DOMESTIC RELATIONS PROCEDURAL RULES COMMITTEE

PUBLICATION REPORT

The Domestic Relations Procedural Rules Committee (Committee) is proposing the adoption of Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure 1915.3-3 and 1915.3-4, and the amendment of Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure 1915.3-2, 1915.4-4, 1915.7, 1915.10, 1915.15, and 1915.25.

As background, Act 107 of 2013, effective January 1, 2014, prompted the Committee to discuss rule amendments to further those legislative changes, which included directing custody courts to consider child abuse and the involvement of a party, household member, or child with a child protective services agency when determining child custody under 23 Pa.C.S. §§ 5321 - 5340. Act 107 amended not only Title 23 as it relates to child custody, but also the Child Protective Services Law (CPSL), 23 Pa.C.S. §§ 6301 - 6375, and the Juvenile Act, 42 Pa.C.S. §§ 6301 - 6375. The Act directed the Department of Public Welfare, now the Pennsylvania Department of Human Services (DHS), the local county children and youth social services agency and the court of common pleas to cooperate with the exchange of information necessary for a court to determine child custody. See 23 Pa.C.S. § 5329.1(b). DHS and county agencies were directed to provide custody courts with greater access to confidential records and files for proceedings under the CPSL and the Juvenile Act. The information sharing was necessary for the custody court to determine the amended factors in 23 Pa.C.S. §§ 5328(a)(2.1) and 5329.1(a).

These statutory changes raised several procedural and evidentiary issues. First, child custody proceedings are adversarial, and the parties are required to present evidence in support of a claim for custody, including addressing the Section 5328 factors. The parties to a custody proceeding, as well as the custody court, may not have knowledge of all participants' prior or ongoing involvement with a county agency. Further, the parties to a custody proceeding may not have access to juvenile court records or county agency files, which may contain relevant information for the custody proceeding. Moreover, some dependency and county agency information or reports are confidential and, as such, a custody litigant may be precluded from obtaining evidence relevant to the custody action.

Second, the Act amends the CPSL and Juvenile Act by granting courts of common pleas access to reports, files, and court records to assist the court in determining custody. The Committee observes that this access is only provided to the court and not to the parties. As raised in comments to prior proposals, requiring the custody judge to access county agency information and files places the judge in an investigative, rather than an adjudicative, role. Respondents to prior proposals objected to this judicial investigative role.

Complicating matters are varying local procedures and practices for custody cases and juvenile dependency cases. In judicial districts in which a judge may hear both custody and dependency cases or the judicial district is “one family one judge,” the issues are less problematic since the custody court often would have knowledge of the parties’ or child’s involvement with a county agency and dependency court. Additionally, the court would already have access to the dependency case records and may have conducted hearings in which this information had been entered as evidence. However, even in these judicial districts, the issue of how county agency and dependency court information will be entered into evidence in the custody action is still problematic in many circumstances, as is third-party litigants accessing confidential county agency reports and information.

Indicative of the complexity of these issues, the Committee previously published four proposals for public comment on this topic. See 46 Pa.B. 3932 (July 23, 2016), 47 Pa.B. 3333 (June 17, 2017), 49 Pa.B. 3469 (July 6, 2019), and 50 Pa.B. 3826 (August 1, 2020). After reviewing comments from the most recent publication and additional Committee deliberations, the Committee proposes revisions to the previous rule proposal, revisions to other relevant rules and proposes two new rules.

Proposed Adoption of Pa.R.Civ.P. 1915.3-3 (Report of Child Abuse and Protective Services) and Pa.R.Civ.P. 1915.3-4 (Form for Report of Child Abuse and Protective Services).

The Committee proposes a new Pa.R.Civ.P. 1915.3-3 to provide a procedure for a custody court to request information from the local county agency, as well as the return and dissemination of that information. This rule, as well as Pa.R.Civ.P. 1915.3-4, which provides the form for the request of information, will promote uniformity of procedure for each local court.

Subdivision (a) confirms the purpose for the rule, which is in accordance with 23 Pa.C.S. § 5329.1(a). Subdivision (b) provides definitions for both Pa.R.Civ.P. 1915.3-3 and 1915.3-4.

Subdivision (c) outlines the minimum circumstances under which the court should request information from the local county agency. The Committee wanted to provide a general guideline for submission of the court’s request, while allowing each court discretion in deciding whether to request a report in other circumstances.

Subdivision (d) provides a timeline for the county agency to return the report to the court. The decision to specify “no later than five days” for the return of the report was selected considering the court’s need for information as quickly as possible, while being mindful of the administrative burden on county agencies. The proposed subdivision provides the court with the option of designating a different timing if there is a pressing need for the information to be returned sooner.

