

Infographic for Immediate Release

July 12, 2024

Animal Abuse Data in Pennsylvania Since Libre Law Took Effect

HARRISBURG—Libre’s Law, the anti-cruelty law (Act 10) that strengthened the protection of animals went into effect in late August of 2017. Since then, over 52,000 animal abuse offenses have been filed statewide – 61% of which were for neglect of animal(s).

This infographic highlights key data about animal abuse cases and offenses committed statewide since the law took effect. A high-resolution file of the graphic is available for download.

###

Media Contact: Olivia Antonucci, 609.238.5182