Respondents Brian Baxter and Susan Kinniry ("Voter Respondents"), submit this Answer to the Petition for Allowance of Appeal filed by the Intervenor-Petitioners Republican National Committee and the Republican Party of Pennsylvania ("Republican Intervenors").

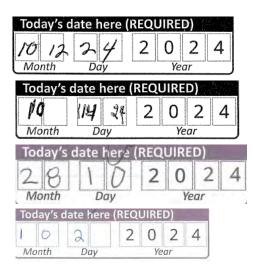

REVIEW SHOULD BE GRANTED ON THE CORE MERITS QUESTION

The Court should grant only limited review to affirm the Commonwealth Court's decision on the sole question that warrants this Court's review:

Did the Commonwealth Court correctly hold that enforcement of a purposeless envelope-dating provision to disenfranchise voters violates the fundamental right to vote guaranteed by the Pennsylvania Constitution's Free and Equal Elections Clause?

While the Commonwealth Court has now correctly decided this question in voters' favor—twice—this Court has yet to decide the core question passed upon below. Meanwhile, in every election, thousands of qualified voters have their ballots disqualified based on an utterly meaningless mistake in filling out the date on the mail ballot envelope.

Most recently, thousands of Pennsylvania voters were disenfranchised on this basis in the November 2024 General Election. And clumsy attempts to comply with court orders directing the rejection of mail ballots received in "incorrectly" dated envelopes continue to yield absurd results. For example, the York County Board of Elections inexplicably set aside mail ballots from qualified voters who plainly wrote the full date on their completed mail ballot envelope submissions. To demonstrate the point, the below images are taken from the date fields of rejected York County mail ballot envelopes:

Each of the voters who submitted ballots in these envelopes were disenfranchised because the digits they wrote into the date line on the envelope form did not align with the preprinted "month" and "day" fields.¹

Absent direction from this Court, this untenable disenfranchisement will continue. In the next election, and the ones after that, voters will continue to raise this question, relying on the procedures set forth in state law: Does our Commonwealth's fundamental guarantee of rights truly allow my vote to be rejected for an utterly inconsequential paperwork mistake? Or is the right to vote in this Commonwealth made of sterner stuff?

While this case arises in the context of a single-county election challenge under 25 P.S. § 3157, it is important for the Court to take this opportunity—before the issue arises again in the next election—to decide the underlying constitutional question and announce a rule that will guide election officials going forward. Voter Respondents thus agree with Republican Intervenors' Petition inasmuch as the merits issue addressed by the Commonwealth Court's decision below "is inarguably 'one of such substantial public importance as to require prompt and definitive resolution by' this Court." Pet. 12 (quoting Pa. R.A.P. 1114(b)(5)). This Court should take up that sole issue as formulated above and affirm the decision below.

REVIEW SHOULD OTHERWISE BE DENIED

Republican Intervenors' request for review on various other, misguided questions should be denied. The Court should not take up such unworthy side-issues, which in addition to being meritless, would distract from or delay resolution of the important question presented under Article I, section 5 of the Pennsylvania Constitution set forth above. This Court should accordingly deny review of the Commonwealth Court majority's rulings on each of the questions raised in the Petition for Allowance of Appeal.

1) There is no need or mechanism to join other county boards of elections in an appeal from a county board of elections under 25 P.S. § 3157.

Republican Intervenors' first proposed question reflects a fundamental misunderstanding of how statutory election appeals work in Pennsylvania. They present no basis for their assertion that the Commonwealth Court "lacked jurisdiction" because all 67 county boards of elections were not joined in a statutory appeal of a determination by the Philadelphia County Board of Elections ("the Board") to count votes in a local special election. Pet. 5. Nor could they because the Election Code simply does not work that way.

Section 3157 appeals do not proceed in a way that requires, or even allows for, joinder of county boards other than the one whose immediate decision is being challenged. This statutory appeals process is designed to adjudicate election challenges quickly after Election Day, providing a right of action to "[a]ny person aggrieved by any order or decision of any county board regarding the computation or canvassing of the returns of any primary or election" to file suit within two days in that county's court of common pleas. 25 P.S. §§ 3157(a), (b). Practice under this rule is uniformly consistent, as is evident from the Section 3157 appeals taken after every election, including after the November 5, 2024 General Election. In none of those appeals did any petitioner attempt to name all 67 county boards of election as respondents—including in the Section 3157 petitions filed by Republican Intervenors themselves, in which they have consistently sued a single county board, not all 67 county boards.² No wonder Republican Intervenors are unable to cite any examples where Section 3157 appeals have proceeded in the ungainly manner they now suggest is required.

The analysis is not changed by the parties' respective requests that the Court decide this case in a way that will announce a rule of constitutional law to be followed by election officials going forward. It often happens that a Section 3157 appeal from the decision of a single county board of elections results in a precedent-setting decision that other county boards must then follow. The prospect of having to follow precedent does not make every county board an "indispensable party" in every Section 3157 appeal arising in every other county. This Court's recent precedent-setting decision affirming the Commonwealth Court in Genser v. Butler Cnty. Bd. of Elections, _____ A.3d___, No. 26 WAP 2024, 2024 WL 4553285, at *3 (Pa. Oct. 23, 2024), perfectly illustrates the point. There, as here, individual voters aggrieved by a decision of their home county board filed a Section 3157 appeal from that board's decision not to count their ballots. There, as here, no county board other than the named respondent was involved in the decision to reject the voterpetitioners' ballots. And there, as here, the Commonwealth Court correctly exercised jurisdiction over a subsequent appeal involving the single-county issue without any need to join other counties.