Subdivision (e) requires the report to be filed with the court and disseminated to the parties. This is to make the report a part of the record and to allow the parties the opportunity to subpoena the county agency, if additional information is needed in a custody proceeding.

Subdivision (f) was deemed necessary due to the Committee's decision that the report should be filed and disseminated to the parties. The intention of this subdivision is to maintain the confidentiality associated with county agency investigations, for the protection of the subject children, parties, and any interested third parties.

Subdivision (g) establishes the right of the parties and the court to subpoena the county agency to provide witnesses to attend any custody proceedings. The Committee believed that this subdivision was necessary due to the elimination of requests for any narrative explanation from the county agency in the report.

The Committee also proposes a new Pa.R.Civ.P. 1915.3-4 providing a form to be used in for this procedure. The form is intended to solicit the factors set forth in in 23 Pa.C.S. § 5329.1. The Committee proposes that the first page of the report in Pa.R.Civ.P. 1915.3-4 be the same as the first page of the Criminal Record or Abuse History Verification in Pa.R.Civ.P. 1915.3-2. Each party's Verification form will be filed with the court after being completed. In appropriate circumstances, the court or its designee can take the first page of each party's Verification form and submit it to the county agency to request information directly from the county agency.

The contents of the proposed form are similar to a DHS form currently in use in some counties. The DHS form, "Information Sharing in Custody Filings", was transmitted with the Office of Children Youth and Families' Bulletin # 3490-19-03 in October 2019. However, the Committee had concerns that some of the items on the DHS form invited open-ended statements and possibly opinions, which would be hearsay if admitted as evidence. Specifically, the Committee sought to eliminate soliciting any potential hearsay in the form as well as the necessity of preserving confidentiality to protect the identity of the reporter and to protect the parties involved. To eliminate potential hearsay statements, the Committee did not include the open-ended requests for "any pertinent information" in subdivisions I. (G.) and II. (I.) from the DHS form. The Committee acknowledges this may result in the increased need for a county agency representative to testify in custody proceedings but believed the Pennsylvania Rules of Evidence require it.

To preserve confidentiality, the Committee also omitted the requests for dates of referrals in the DHS form I.(A.) and II.(A.). The general timing of the alleged abuse will be evident, but specifically indicating the date of any referral might pinpoint the referral source, which is to remain confidential.

Amendment of Pa.R.Civ.P. 1915.3-2 (Criminal Record or Abuse History), Pa.R.Civ.P. 1915.4-4 (Pre-Trial Procedures), Pa.R.Civ.P. 1915.7 (Consent Order), Pa.R.Civ.P. 1915.10 (Decision. Order), Pa.R.Civ.P. 1915.15 (Form of Complaint. Caption. Order. Petition to Modify a Custody Order), and Pa.R.Civ.P. 1915.25 (Suspension of Acts of Assembly.)

The Committee proposes amending Pa.R.Civ.P. 1915.3-2, 1915.4-4, 1915.7, 1915.10, 1915.15 and 1915.25. Given the scope of these amendments to Pa.R.Civ.P. 1915.3-2, 1915.4-4, 1915.7 and 1915.10, the text following the rule number and title would be rescinded and replaced. The new text also reflects stylistic revisions such as subdividing and numbering subparts for ease of readability, relocation, and consolidation of commentary.

The Committee proposes comprehensive changes to Pa.R.Civ.P. 1915.3-2, which provides the procedures governing the parties' criminal record and abuse history, including the Verification form. The revised Pa.R.Civ.P. 1915.3-2(a)(1) requires that the Verification form remain confidential. This is to protect the parties, their household members, and the children involved.

Regarding the timing of the filing, the Committee proposes a modest revision of the requirements for the responding party. Currently, the defendant or respondent must file and serve the completed Verification form "on or before the initial in-person contact with the court ... but not later than 30 days after service of the complaint or petition." As proposed, Pa.R.Civ.P. 1915.3-2(a)(3) would require, in pertinent part, that the Verification form be filed with the prothonotary "before" the initial in-person contact or within 30 days of service of the initiating pleading, whichever occurs first. This amendment would ensure the court has the responding party's information before the initial in-person proceeding. The Committee believes it is necessary for the court to have the most current information about the parties' and household member's criminal record and abuse history to properly determine the best interest of the child.

