technical reasons including, but not solely, on the grounds correctly identified by Leader McClinton. That same day, Representative McClinton was sworn in as Majority Leader by the Honorable Richard H. Lowe. After being sworn, Majority Leader McClinton issued writs of election for special elections to fill the three vacant seats, scheduling the special elections for February 7, 2023, the date previously—but improperly—set by the former Speaker. The writs were each attested to by the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives.

Upon receiving the facially valid writs, in accordance with governing state law, the Secretary of the Commonwealth scheduled all three special elections for February 7, 2023, notified the political parties, and publicly promulgated the timeline for political body candidates to qualify for the ballot.

Both the Democratic and Republican parties have selected candidates in all three races, campaigns are underway, and the Allegheny County Board of Elections has begun preparations for the February 7, 2023 special elections.

On December 15, 2022, Leader Cutler issued documents purporting to be writs of election, attempting to schedule elections in the 34th and 35th House Districts on May 16, 2023.

On December 23, 2022, a stipulation was filed agreeing that the 32nd House District election should proceed on February 7, 2023.

ARGUMENT

The Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure allow for preliminary objections for "lack of jurisdiction" (non-justiciability). Pa. R. Civ. P. 1028(a)(1); see also Dintzis v. Hayden, 606 A.2d 660, 661 (Pa. Commw. 1992) (sustaining preliminary objection for non-justiciability of a political question and dismissing complaint). The Rules of Civil Procedure also allow for preliminary objections for "legal insufficiency of a pleading" (demurrer). Pa. R. Civ. P. 1028(a)(4). "Where the complaint fails to set forth a valid cause of action, a preliminary objection in the nature of a demurrer is properly sustained." Lerner v. Lerner, 954 A.2d 1229, 1235 (Pa. Super. 2008).

A. This Court Lacks Jurisdiction Because the Dispute is Non-Justiciable and Involves Questions to be Resolved Solely by the Legislative Branch.

The internal workings of the Pennsylvania House of Representatives generally, and specifically with respect to the calling of special elections, are questions that the judicial branch should not determine.

The Pennsylvania Supreme Court has explained that, "[t]he authority to issue a writ for a special election for a vacant seat in the General Assembly is vested exclusively in that body pursuant to Article II, Section 2 of the Pennsylvania Constitution. No branch shall exercise authority exclusively vested in another branch." Perzel v. Cortes, 582 Pa. 103, 113 (Pa. 2005), (citing Sweeney v. Tucker, 375 A.2d 698 (Pa. 1977)); see also Dintzis, 606 A.2d at 662 (citing Sweeney, 375 A.2d at 706) ("where there is a challenge to legislative power, which the Constitution commits exclusively to the legislature, a non-justiciable political question is presented"). This Court has repeatedly refused to intervene in the inner workings of the Legislature, having confirmed that the "Pennsylvania House of Representatives has exclusive power over its internal affairs and proceedings and that [the Courts] would not review the legislature's internal affairs." See Dintzis, 606 A.2d at 662 (citing Ritter v. Commonwealth, 548 A.2d 1317 (Pa. Commw. 1988), aff'd per curiam, 557 A.2d 1064 (Pa. 1989)).

Separately, whether Leader McClinton had the authority to issue the writs raises another non-justiciable political question, this one concerning which party held the majority of seats in the House of Representatives on December 7, 2022. As the Supreme Court held in Perzel, it is not for this Court to wade into the process of leadership selection or elections within the Legislative Branch. See Perzel, 582 Pa. at 113. To that end, facially valid writs issued by the General Assembly are to be honored by the Executive and Judicial Branches. Id.

Here, the Secretary of the Commonwealth appropriately accepted the writs issued by Leader McClinton, setting special elections for the same date originally agreed upon by Leaders McClinton and Cutler. There is no basis, therefore, for Leader Cutler to ask this Court to intervene now that the special election process is well underway.

B. Even If this Complaint is Justiciable, It Fails to State a Claim Because When Majority Leader McClinton Issued the December 7 Writs, She Was the Presiding Officer by Statute.

It is undisputed that "[p]ursuant to the Pennsylvania Constitution, as well as the Election Code, the authority to issue writs of election [for State Representative] rests with the presiding officer of the House of Representatives[.]" Pa. Const. Art. II, § 2; Complaint, at ¶ 30(A).