Nor does this Court's per curium order vacating the Commonwealth Court's opinion in Black Political Empowerment Project, et al. v. Schmidt, et al. ("B-PEP"), 322 A.3d 221 (Pa. 2024), require joinder of all 67 counties in the context of a direct appeal. The Court did not rule, as Republican Intervenors suggest, that all county boards of elections must be joined in any case involving the envelope-dating provision. If that were the rule, Republican Intervenors would have to have joined all 67 counties in the Section 3157 appeals they filed last week involving the same issue. See n.2, supra. B-PEP was an original action instituted in the Commonwealth Court, seeking prospective relief; it did not involve a post-election-day Section 3157 statutory appeal originating in a county court of common pleas.

Within the context of this Section 3157 election appeal, the Commonwealth Court correctly rejected the notion that every county must be joined in a statutory challenge to one county board's decision:

[W]e also reject any contention that the other 66 county boards of elections needed to be joined as parties for Designated Appellees to obtain the relief they sought from the trial court pertaining to the September 17, 2024 Special Election, which only took place in one county of this Commonwealth, Philadelphia County. The requested relief could not have been sought against any other county board in relation to that Special Election.

Baxter v. Phila. Bd. of Elections, No. 1305 CD 2024, 2024 WL 4614689 at *10 n.25 (Pa. Cmwlth. Oct. 30, 2024).

Again, Republican Intervenors have failed to identify a single instance of additional counties being joined in a direct election appeal of a particular county board of elections decision under Section 3157. This Court should decline Republican Intervenors' invitation to take up this legally groundless issue, as it is neither substantial nor of public importance.

2) 42 Pa.C.S. § 722(7) does not apply here, and Republican Intervenors' argument that it does was waived.

Republican Intervenors appealed a Court of Common Pleas decision to the Commonwealth Court. They may not now be heard to argue that the Commonwealth Court was the wrong court to hear their own appeal. Pet. 15-17. Their newfound argument under 42 Pa.C.S. § 722(7) is both facially meritless and waived.

First, the Court of Common Pleas did not hold "invalid as repugnant to the Constitution...any statute." 42 Pa.C.S. § 722(7). Rather, the Court of Common Pleas held that "the Board's decision to reject [Voters'] ballot[s] for failure to affix the date deprived them of their Pennsylvania Constitutional right to vote." R0042-R0043 (10/10/24 1925(a) Order).³ Nor did Voter Respondents' Petition seek an order invalidating any statutory provision. No Court has prohibited anyone from asking voters to date the envelope form—the issue is refusing to count voters' ballots when they make some mistake in their compliance. Because no statute was held invalid in reaching the holding below, the lower court's decision did not trigger this Court's exclusive appellate jurisdiction under § 722(7).

In any event, Republican Intervenors waived this argument by lodging their appeal from the Court of Common Pleas in the Commonwealth Court, rather than directly in this Court. As Judge Wolf acknowledged below, "parties can waive jurisdictional defects and thus perfect appellate jurisdiction." Baxter, 2024 WL 4614689, at *25 (Wolf, J., dissenting) (citing 42 Pa.C.S. § 704). There was no jurisdictional defect here, but even if there had been one, any defect was waived by Republican Intervenors' filing of their appeal in the Commonwealth Court instead of filing directly in this Court.

This Court should thus reject the Republican Intervenors' assertion, made only after they got an unfavorable result, that the court where they chose to appeal lacked appellate jurisdiction, and deny review of any question based on that premise.

3) Further factual development is neither necessary nor appropriate.

Having waived their opportunity to develop the record in the Court of Common Pleas, Republican Intervenors cannot now claim this choice as a grounds for this Court to grant review, let alone reverse.⁴ Republican Intervenors did not seek to develop the record below and declined to raise any purported factual disputes when given the opportunity to do so in the trial court. At the hearing conducted pursuant to Section 3157, the Board agreed that all facts set forth in the Voter Respondents' Petition for Review and supporting declarations are undisputed. See R0046 (9/25/24 Tr.) at 5:6-6:7; see also R0038 (9/26/24 Order) (noting that "petitioners and respondent stipulated to the operative facts underlying their dispute"). Counsel for Republican Intervenors did not raise any purported fact disputes. See R0049 at 20:2-21.

This is not surprising: The stipulated and uncontested facts have been established time and time again in prior litigation in which Republican Intervenors themselves participated. Even now, Republican Intervenors identify no facts in the voters' declarations they would deny or dispute. The core issue here is thus ripe for decision without the need to waste time relitigating imagined factual matters—and any contrary argument was waived below and accordingly presents no grounds for review. Moreover, as to the facts they belatedly want to explore, Republican Intervenors provide no reason to think such exploration could yield any new facts that would be relevant to the constitutional question presented.

First, Republican Intervenors state that they want to depose Voter Respondents about "why they did not comply with the date requirement." Pet. 18. In addition to their failure to raise this issue in the trial court, Republican Intervenors do not explain how the voters' reasons for missing the envelope date would be relevant. Both Voter Respondents attested in their declarations that the mistakes they made in writing a date on the return envelope were inadvertent. See R0024 (Baxter Decl.) at ¶10; R0028 (Kinniry Decl.) at ¶10.