In addition, the parties and court should be informed of any changes to the household membership since the previous filing. As such, subdivision (a)(4) places an obligation on the parties to update the form. This will enable the parties and the court to have current and accurate information so they can understand any potential threats of harm to the child. The parties would be required to update the form either five days after a change in circumstances or no less than one day before any proceeding, whichever occurs first. Subdivision (a)(5) addresses sanctions for a party's failure to comply with the requirement of filing their updated Verification form.

The Committee proposes several changes to the Verification form in subdivision (c). The parties are required to complete the information on the form and the form has been revised to confirm that only a party, and not their attorney, must sign the form. As outlined in proposed Pa.R.Civ.P. 1915.3-4, the first page of the Verification form, which is to include the names of all children and parties involved with the matter, may be used by the court to submit a request to the county agency regarding any involvement by the parties with the county agency, as provided in Pa.R.Civ.P. 1915.3-3.

The form has been expanded to include any pending charges, as well any offenses that have been resolved by Accelerated Rehabilitative Disposition or another diversionary program but have not been expunged. This addition will provide the court with the most relevant and recent information to ensure the best interest of the child, while being cognizant of the limitations associated with requesting information regarding expunged crimes or offenses resolved through limited access or "Clean Slate" programs.

Statutory changes impacting Pa.R.Civ.P. 1915.3-2 are the amendments of 23 Pa.C.S. § 5329. Act 32 of 2020, effective August 4, 2020, amended Section 5329 and adds 18 Pa.C.S. § 2718 (related to strangulation) to the list of criminal offenses that the court must consider in determining the best interest of the child. Act 38 of 2021, effective August 30, 2021 amended Section 5329 and adds 18 Pa.C.S. Ch. 30 (related to human trafficking) as well as 18 Pa.C.S. § 5902(b.1) to the list of criminal offenses that the court must consider as well. To provide the court with a complete history of violent or abusive conduct, the Committee proposes the form include that statutory amendment along with adding contempt of Protection of Victims of Sexual Violence and Intimidation order or agreement to the list of offenses included on the form. A "catch-all" category of "other" is also proposed to be included for other forms of abuse or violent conduct that may not be specifically enumerated.

Concerning Pa.R.Civ.P. 1915.4-4, the proposed amendment would require the court to address the parties' criminal record or abuse history at a pre-trial conference. In addition, the proposed amendment would require the court to address the admissibility of the county agency documents and information and other related evidentiary issues, including authentication of county agency records, during a pretrial conference. The Committee also proposes removing the explanatory comment in Pa.R.Civ.P. 1915.4-4 because it is a historical explanation of prior rulemaking and, in part, is a reiteration of the rule text.

For Pa.R.Civ.P. 1915.7, a portion of the note in the current rule, referencing Pa.R.Civ.P. 1915.10(b) regarding written custody order requirements, is proposed to be eliminated. Pa.R.Civ.P. 1915.10(b) relates to a court's decision in custody, not an agreement by the parties. Therefore, it is irrelevant to Pa.R.Civ.P. 1915.7.

Also proposed is the removal of the 2019 explanatory comment in Pa.R.Civ.P. 1915.7 because it provides a historical explanation of prior rulemaking and, in part, is a reiteration of the rule text. A portion of the 1981 explanatory comment is proposed to be removed due to reiteration of the rule text. The remaining portion of the 1981 explanatory comment was re-styled and would be placed in the Comment.

Regarding Pa.R.Civ.P. 1915.10, subdivision (c) would be amended to require the court's custody order to include a notice outlining the parties' ongoing obligation to update the Verification form post-final order. This amendment is intended to inform the other party of any changes that may have a significant impact on the child and the child's best interest. By requiring a party to update the Verification form when his or her circumstances, or those of a household member, warrant, the other party can obtain information and assess whether a modification of the order is necessary. This requirement is fashioned after the current relocation notice requirement. As proposed, subdivision (c) is subdivided so that both requirements, relocation and updating Verification forms, are in separate subdivisions. A comment was added to confirm that the filing of an updated Verification form does not impose a duty on the court to review, respond, or react unless a party petitions the court for relief. It is proposed that the explanatory comments in Pa.R.Civ.P. 1915.10 be moved to the Comment at the end of the rule.

In Pa.R.Civ.P. 1915.15, subdivision (c) would set forth the form of the order of court that must be attached to the front of the complaint or petition for modification that is served on the defendant or respondent. The change in this rule reflects the same timing as Rule 1915.3-2(a)(3). It is also proposed that the explanatory comments in Pa.R.Civ.P. 1915.15 be removed. They provide reasoning behind the amendments at the time they were drafted, but they do not aid in the application of the rule.

