Typical Duties

- Represent financially qualified clients with criminal cases as assigned;
- Represent other financially qualified criminal defendants and parents/guardians;
- in dependency and termination of parental rights proceedings as appointed by the Court;
- Duties include representation at all levels of the litigation process from inception through exhaustion of appeals;
- Attend all hearings, conferences, trials, and other proceedings relating to client cases;
- Negotiating with the prosecutors for case disposition or modification;
- Performing pretrial work and trial work including filing motions, jury selection, examination and cross-examination and arguing the defense case;
- Maintains and manages individual caseloads in a timely and effective manner;
- Effectively represents clients consistent with the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania;
- Reviews cases for potential conflict of interest;
- Perform such other duties as may be assigned.

Minimum Qualifications

- Must be a member in good standing of the Pennsylvania Bar;
- Must be versed in substantive criminal law, the Pennsylvania Rules of Criminal Procedure, and the Pennsylvania Rules of Appellate Procedure;
- Must be able to use tact, initiative, prudence, and independent judgment in sensitive situations;
- Must maintain good standing to practice before the Courts of the Commonwealth;
- Operate modern office equipment including computer equipment and specialized software applications programs;

Additional Qualifications/Preferences:

- Additional compensation will be provided for individuals with 801 certification.