Second, any attempt to relitigate the purported government interests supporting an envelope-dating requirement would be a waste of time given the relevant county board's admissions in this case and the robust factual development of that issue in prior cases involving Republican Intervenors and all 67 county boards. The county board respondent in this case admits that it has no use for the voter-written envelope date. As the Board stipulated, "[t]he date written on the envelope serves no purpose. In particular, it is not used to establish whether the mail ballot was submitted on time." R0011-16 (Pet. For Review) at ¶¶ 39, 61. In addition, the General Assembly indisputably had no state interest in mind when including the phrase "shall...date" in Act 77. As the legislature's Republican Party leadership has acknowledged, the General Assembly adopted outdated absentee-ballot language wholesale "to minimize the complexities of legislative drafting," R0122 (6/24/24 Br. of Amici Curiae Bryan Cutler, et al.), not because it made any determination that the voter-written date served some purpose in administering the mail ballot process. And Republican Intervenors' arguments ignore that there was already full fact and expert discovery aimed at discerning what, if any, use any county or state election official has for the voter-written date on return envelopes in Pa. State Conf. of NAACP v. Schmidt, No. 22 Civ. 339 (W.D. Pa.).

In NAACP, after full factual development, neither Republican Intervenors nor any county board could identify a purpose for the envelope-dating provision, and the federal court found it beyond dispute that the envelope-dating provision is "wholly irrelevant" in determining when the voter filled out the ballot or whether the ballot was received on time. Pa. State Conf. of NAACP v. Schmidt ("NAACP I"), 703 F. Supp. 3d 632, 678-79 (W.D. Pa. 2023), rev'd on other grounds, 97 F.4th 120 (3d Cir. 2024). On appeal, a Third Circuit panel unanimously agreed that the envelopedating rule "serves little apparent purpose." Pa. State Conf. of NAACP v. Sec'y Commonwealth of Pa. ("NAACP II"), 97 F.4th 120, 125 (3d Cir. 2024).⁵ This is consistent with the holdings of every other court to have considered the purported government interests in enforcing the envelope-dating provision since 2021. See, e.g., Migliori v. Cohen, 36 F.4th 153, 162-64 (3d Cir. 2022) (concluding that enforcement of envelope-dating provision violated federal law), vacated as moot, 143 S. Ct. 297 (2022), Chapman v. Berks Cnty. Bd. of Elections, No. 355 M.D. 2022, 2022 WL 4100998, at *12-29 (Pa. Cmwlth. Aug. 19, 2022) (same); B-PEP, No. 283 M.D. 2024, 2024 WL 4002321, at *32 (Pa. Cmwlth. Aug. 30, 2024), vacated on other grounds, 322 A.3d 221 (Pa. 2024). All of this makes sense because, as the Commonwealth has explained in briefing in prior cases, the envelope-dating provision is merely vestigial—a holdover from a brief period many decades ago when absentee ballots were permitted to be received after Election Day under an old version of the Election Code. See, e.g., B-PEP, 2024 WL 4453981, at *24-29 (Sec'y of Commw. Br., detailing the legislative origins of this language in the absentee and mail voting provisions of the Election Code).

⁵ Republican Intervenors now argue, for the first time on appeal to this Court, that the factual conclusions in NAACP I somehow have less force here because they were reached in the context of a case about the federal Materiality Provision. This is nonsense. Discovery in that case—both on the Materiality issue and on the plaintiffs' federal constitutional claim under the Equal Protection Clause—focused on the uses of, and state interests advanced by, the envelope-dating provision. Republican Intervenors had exactly the same incentive to ask the same questions of county boards in NAACP to argue that handwritten envelope dates are "material" under federal law as they would to argue that they are constitutional under the Free and Equal Elections Clause.

Republican Intervenors want to continue their quixotic search for some basis supporting the hypothetical purposes that they (and they alone) insist might be served by enforcing the envelope-dating provision to disenfranchise voters. See Pet. 28-30. But their previous, extensive efforts yielded no such facts, and it is impossible to conceive how further fishing could yield any basis to dispute the Board's admissions that it does not use the voter-written date for any purpose other than to set aside noncompliant mail ballot submissions. Meanwhile, as the example from York County in the November 2024 General Election noted above shows, supra at 2, there is every reason to think that the same absurd and purposeless disenfranchisement will happen again and again in every election. Especially given their waiver of the issue below, the record is set for decision, and this Court should not entertain a belated request to reopen the record.

4) The Court should not entertain Republican Intervenors' imagined "ballot-casting rules" exception to the Free and Equal Elections Clause.

Ignoring the text of the Free and Equal Elections Clause, its history, and caselaw applying its robust protections, Republican Intervenors continue to allude to an imagined carveout for a so-called "neutral ballot-casting rule." Pet. 6. Their arguments assume a category of "ballot-casting" rules that does not exist. The idea of a legally distinct class of "ballot-casting" rules is not grounded in the Election Code or mentioned anywhere in 250 years of Pennsylvania precedent—and accordingly presents no proper grounds for this Court to review the decision below.

Creating a new, categorical "ballot-casting" exemption from the Free and Equal Elections Clause would require the Court to overturn longstanding jurisprudence applying the Clause's protections to "all aspects of the electoral process" in a "broad and robust" manner. League of Women Voters v. Commonwealth ("LWV"), 178 A.3d 737, 804, 814 (Pa. 2018). This concept would have no application here in any event, as this case involves not a ballot-casting rule about how to fill out the ballot, but a ballot-counting or ballot-canvassing rule—i.e., whether the board of elections is required to canvass voters' ballots. Voter Respondents have never argued that the mere inclusion of a line for voters to handwrite the date on the return envelope form is itself unconstitutional.