Finally, it is proposed that, Pa.R.Civ.P. 1915.25 be revised to suspend 23 Pa.C.S. § 6339, insofar as it is inconsistent with Pa.R.Civ.P. 1915.3-3 and 1915.3-4. The Committee agreed that the reports from DHS provide critical information for courts to consider in custody matters. If a court relies upon information in these reports, the reports must be provided to the parties to avoid a violation of the parties' right to due process.

The Committee invites comments, concerns, and suggestions regarding this rulemaking proposal.

Rule 1915.3-2. Criminal Record or Abuse History.

[(a) Criminal Record or Abuse History Verification. A party must file and serve with the complaint, any petition for modification, any counterclaim, any petition for contempt or any count for custody in a divorce complaint or counterclaim a verification regarding any criminal record or abuse history of that party and anyone living in that party's household. The verification shall be substantially in the form set forth in subdivision (c) below. The party must attach a blank verification form to a complaint, counterclaim or petition served upon the other party. Although the party served need not file a responsive pleading pursuant to Rule 1915.5, he or she must file with the court a verification regarding his or her own criminal record or abuse history and that of anyone living in his or her household on or before the initial in-person contact with the court (including, but not limited to, a conference with a conference officer or judge or conciliation, depending upon the procedure in the judicial district) but not later than 30 days after service of the complaint or petition. A party's failure to file a Criminal Record or Abuse History Verification may result in sanctions against that party. Both parties shall file and serve updated verifications five days prior to trial.

(b) Initial Evaluation. At the initial in-person contact with the court, the judge, conference officer, conciliator or other appointed individual shall perform an initial evaluation to determine whether the existence of a criminal or abuse history of either party or a party's household member poses a threat to the child and whether counseling is necessary. The initial evaluation required by 23 Pa.C.S. § 5329(c) shall not be conducted by a mental health professional. After the initial evaluation, the court may order further evaluation or counseling by a mental health professional if the court determines it is necessary. Consistent with the best interests of the child, the court may enter a temporary custody order on behalf of a party with a criminal history or a party with a household member who has a criminal history, pending the party's or household member's evaluation and/or counseling.

Note:* The court shall consider evidence of criminal record or abusive history presented by the parties. There is no obligation for the court to conduct an independent investigation of the criminal record or abusive history of either party or members of their household. The court should not consider ARD or other diversionary programs. When determining whether a party or household member requires further evaluation or counseling, or whether a party or household member poses a threat to a child, the court should give consideration to the severity of the offense, the age of the offense, whether the victim of the offense was a child or family member and whether the offense involved violence.

(c) Verification. The verification regarding criminal or abuse history shall be substantially in the following form:

(b) Evaluation.

- (1) Initial Evaluation. During the initial in-person custody proceeding, the judge, conference officer, conciliator, or other appointed individual shall evaluate whether a party or household member poses a threat to the child.

(i) In determining whether a party or household member poses a threat to the child or requires an additional evaluation or counseling, as provided in 23 Pa.C.S. § 5329(c)-(e), the judge, conference officer, conciliator, or other appointed individual shall consider:

(A) the party's Criminal Record/Abuse History Verification form; and

(B) other information or documentation of the party's or household member's criminal record or abuse history that is provided by either party.

(ii) To the extent a party or household member has a criminal record relating to an enumerated offense in 23 Pa.C.S. § 5329(a) or an abuse history, the judge, conference officer, conciliator, or other appointed individual shall consider:

(A) the severity of the offense or abuse;

(B) when the offense or abuse occurred;

(C) if the victim was a child or family member; and

(D) whether the offense or abuse involved physical violence.

- (2) Additional Evaluation or Counseling. If the initial evaluation set forth in subdivision (b)(1) determines that a party or household member poses a threat to the child, the conference officer, conciliator, or other appointed individual conducting the evaluation may recommend to the judge, and the judge may order:

- (i) a party or party's household member to undergo an additional evaluation or counseling by a mental health professional appointed by the court; or
- (ii) temporary custody pending the additional evaluation or counseling.

(c) Form. The verification regarding criminal record or abuse history shall be substantially in the following form:

Comment: There is no obligation for the court to conduct an independent investigation of a party's or the party's household member's criminal record or abuse history.

The intent of subdivision (a)(4) is for the court and parties to have the most current information available, including after a final order — provided the child remains under the court's jurisdiction. Although the subdivision provides for the filing of an updated Criminal Record/Abuse History Verification form at a hearing, pretrial conference, or trial, the terminology used by a judicial district may vary for these court proceedings.

As used in subdivision (a), a "child custody action" is intended to include any action where custody may be awarded, including a protection from abuse action.