There is no Speaker until one is elected in the reorganization and, as such, in the interregnum, the Majority Leader is responsible for the statutory duties that are usually left to the Speaker. 46 Pa. Stat. § 42.121m ("If any vacancy shall occur during the recess of the Legislature in the office of the Speaker of the House of Representatives, the duties of said office shall be performed by the Majority Leader of the House of Representatives.").

As required by statute, the Presiding Officer must issue a writ of election within 10 days of the vacancy occurring in each instance. 25 P.S. § 2778. As a result, the Majority Leader was required to issue a writ for the special election for the 32nd District between December 1 and December 11, and for the special elections for the 34th and 35th Districts between December 7 and December 17. Id.

Here, Leader McClinton took the oath of office as Majority Leader and issued all three writs because she recognized the need for timely action. Since she was leader of the party and caucus with the most election winners in the general election and, critically, leader of the caucus with the most certified vote winners on December 7, 2022, Leader McClinton acted in accordance with law. See 25 P.S. § 2778; see also Fagan v. Smith, 41 A.3d 816, 818 (Pa. 2012) (per curiam) (citing the Free and Equal Elections Clause, Pa. Const. art I, § 5) (voters have "a clear legal right to elected representation, which right must be vindicated at special elections.").

Here, Leader McClinton issued writs of election pursuant to her authority as Majority Leader. See Perzel, 582 Pa. at 113; see also 46 Pa. Stat. § 42.121m. At the time that Majority Leader McClinton took the oath and issued the writs, the Secretary had certified 180 elections for the House of Representatives. The Secretary certified the Democratic candidate as the winner of 94 races (91 after accounting for the three seats then vacant), whereas Republican candidates were certified as winners in 86 races. See Exhibits A-D.<sup>2</sup>

Petitioner's Complaint fails to state a claim because it relies on the incorrect premise that Leader McClinton was not the statutory presiding officer—in this case, the Majority Leader—when she issued the writs of election. Nevertheless, as of December 7, 2022, Leader McClinton was, in fact, the presiding officer pursuant to &lt;sup>2</sup> This was not some accident of timing, as baseless challenges in multiple counties delayed election returns across the state causing the Secretary to certify counties in a staggered process. From the commencement of the session on December 1 until the issuance of the writs on December 7, and for some significant time thereafter, Leader McClinton was always the clear leader of a majority caucus of certified members.

PA Dems recognizes that, particularly after the bad-faith election denial litigation in both 2020 and 2022, there is a theoretical risk of improper election disputes for the purpose of delaying certifications and altering leadership elections. That risk must be the subject of statutory revision, and in the interim, courts may need to address such actions through an application of the doctrine of unclean hands. However, there is no application or allegation of unclean hands here; in fact, all 2022 certification delaying litigation in Pennsylvania was filed by Republicans, including a county party chair and a Representative-Elect. No one has accused PA Dems, Leader McClinton, or anyone associated with either of them, of delaying certification in any of the 67 counties.

applicable statutes and certifications, and she validly issued the writs pursuant to her authority.

Once the facially valid writs were submitted, the Secretary was required to process the writs Leader McClinton issued and cause the elections to occur. The Acting Secretary did just that.

Of no moment is the fact that, eight days later, on December 15, 2022, Leader Cutler issued documents purporting to be writs of election in his own name, asserting alternate election dates for the 34th and 35th House Districts. These December 15 writs were for vacancies for which elections had already been scheduled and, as such, are nullities as a matter of law. Finding these writs invalid does not require any determination of whether Leader Cutler was the Majority Leader on December 15.

The voters of the  $34^{\text{th}}$  and  $35^{\text{th}}$  House Districts have "a clear legal right to elected representation, which right must be vindicated at special elections." See Fagan, 41 A.3d at 818. If the December 15 writs controlled, the voters of the  $34^{\text{th}}$  and  $35^{\text{th}}$  House Districts would be without representation for over six months.

For the reasons set forth above, Leader Cutler has failed in his complaint to set forth a legal basis by which this Court should undo the special elections now underway. WHEREFORE, this Court must sustain the PA Dems' Preliminary Objections and dismiss the case in its entirety.