Meanwhile, Republican Intervenors' assertion that Pennsylvania courts have never applied the Clause to a "ballot-casting rule," Pet. 6, ignores the Pennsylvania courts' history of protecting the right to vote against unwarranted restrictions. For example, this Court applied the Clause to the mail-ballot-receipt deadline—clearly a "ballot-casting" rule—during the November 2020 election. Pa. Democratic Party v. Boockvar ("PDP"), 238 A.3d 345, 371-72 (Pa. 2020), cert. denied, 141 S. Ct. 732 (2021). In addition, the Commonwealth Court, following remand instructions from this Court, previously applied the Clause to invalidate a statute requiring people casting ballots in person to show photo identification. Applewhite v. Commonwealth, No. 330 MD 2012, 2012 WL 4497211, at *6 (Pa. Cmwlth. Oct. 2, 2012). The Commonwealth Court thus correctly rejected Republican Intervenors' invitation to neuter the Free and Equal Elections Clause and thereby abandon this Commonwealth's traditions and a century of jurisprudence. This Court should not take their invitation to entertain such a radical approach on appeal.

5) Pennsylvania courts' decisions in connection with a state election cannot implicate the Electors and Elections Clauses of the U.S. Constitution.

The Commonwealth Court's decision relates to a special election to the state legislature. Accordingly, whatever restrictions the federal Elections Clause and Electors Clause might impose on state courts in the context of regulating federal elections, those Clauses categorically do not apply to the decision at issue here. The Elections Clause expressly applies only to regulations governing the "Times, Places and Manner of holding Elections for Senators and Representatives...." U.S. Const. art. 1, § 4 (emphasis added). The special election at issue here did not include any race for federal Senators or Representatives.

And even if it did, the Republican Intervenors' arguments, Pet. 34-35, are directly foreclosed by the decision in Moore v. Harper, 600 U.S. 1 (2023). There, the Court reached exactly the opposite conclusion from the one Republican Intervenors advance, concluding that "state courts are the appropriate tribunals ... for the decision of questions arising under their local law, whether statutory or otherwise." Id. at 34. This Court also rejected the same Elections Clause argument in LWV, 178 A.3d at 811. A Pennsylvania court's application of state constitutional principles to the administration of the Pennsylvania Election Code is at the heart of state courts' responsibilities as set forth in Moore, and presents no viable issue for review based on the Elections or Electors Clauses.

6) This Court has already rejected Republican Intervenors' misguided nonseverability argument.

Finally, Republican Intervenors argue that the Commonwealth Court's decision as to enforceability of the envelope-dating provision to disenfranchise voters would require invalidating Act 77, thus striking "no-excuse" mail voting from the Election Code in its entirety. Pet. 35-38. This argument continues to misconstrue the relief sought by Voter Respondents, who do not seek to strike or sever any provision from Act 77. Specifically, a ruling that the Pennsylvania Constitution requires counting Voter Respondents' ballots, such that they are not disenfranchised as a consequence of non-compliance with the obsolete envelope-dating provision, does not invalidate any provision of Act 77.

To affirm, this Court need not invalidate or excise "shall...date" from the relevant sections of the Election Code. Voter Respondents do not seek an order barring voters from being directed to date mail ballot declaration forms, or barring continued inclusion of a date field next to the signature line. Including a date line on mail ballot return envelopes and asking voters to fill it out is not the problem; disenfranchising voters when they make a meaningless error in filling it out is. See

In re Canvass of Absentee & Mail-In Ballots of November 3, 2020 Gen. Election, 241 A.3d 1058, 1079 (Pa. 2020) (citing PDP, 238 A.3d at 378).

Moreover, even a holding that the envelope-dating provision or its application is invalid would not require the Court to invalidate all of Act 77. See Stilp v. Commonwealth, 905 A.2d 918, 970-981 (Pa. 2006) (declining to enforce identical nonseverability provision and noting significant "separation of powers concerns"). Stilp is controlling and conclusive. There, this Court declined to enforce a "boilerplate" nonseverability provision that is literally identical to the one in Act 77, instead giving effect to the terms of the binding rules of statutory construction, 1 Pa.C.S. § 1925 ("The provisions of every statute shall be severable"). Stilp, 905 A.2d at 979-81. The Court ultimately severed the provision of the legislation at issue that "plainly and palpably violate[d]...the Pennsylvania Constitution" from "the otherwise-constitutionally valid remainder of [the legislation]." Id. at 980-81 (footnote omitted).

Likewise, the application of Act 77's identical nonseverability provision is neither required nor sensible here. The indisputable facts are that the envelope-dating provision is a vestige of a long-ago overhauled absentee voting process, its application to modern absentee and mail-in voting serves no legislative purpose, it benefits nobody, and it results in a constitutionally intolerable ratio of rejected ballots (here, 1.4% of all mail ballots). Accordingly, even an order striking the date provision from the text of Act 77—relief that, to be clear, Appellees do not seek—would not require the rest of Act 77 to be disturbed.

The relief ordered by the court below vindicates Act 77's larger aims to expand mail ballot voting to all and harmonizes that aim with the requirements of the Free and Equal Elections Clause. This Court need not entertain an alarmist nonseverability argument that would require reversal of Stilp.

CONCLUSION

Republican Intervenors' questions presented distract from the core issue, which unlike all the others is plainly worthy of review: Does the Pennsylvania Constitution require that the Voter Respondents' ballots be counted?

In election after election, counties are rejecting the votes of qualified Pennsylvania voters because of an utterly meaningless error in handwriting a date on the mail ballot envelope. The courts below correctly held that this unjustifiable diminution of the fundamental right to vote violates the Free and Equal Elections Clause. No Pennsylvania court has ever held otherwise. This appeal—properly arising in the ordinary course pursuant to 25 P.S. § 3157 from a Philadelphia-only special election—presents that extremely important question for decision.