For subdivision (c)(6), see Pa.R.Civ.P. 1930.5 (discovery in domestic relations matters) and Pa.R.E. 614 (court's calling or examining a witness).

Given the sensitive nature of the record, see Pa.R.Civ.P. 1930.1 (form of caption and applicability of the Case Records Public Access Policy of the Unified Judicial System of Pennsylvania).

(This is an entirely new rule.)

Rule 1915.3-3. Report of Child Abuse and Protective Services.

- (a) General Rule. A court shall determine whether a participant in a child custody action has a history of child abuse or involvement with protective services.
- (b) Definitions. The following definitions shall apply to this rule:
 - (1) “Participant” shall include any party, child, or member of a party’s household identified on the Criminal Record or Abuse History Verification, as required by Pa.R.Civ.P. 1915.3-2.
 - (2) “County agency” shall have the same meaning as set forth in Pa.R.J.C.P. 1120 (defining “county agency”).
 - (3) “Form” shall be the form found at Pa.R.Civ.P. 1915.3-4.
- (c) Submission. Whenever a party has disclosed a history of child abuse or involvement with protective services pursuant to Pa.R.Civ.P. 1915.3-2, or the court or its designee believes that further inquiry is warranted, the court shall confirm or identify all participants on the form in Pa.R.Civ.P. 1915.3-4 and transmit the form for completion to the county agency with notice to the parties.
- (d) Return. The county agency shall complete the form for all participants and return it to the court no later than five days or the time specified by the court after receiving the submission.
- (e) Dissemination. Upon receipt of the completed form, the court shall promptly docket and disseminate it to the parties.
- (f) Confidentiality. The completed form shall be confidential and not publicly accessible. Further dissemination by the recipients of the form is in violation of 23 PA.C.S. Ch. 63 (Child Protective Services Law).
- (g) Witnesses. The parties may subpoena with leave of court, or the court may otherwise order, the county agency to provide a witness or witnesses to attend and testify about any child abuse history or protective services disclosed on the form.

Comment: This rule is intended to implement 23 Pa.C.S. § 5329.1.

As used in subdivision (a), a “child custody action” is intended to include any action where custody may be awarded, including a protection from abuse action.

For subdivision (c), the court may use Part I (Participant) of each party’s Criminal Record or Abuse History Verification (“Verification”), as provided in Rule 1915.3-2, in lieu of completing the “participant” section of the form. The court shall indicate the request for information by checking the box at the top of the first page of the Verification.

For subdivision (f), see Pa.R.Civ.P. 1930.5 (discovery in domestic relations matters) and Pa.R.E. 614 (court’s calling or examining a witness).

Given the sensitive nature of the record, see Pa.R.Civ.P. 1930.1 (form of caption and applicability of the Case Records Public Access Policy of the Unified Judicial System of Pennsylvania).

Rule 1915.25(c) suspends 23 Pa.C.S. § 6339, insofar as it is inconsistent with this rule.

If a party wishes to request a pre-trial conference, the praecipe set forth in subdivision (g) shall be filed. The scheduling of a pre-trial conference shall not stay any previously scheduled proceeding unless otherwise ordered by the court.]

(a) The praecipe may be filed at any time after a custody conciliation or conference with a conference officer unless a pre-trial conference has already been scheduled or held. The pre-trial conference may be scheduled at any time, but must be scheduled at least 30 days prior to trial.

The pre-trial statement shall include the following matters, together with any additional information required by special order of the court:

(1) the name and address of each expert whom the party intends to call at trial as a witness;

(2) the name and address of each witness the party intends to call at trial and the relationship of that witness to the party. Inclusion of a witness on the pre-trial statement constitutes an affirmation that the party's counsel or the self-represented party has communicated with the witness about the substance of the witness's testimony prior to the filing of the pretrial statement; and

(3) a proposed order setting forth the custody schedule requested by the party.

In addition to the above items included in the pre-trial statement, any reports of experts and other proposed exhibits shall be included as part of the pre-trial statement served upon the other party or opposing counsel, but not included with the pre-trial statement served upon the court.

(2) unresolved discovery matters;

(3) any agreements of the parties;

(4) issues relating to expert witnesses;

(5) settlement and/or mediation of the case;

EXPLANATORY COMMENT

In 2013, the Domestic Relations Procedural Rules Committee (the “Committee”) recognized there was a wide disparity in pre-trial procedures in custody cases among the various judicial districts. By adopting this rule, the Supreme Court established uniform state-wide pre-trial procedures in custody cases. With an eye toward reducing custody litigation, the rule encourages early preparation and court involvement for purposes of expedited resolutions. The rule was based upon the pretrial procedures in divorce cases as set forth in Pa.R.C.P. No. 1920.33(b). The rule does not affect, however, the First Judicial District’s practice of conducting a pre-trial conference upon the filing of a motion for a protracted or semi-protracted trial.

