

ADOPTION OF LOCAL RULES OF JUDICIAL ADMINISTRATION USER GUIDE

This user guide is intended to assist in rulemaking of local rules of judicial administration pursuant to Pennsylvania Rule of Judicial Administration 103(c), which can be found here in the Pennsylvania Code.

BEFORE ADOPTION: Local rules of judicial administration require no review prior to adoption.

AFTER ADOPTION: The court should proceed with publication. There are four requirements that a court must fulfill following adoption. They are:

- (a) Copies of all local rules of judicial administration should be distributed according to the following schedule (please note that these copies no longer are required to be certified):
 - (1) One copy to the Administrative Office of Pennsylvania Courts via e-mail to adminrules@pacourts.us.
 - (2) One paper copy mailed to the Legislative Reference Bureau for publication in the Pennsylvania Bulletin to the following address:

Pa. Code and Bulletin
Legislative Reference Bureau
647 Main Capitol Building
Harrisburg PA 17120

And another copy e-mailed in a Microsoft Word format only to bulletin@palrb.us. PDF files will not be accepted for publication. The Microsoft Word format does not need to include the president judge's signature.

- (b) Publication of the local rule on the adopting court's website.
- (c) Incorporation of the local rule into the set of local rules on the adopting court's website within 30 days after the publication of the local rule in the Pennsylvania Bulletin.
- (d) Filing one copy of the local rule in the appropriate filing office for public inspection and copying.

EFFECTIVE DATES: All local rules will become effective no sooner than 30 days after publication in the Pennsylvania Bulletin.