Voter Respondents respectfully request that this Court provide a definitive answer before more voters are unconstitutionally disenfranchised. The Court should grant review only of this core issue of extraordinary importance and deny Republican Intervenors' Petition in all other respects.

ELECTION APPEAL

PETITION FOR REVIEW IN THE NATURE OF A STATUTORY APPEAL

Petitioners Brian T. Baxter and Susan T. Kinniry, qualified registered electors of Philadelphia County, by and through their undersigned counsel, appeal pursuant to 25 P.S. § 3157 from the decision of the Philadelphia Board of Elections ("Board") on September 21, 2024, to not count their mail-in ballots in the September 17, 2024 Special Election, and aver as follows:¹

INTRODUCTION

1. Voting is the cornerstone of our democracy and the fundamental right upon which all our civil liberties rest. In Pennsylvania, the right to vote and have that vote count is enshrined and protected by the Free and Equal Elections Clause in the Pennsylvania Constitution, which provides that "no power, civil or military, shall at any time interfere to prevent the free exercise of the right of suffrage." Pa. Const. art. I, § 5.

2. This appeal concerns the decision of the Board following the September 17, 2024 Special Election for State House Districts 195 and 201 to not count mail-in ballots because of a missing handwritten date on the outside declaration envelope. The Board set aside and did not count Petitioners' mail-in ballots because both Petitioners inadvertently forgot to handwrite a date on the declaration envelope. 67 other ballots were also not counted because the voter either omitted the date or wrote a date that was deemed "incorrect" on the declaration envelope.

3. Since 2022, if a voter fails to handwrite the date on the outer declaration envelope of their mail ballot or writes a date that is deemed "incorrect," their mail ballot is not counted. See Ball v. Chapman, 289 A.3d 1 (Pa. 2023).

4 However, in recent prior lawsuits multiple courts have found that the voterwritten date is meaningless, unnecessary to establish voter eligibility or timely ballot receipt. See, e.g., Pa. State Conf. of NAACP v. Schmidt ("NAACP I"), 703 F. Supp. 3d 632, 668 (W.D. Pa. 2023), rev'd on other grounds, 97 F.4th 120 (3d Cir. 2024) ("County boards of elections acknowledge that they did not use the handwritten date on the voter declaration on the Return Envelope for any purpose related to determining a voter's age..., citizenship..., county or duration of residence..., felony status..., or timeliness of receipt...." (internal record citations omitted)); Pa. State Conf. of NAACP Branches v. Schmidt ("NAACP II"), 97 F.4th 120, 125, 127, 129 (3d Cir. 2024)(agreeing the handwritten date plays no role in determining a ballot's timeliness or voter qualifications or in detecting fraud); see also, e.g., Black Political Empowerment Project, et al. v. Schmidt, et al. ("B-PEP"), No. 283 M.D. 2024, 2024 WL 4002321 at *32 (Pa. Cmwlth. Aug. 30, 2024), vacated on other grounds, No. 68 MAP 2024 (Pa. Sept. 13, 2024) ("As has been determined in prior litigation involving the dating provisions, the date on the outer absentee and mail-in ballot envelopes is not used to determine the timeliness of a ballot, a voter's qualifications/eligibility to vote, or fraud.").

5. Accordingly, the refusal to count timely mail ballots submitted by otherwise eligible voters because of an inconsequential date error violates the fundamental right to vote enshrined in the Free and Equal Elections Clause. See B-PEP, 2024 WL 4002321, at *32-33; see also Ball, 289 A.3d at 27 n.156 (Pa. 2023) (plurality opinion) (acknowledging that the "failure to comply with the date requirement would not compel the discarding of votes in light of the Free and Equal Elections Clause, and our attendant jurisprudence that ambiguities are resolved in a way that will enfranchise, rather than disenfranchise, the electors of this Commonwealth").

6. Enforcement of this envelope-date provision disenfranchised at least 10,000 voters in the 2022 general election and thousands more voters in the 2024 Presidential primary whose ballots were timely received by Election Day. In the September 17, 2024 Special Election—a low turnout election involving only two seats in the Pennsylvania House of Representatives—the Board disenfranchised 23 mail-in voters for failing to include the date on the outer declaration envelope and 46 mail-in voters for writing a date that was deemed to be "incorrect."

7. Although previous cases addressed whether federal or state statutory law required enforcement of the handwritten date, the only case to assess whether enforcement of the meaningless envelope-date requirement violates the Free and Equal Elections Clause found that it did. B-PEP, 2024 WL 4002321, at *32-33. But that decision was recently vacated on procedural grounds. See B-PEP, No. 68 MAP 2024 (Pa. Sept. 13, 2024) (without reaching the merits, vacating lower court opinion on procedural grounds, holding that the Commonwealth Court lacked subject matter jurisdiction).

8. The Board's decision to refuse to count Petitioners' votes violates art.1, §5 of the Pennsylvania Constitution.

9. Petitioners are aggrieved by the Board's decision and hereby appeal from it pursuant to 25 P.S. § 3157(a).

JURISDICTION

13. Mr. Baxter votes in every election because voting is important to him and he believes it is a citizen's responsibility to participate in shaping the policies under which we live. Id., $\P\P$ 6-7.

14. Mr. Baxter votes by mail because he appreciates the ability to take his time and research the candidates while deciding for whom to vote. He has been voting by mail for two years. Id., \P 8.

15. About one month before the September 2024 Special Election, Mr. Baxter received a mail-in ballot from the Board. Id., \P 9. He marked it, inserted it into the secrecy envelope and the outer return envelope. He thought he had filled out everything on the declaration envelope correctly when he submitted it. Id., \P 10.