In 2015, the Committee expressed concern the rule as previously adopted by the Supreme Court allowed for an interpretation contrary to the intent of the rule. The Committee proposed and the Court adopted an amendment to the rule to clarify the rule’s mandate as it relates to witnesses. As a goal of any pre-trial conference is to settle the case, in whole or in part, the Committee believed a best practice in reaching that goal is having a thorough knowledge of the case, including the substance of anticipated witness testimony. As amended, the rule plainly states that counsel or a self-represented party is required to discuss with the witness their testimony prior to including the witness on the pre-trial statement.

Unlike Pa.R.C.P. No. 1920.33(b), the rule does not require inclusion of a summary of the witness’s testimony in the pre-trial statement; but rather, an affirmation by counsel or self-represented party that there was actual communication with each witness about the witness's testimony. With the additional information from witnesses, counsel, self-represented parties, and the trial court can better engage in more fruitful settlement discussions at the pre-trial conference.]

EXPLANATORY COMMENT--1981

As in other types of litigation, determination of an action through agreement of the parties is a desirable goal. However, the power of the parties to enter into an agreement is not absolute. In Com. ex rel. Veihdeffer v. Veihdeffer, 235 Pa.Super. 447, 344 A.2d 613, 614 (1975), the Superior Court stated:

It is well settled that an agreement between the parties as to custody is not controlling but should be given weight taking into consideration all the circumstances. . . . A child cannot be made the subject of a contract with the same force and effect as if it were a mere chattel has long been established law.

If the parties seek to have their agreement incorporated into a consent order, Rule 1915.7 provides two methods of presenting the agreement to the court. The first is by noting the agreement on the record. The second is by submitting to the court a proposed order bearing the written consent of the parties. Whichever method is used, however, the parties must be present before the court unless the court directs otherwise. The child affected by the order need be present only if the court so directs.

EXPLANATORY COMMENT--2019

The rule has been amended to ensure that when a custody agreement is orally placed on the record that a written custody order prepared by the parties memorializing the parties' agreement is timely submitted to the court or the court memorializes the oral agreement into a written custody order. The amendment avoids the untenable circumstance that the only written record of the parties' oral agreement is a transcription of what had been placed on the record. Transcription agreements are often cumbersome and difficult to discern as to the custody terms and provisions, which makes enforcement difficult. This amendment is consistent with the holding in R.L.P. v. R.F.M., 110 A.3d 201 (Pa. Super. 2015).]

- (a) Agreement. If the parties have an agreement regarding custody, the parties may request that the court incorporate the agreement's terms into a consent order.

- (b) Consent Order.
 - (1) The parties shall submit to the court a proposed custody order bearing the parties' written consent; or
 - (2) the parties may state the agreement on the record, provided:
 - (i) within ten days of placing the agreement on the record, the parties comply with subdivision (a); or
 - (ii) the court memorializes the oral agreement from the record into a written custody order.

Comment: Rule 1930.1(b) may require attorneys or unrepresented parties to file confidential documents and documents containing confidential information that are subject to the Case Records Public Access Policy of the Unified Judicial System of Pennsylvania.

Rule 1915.10. Decision. Order.

[(a) The court may make the decision before the testimony has been transcribed. The court shall state the reasons for its decision on the record in open court or in a written opinion or order.

Note: See 23 Pa.C.S. § 5323(d).

(b) The court shall enter a custody order as a separate written order or in a separate section of a written opinion.

(1) The court's order shall state sufficiently specific terms to enforce the order.

(2) If the court has made a finding that a party or child is at risk of harm, the court's order shall include safety provisions for the endangered party's or child's protection.

(3) The court may order that the case caption use the parties' initials rather than the parties' names based on the sensitive nature of the facts in the case record and the child's best interest.

Note: See Pa.R.C.P. No. 1930.1(a).

(4) When drafting a written opinion or order in an action having the parties' initials in the case caption, the court shall:

(i) avoid using specific identifiers for people, places, or things that may indirectly reveal the child's identity; and

(ii) use generalized identifiers when describing a child's school, activities, affiliated organizations, or other similar terms.

(c) A custody order shall include a notice outlining the parties' obligations under 23 Pa.C.S. § 5337, regarding a party's intention to relocate with a minor child.