16. However, Mr. Baxter neglected to include a date on the outer declaration envelope when completing his mail-in ballot packet.³

17. As a consequence, the Board set aside and did not count his mail ballot in the September 2024 Special Election.

DECISION OF THE BOARD AT ISSUE

24. Pursuant to 25 P.S. § 3154(f), the Board met in a public meeting on Saturday, September 21, 2024 to review the mail ballots from the Special Election.⁸ Following a 2-1 vote, the Board orally announced its decision to refuse to count 69 ballots—including Petitioners' ballots—with a missing or incorrect date.⁹

25. Petitioners appeal from that decision.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

A. Voting by Mail in Pennsylvania

26. Pennsylvania has long provided absentee ballot options for voters who cannot attend a polling place on Election Day. See 25 P.S. §§ 3146.1–3146.9. In 2019, Pennsylvania enacted new mail-in voting provisions, extending the vote-by-mail option to all registered, eligible voters. Act of Oct. 31, 2019, P.L. 552, No. 77, § 8.

27. A voter seeking to vote by mail must complete an application that includes their name, address, and proof of identification and send it to their county board of elections. 25 P.S. $$ 3146.2, 3150.12. Such proof of identification must include a Pennsylvania driver's license number, or non-driver identification number, if the voter has one. If the voter does not have a PennDOT-issued identification, they must provide the last four digits of the voter's social security number. 25 P.S. $2602(z.5)(3). As part of the application process, voters provide all the information necessary for county boards of elections to verify that they are qualified to vote in Pennsylvania, namely, that they are at least 18 years old, have been a U.S. citizen for at least one month, have resided in the election district for at least 30 days, and are not currently incarcerated on a felony conviction. See 25 Pa.C.S. § 1301.

28. After the application is submitted, the county board of elections confirms applicants' qualifications by verifying their proof of identification and comparing the information on the application with information contained in a voter's record. 25 P.S. §§ 3146.2b, 3150.12b; see also id. § 3146.8(g)(4). The county board's determinations on that score are conclusive as to voter eligibility unless challenged prior to Election Day. Id.

29. Once the county board verifies the voter's identity and eligibility, it sends a mailballot package that contains a ballot, a "secrecy envelope" marked with the words "Official Election Ballot," and the pre-addressed outer return envelope, on which a voter declaration form is printed (the "Return Envelope"). Id. §§ 3146.6(a), 3150.16(a). Poll books kept by the county show which voters have requested mail ballots and which have returned them. Id. §§ 3146.6(b)(3), 3150.16(b)(3).

30. At "any time" after receiving their mail-ballot package, the voter marks their ballot, puts it inside the secrecy envelope, and places the secrecy envelope in the Return Envelope. 25 P.S. §§ 3146.6(a), 3150.16(a).

31. The Election Code provides that the voter "shall...fill out, date and sign the declaration" printed on the outer envelope used to return their mail ballots. See 25 P.S. §§ 3146.6(a), 3150.16(a).

32. The voter delivers the ballot, in the requisite envelopes, by mail or in person, or by other designated method, to their county board of elections.

33. A mail ballot is timely so long as the county board of elections receives it by 8p.m. on Election Day. Id. §§ 3146.6(c), 3150.16(c). Upon receipt of a mail ballot, county boards of elections stamp the Return Envelope with the date of receipt to confirm its timeliness and log it in the Department of State's Statewide Uniform Registry of Electors ("SURE") system, the statewide database counties use to, among other purposes, generate poll books.¹⁰

34. Timely mail-in ballots are then verified consistent with procedures set forth in 25 P.S. § 3146.8(g)(3). Any ballot that has been so verified by the county board of elections and has not been challenged is counted and included with the election results. Id. § 3146.8(d), (g)(4).

B. The Date Provision Serves No Purpose

35. Pennsylvania's adoption of mail voting has been a boon for voter participation in the Commonwealth. For example, in 2020, 2.7 million Pennsylvanians voted by mail ballot.¹¹

36. In the 2024 primary election, more than 4,000 mail-in ballots across Pennsylvania were marked as canceled in the SURE system due to a missing or incorrect handwritten date. See Declaration of Ariel Shapell at \P 12(b).¹²

37. The enforcement of the dating provision results in the arbitrary and baseless rejection of thousands of timely ballots. See NAACP I, 703 F.Supp.3d at 680 (finding the record "replete with evidence that the county boards' application of the [date requirement] in the November 2022 general election created inconsistencies across the Commonwealth in the way 'correctly dated' and 'incorrectly dated' ballots were rejected or counted by different counties").

38. This is not new. In the 2022 election, over 10,000 timely absentee and mail-in ballots were rejected because of the dating provision. See NAACP I, 703 F. Supp.3d at 668.

39 The date written on the envelope serves no purpose. In particular, it is not used to establish whether the mail ballot was submitted on time. Indeed, lawsuits in both state and federal court raising statutory challenges have conclusively demonstrated that the date is meaningless, necessary neither to establish voter eligibility nor timely ballot receipt. See, e.g., NAACP II, 97 F.4th at 129 ("Nor is [the handwritten date] used to determine the ballot's timeliness because a ballot is timely if received before 8:00 p.m. on Election Day, and counties' timestamping and scanning procedures serve to verify that. Indeed, not one county board used the date on the return envelope to determine whether a ballot was timely received in the November 2022 elections."); see also NAACP I, 703 F. Supp.3d at 679 ("Whether a mail ballot is timely, and therefore counted, is not determined by the date indicated by the voter on the outer return envelope, but instead by the time stamp and the SURE system scan indicating the date of its receipt by the county board."); B-PEP, 2024 WL 4002321, at *32 ("As has been determined in prior litigation involving the dating provisions, the date on the outer absentee and mail-in ballot envelopes is not used to determine the timeliness of a ballot, a voter's qualifications/eligibility to vote, or fraud.").¹³

40. A voter whose mail ballot was timely received could have signed the voter declaration form only in between the date their county board sent the mail-ballot packages and the Election-Day deadline. Ballots received by county boards after 8 p.m. on Election Day are not counted regardless of the handwritten envelope date. See NAACP I, 703 F.Supp.3d at 679("Irrespective of any date written on the outer Return Envelope's voter declaration, if a county board received and date-stamped a…mail ballot before 8:00 p.m. on Election Day, the ballot was deemed timely received...[I]f the county board received a mail ballot after 8:00 p.m. on Election Day, the ballot was not timely and was not counted, despite the date placed on the Return Envelope"), rev'd on other grounds, NAACP II, 97 F.4th 120 (3d Cir. 2024).

C. The Board Timely Received Petitioners' Mail-In Ballots.

41. Petitioners are qualified voters who are registered to vote in Pennsylvania.

42. Petitioners validly applied for, received, and timely submitted their mail-in ballots prior to the Special Election on September 17, 2024.

43. Before the day of the Special Election and upon receipt of the mail-in ballots at issue here, the election staff reviewed the envelopes and determined that Petitioners had made an error that would prevent the Board from counting them under Pennsylvania law. Specifically, both Petitioners forgot to handwrite a date on the mail ballot declaration envelope.

44. On September 9, 2024, the Board posted a list of mail-in ballots on its website that had been received ahead of the 2024 Special Election that were "administratively determined to be potentially flawed."¹⁴ The public notice stated that "[t]hese ballot submissions have the possibility of NOT being counted" and provided information about requesting a replacement ballot or casting a provisional ballot.¹⁵ Petitioners' names appeared on this list of defective mail-in ballots received prior to Election Day, but they did not correct the error on their mail ballot envelopes before 8 p.m. on the day of the Special Election.

D. The Board Voted to Not Count Petitioners' Mail-in Ballots in the 2024 Special Election

45. The Board convened at a public meeting on Saturday, September 21, 2024 to adjudicate mail-in ballots and make "sufficiency determinations" about mail ballot packets with flaws.¹⁶

46. The Board was informed that 23 mail-in ballots had been segregated due to a

"missing date." Commissioner Sabir moved that "this Board not accept ballots with a missing date." The motion was seconded by Commissioner Bluestein.¹⁷

47. Commissioner Deeley responded to the motion by reading from the Commonwealth Court's August 30, 2024 opinion in which the Board was named as a

Respondent including that:

The fundamental right to vote guaranteed by our Constitution is at issue. For this reason, a strict scrutiny standard of review applies to the dating provisions' restriction on that right. Under this standard of review, the government bears the heavy burden of proving that the law in question is narrowly tailored to serve a compelling government interest and where the governmental fails to satisfy its burden, the law or its application is unconstitutional. As has been determined in prior litigation, the date on the outer mail-in ballot envelopes is not used to determine the timeliness of a ballot, a voter's qualifications/eligibility to vote, or fraud. Therefore, the dating provisions serve no compelling government interest. The refusal to count undated or incorrectly dated but timely mail ballots submitted by otherwise eligible voters because of meaningless and inconsequential paperwork errors violates the fundamental right to vote recognized in the Free and Equal Elections Clause.

48. Commissioner Deeley observed that the Commonwealth's order was vacated "on technical grounds" by the Pennsylvania Supreme Court, which "did not rule on the merits of the constitutional arguments." Commissioner Deeley concluded, in light of the Commonwealth Court's ruling, that "not counting these ballots because of meaningless and inconsequential errors that do not affect determinations of the timeliness of a ballot, a voter's eligibility to vote, or the prevention of fraud, would be a violation of the Pennsylvania Constitution."

49 Commissioner Deeley further explained that as Commissioner she is legally required to swear an oath to uphold the Pennsylvania Constitution at the beginning of each term. "The Pennsylvania Constitution is one of the documents that we swear to support, obey, and defend. Therefore, I believe...that we should count these ballots."

50. Commissioner Bluestein responded to the remarks by stating, "While I agree in principle with Vice-Chair Deeley that these ballots should count, the Pennsylvania Supreme Court vacated the Commonwealth Court ruling and we have an obligation to follow the law as it currently stands. Unfortunately, that means that we are not able to count these ballots in my opinion."

51. The Board voted 2-1 to not count mail-in ballots that arrived in undated declaration envelopes.

52. The Board was then informed that 46 ballots had arrived in envelopes that were "incorrectly dated." The Board moved to not count "incorrectly dated" ballots, and Commissioner Deeley again noted her objection in light of the B-PEP ruling, stating "I believe the Free and Equal Election Clause of the Pennsylvania Constitution requires us to count these ballots."

Commissioner Sabir responded that he "agree[d] with the sentiments" expressed 53. by his colleague.

54. The Board voted 2-1 to not count mail-in ballots that arrived in "incorrectly dated" declaration envelopes. Thus, Petitioners' votes were not counted in the 2024 Special Election.

GROUNDS FOR APPEAL

55. The Board's decision to not count Petitioners' mail ballots violated Petitioners' fundamental right to vote under the Free and Equal Elections Clause.