Note: See 23 Pa.C.S. § 5323(c) and Pa.R.C.P. No. 1915.17.

(d) A party may not file a motion for post-trial relief to an order of legal or physical custody.

EXPLANATORY COMMENT--2019

Subdivision (b) further defines and reinforces the requirements in 23 Pa.C.S. § 5323(e). Examples of safety provisions include, but are not limited to, supervised physical custody, a supervised or neutral custody exchange location, a neutral third-party present at custody exchanges, telephone or computer-facilitated contact with the child, no direct contact between the parties, third-party contact for cancellations, third-party transportation, and designating a secure, neutral location as repository for a child's passport.

Additionally, subdivision (b) requires a court to enter a custody order as a separate written order or in a separate section of a written opinion. The subdivision also addresses the practice of orally entering a custody order on the record without formalizing the custody order in writing. In such circumstances, the parties' only documentation of the custody order is a transcription of the oral record. In R.L.P. v. R.F.M., 110 A.3d 201 (Pa. Super. 2015), the Superior Court held that “in order to be sufficiently specific to be enforced, an order of custody must be entered as a separate written order, or as a separate section of a written opinion.” Id. at 206. Despite the Superior Court's decision, the practice of placing custody orders on the record without subsequently entering a written order has continued, which has been problematic for enforcement and understanding of the agreement's or order's terms.

EXPLANATORY COMMENT--2021

Subdivision (b)(3) allows the court discretion to initialize a custody action's case caption when the child's privacy may be compromised by the sensitive nature of the facts in the case record. When the court determines that the case caption should be initialized, additional privacy safeguards are required under subdivision (b)(4).

Subdivision (b)(4) recognizes that inadvertent disclosure of the child's identity and privacy may occur if the written custody order or opinion provides specific details of the child's life (i.e., school, extracurricular activities). Subdivision (b)(4) requires that the court refrain from using specific identifiers; instead, the court should use general terms (i.e., high school, not John F. Kennedy High School). In circumstances in which name specificity is required, such as school choice, the court should consider a separate order for that issue.]

(a) Decision.

- (1) The court may decide custody before the testimony has been transcribed.

- (2) The court shall state the reasons for its decision:
 - (i) on the record in open court; or
 - (ii) in a written opinion or order.
- (b) Order. The court shall enter a custody order as a separate written order or in a written opinion as a separate section.
 - (1) The court's order shall sufficiently state specific terms to enforce the order.
 - (2) If the court finds that a party or child is at risk of harm, the court's order shall include safety provisions for the endangered party's or the child's protection.
 - (3) The court may order that the case caption use the parties' initials rather than the parties' names based on the sensitive nature of the facts in the case record and the child's best interest.
 - (4) When drafting a written opinion or order in an action having the parties' initials in the case caption, the court shall:
 - (i) avoid using specific identifiers for people, places, or things that may indirectly reveal the child's identity; and
 - (ii) use generalized identifiers when describing a child's school, activities, affiliated organizations, or other similar terms.
- (c) Party Obligations. A custody order shall include a notice outlining the parties' obligations under:
 - (1) 23 Pa.C.S. § 5337, regarding a party's intention to relocate with a minor child; and
 - (2) Pa.R.Civ.P. 1915.3-2(a)(4)(ii), regarding a party's ongoing obligation to complete, file, and serve the Criminal Record/Abuse History Verification form.
- (d) No Post-Trial Relief. A party shall not file a motion for post-trial relief to an order of legal or physical custody.

Comment: See 23 Pa.C.S. § 5323(d) (requiring the court to delineate the reasons for its decision on the record in open court or in a written opinion or order).

See Pa.R.Civ.P. 1930.1(a)(2) (permitting the court to order that the case caption contain the parties' initials rather than their names in custody actions).

See 23 Pa.C.S. § 5323(c) (requiring that an order include notice of a party's obligations under § 5337, relating to relocation) and Pa.R.Civ.P. 1915.17 (outlining the requirements for the proposed relocation of a child's residence).

Subdivision (b) further defines and reinforces the requirements in 23 Pa.C.S. § 5323(e). Examples of safety provisions include, but are not limited to, supervised physical custody, a supervised or neutral custody exchange location, a neutral third-party present at custody exchanges, telephone or computer-facilitated contact with the child, no direct contact between the parties, third-party contact for cancellations, third-party transportation, and designating a secure, neutral location as repository for a child's passport.

Additionally, subdivision (b) requires a court to enter a custody order as a separate written order or in a separate section of a written opinion. The subdivision also addresses the practice of orally entering a custody order on the record without formalizing the custody order in writing. In such circumstances, the parties' only documentation of the custody order is a transcription of the oral record. In R.L.P. v. R.F.M., 110 A.3d 201 (Pa. Super. 2015), the Superior Court held that "in order to be sufficiently specific to be enforced, an order of custody must be entered as a separate written order, or as a separate section of a written opinion." Id. at 206. Despite the Superior Court's decision, the practice of placing custody orders on the record without subsequently entering a written order has continued, which has been problematic for enforcement and understanding of the agreement's or order's terms.

Pursuant to subdivision (b)(3), the court may initialize a custody action's case caption if the child's privacy may be compromised by the sensitive nature of the facts in the case record. If the court determines that the case caption should be initialized, additional privacy safeguards are required under subdivision (b)(4).

Subdivision (b)(4) recognizes that inadvertent disclosure of the child's identity and privacy may occur if the written custody order or opinion provides specific details of the child's life, i.e., school, extracurricular activities. Subdivision (b)(4) requires that the court refrain from using specific identifiers; instead, the court should use general terms, e.g., "high school," not "John F. Kennedy High School". In circumstances in which name specificity is required, such as school choice, the court should consider a separate order for that issue.

Under no circumstance does a party filing an updated Criminal Record/Abuse History Verification form impose a duty on the court to review, respond, or react to a newly revealed criminal record or abuse history unless a party petitions the court for relief.

[EXPLANATORY COMMENT--2008

In an effort to promote uniformity of practice throughout the Commonwealth, several forms are included in the rules. Two aspects of these forms are worthy of mention. First, much of the information which must be set forth in the complaint is required by the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act, 23 Pa.C.S.A. § 5429. Second, the complaint is verified by use of a statement that it is subject to the penalties of the Crimes Code relating to unsworn falsification to authorities. A notary public is not needed.

EXPLANATORY COMMENT--2020

Act of May 4, 2018, P.L. 112, No. 21, amended 23 Pa.C.S. § 5324 by adding a new class of third-party standing for individuals seeking custody of a child whose parents do not have care and control of the child. The individual seeking custody may or may not be related to the child. Subject to the limitations in 23 Pa.C.S. § 5324(5), the newly added standing provision requires that: (1) the individual has assumed or is willing to assume responsibility for the child; (2) the individual has a sustained, substantial, and sincere interest in the child's welfare; and (3) the child's parents do not have care and control of the child. A plaintiff proceeding under Section 5324(4) shall satisfy the requirements of that provision by clear and convincing evidence. Additionally, if a juvenile dependency proceeding has been initiated, or is ongoing, or if there is an order for permanent legal custody, Section 5324(5) provides that an individual cannot assert standing under Section 5324(4).

Consistent with the Act's statutory change, the Complaint for Custody Paragraph 9 has been revised to include a third party seeking custody of a child under 23 Pa.C.S. § 5324(4) and has been reorganized to sequentially follow the statutory provisions in 23 Pa.C.S. §§ 5324(2)-(4) and 5325. Similarly, Pa.R.C.P. No. 1915.3(e) has been reorganized to sequentially follow the statutory provision sequence. See Pa.R.C.P. No. 1915.3(e).]

Comment: The form of complaint is appropriate if there is one plaintiff, one defendant, and the custody of one child is sought or the custody of several children is sought and the information required by Paragraphs 3 to 7 is identical for all of the children. If there are more than two parties, the complaint should be appropriately adapted to accommodate them. If the custody of several children is sought and the information required is not identical for all of the children, the complaint should contain a separate paragraph for each child.

- (b) 23 Pa.C.S. § 5334. 23 Pa.C.S. § 5334 is suspended insofar as it (1) requires that a guardian [ad litem] ad litem be an attorney, (2) permits the guardian [ad litem] ad litem to represent both the best interests and legal interests of the child, (3) provides the guardian [ad litem] ad litem the right to examine, cross-examine, present witnesses and present evidence on behalf of the child, and (4) prohibits the guardian [ad litem] ad litem from testifying.

[Note: Rule 1915.6(b) provides that a person not a party who claims to have custody or visitation rights with respect to the child shall be given notice of the pendency of the proceedings and of the right to intervene.]

- (c) 23 Pa.C.S. § 6339. 23 Pa.C.S. § 6339 is suspended insofar as it is inconsistent with Pa.R.Civ.P. 1915.3-3 and 1915.3-4 which provides for the disclosure of such reports by the court to the parties.

Comment: Rule 1915.6(b) provides that a person not a party who claims to have custody or visitation rights with respect to the child shall be given notice of the pendency of the proceedings and of the right to intervene.