56. In Pennsylvania, the right to vote is enshrined in and protected by the Free and Equal Elections Clause, which states: "Elections shall be free and equal; and no power, civil or military, shall at any time interfere to prevent the free exercise of the right of suffrage." Pa. Const. art. I, § 5. The Clause means not only that voters must have an equal opportunity to participate in elections, but also that: "each voter under the law has the right to cast [their] ballot and have it honestly counted." Winston v. Moore, 91 A. 520, 523 (Pa. 1914).

57. Under this guarantee "all aspects of the electoral process, to the greatest degree possible, be kept open and unrestricted to the voters of our Commonwealth." League of Women Voters of Pa. v. Commonwealth, 178 A.3d 737, 804 (Pa. 2018). Likewise, the Pennsylvania Constitution forbids the imposition of rules applicable to the right to vote when such regulation denies the franchise or subverts the right to vote. Winston, 91 A. at 523.

58. The Pennsylvania Supreme Court has repeatedly held that the right to vote guaranteed by the Free and Equal Elections Clause is fundamental. See, e.g., Pennsylvania Democratic Party v. Boockvar, 238 A.3d 345, 361 (Pa. 2020) (employing a construction of the Election Code that "favors the fundamental right to vote and enfranchises, rather than disenfranchises, the electorate"); Banfield v. Cortés, 110 A.3d 155, 176 (Pa. 2015) (observing that "the right to vote is fundamental and 'pervasive of other basic civil and political rights"") (quoting Bergdoll v. Kane, 731 A.2d 1261, 1269 (Pa. 1999)).

59. Strict scrutiny applies to any restriction on this fundamental right. See, e.g., Petition of Berg, 712 A.2d 340, 342 (Pa. Cmwlth. 1998), aff'd, 713 A.2d 1106 (Pa. 1998) ("It is well settled that laws which affect a fundamental right, such as the right to vote..., are subject to strict scrutiny"); Applewhite v. Commonwealth ("Applewhite II"), No. 330 M.D. 2012, 2014 WL 184988, at *20 (Pa. Cmwlth. Jan. 17, 2014) (laws that "infringe[] upon qualified electors' right to vote" are analyzed "under strict scrutiny."); James v. SEPTA, 477 A.2d 1302, 1306 (Pa. 1984) ("[W]here a…fundamental right has been burdened, another standard of review is applied: that of strict scrutiny.").

60. Under strict scrutiny, the party defending the challenged action must prove that it serves a compelling government interest. Pap's A.M. v. City of Erie, 812 A.2d 591, 596 (Pa. 2002); see also, e.g., In re Nader, 858 A.2d 1167, 1180 (Pa. 2004), abrogated on other grounds by In re Vodvarka, 140 A.3d 639 (Pa. 2016) ("[W]here a precious freedom such as voting is involved, a compelling state interest must be demonstrated").

61. The Board cannot demonstrate a compelling interest that justifies its complete disenfranchisement of voters where the handwritten date requirement on mail ballot envelopes serves absolutely no purpose in determining timeliness of receipt or voter qualifications. The Board acknowledged at the September 21 hearing that the date requirement serves no purpose.

62. The only court to have tested the envelope-date provisions in 25 P.S. §§ 3146.6(a), 3150.16(a) against the guarantee of the right to vote under Article I, § 5 concluded that the envelope-date provisions "serve no compelling government interest" and that the "refusal to count undated or incorrectly dated but timely mail ballots submitted by otherwise eligible voters because of meaningless and inconsequential paperwork errors violates the fundamental right to vote recognized in the free and equal elections clause." B-PEP, 2024 WL 4002321, at *1.

63. The Board's application of the Election Code's envelope dating provisions, 25 P.S. §§ 3146.6(a), 3150.16(a), to reject Petitioners' timely mail ballots based solely on the inadvertent failure to add a meaningless, superfluous handwritten date next to their signature on the mail ballot Return Envelope is an unconstitutional interference with the exercise of the right to suffrage in violation of the Free and Equal Elections Clause.

WHEREFORE, Petitioners respectfully request that this Honorable Court enter an order reversing the decision of the Philadelphia Board of Elections, declaring that the Pennsylvania Constitution requires the counting of Petitioners' ballots, directing the Board to count the mail ballots cast by Petitioners in the September 17, 2024 Special Election, and enter such other and further relief as provided by the Pennsylvania Election Code or as this Court deems just and appropriate.

DECLARATION OF BRIAN T. BAXTER

I, Brian T. Baxter, hereby declare as follows:

1. I have personal knowledge of the matters in this declaration and this is what I would testify to if called as a witness in Court.

2. I am 81 years old and am otherwise competent to testify.

3. I live in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

4. I have lived in Philadelphia for fourteen years. I lived in Harrisburg in the 1980s and later resided in Cherry Hill, New Jersey before moving to Philadelphia. I am happily married to my wife Ilene and a proud father.

5. I am presently retired. For most of my career, I worked for elected officials, both Republicans and Democrats, at the state and local level in Pennsylvania, New Jersey, and New York. I have a master's degree in public policy from Princeton University, and I am very interested in politics and elections. Some of my professional roles include serving as city administrator of Trenton, New Jersey for nine years, working for Elizabeth Holtzman when she was the Comptroller of New York City, and working for Governor Christine Todd Whitman of New Jersey. I gained experience with political campaigns in the City of Philadelphia by supporting Joseph Rock's run for City Controller in 1989. I most recently worked as a lobbyist at S.R. Wojdak & Associates, the largest lobbying firm in the state. I continue to stay involved with political work by volunteering on the 35 Doors Project for Indivisible Pennsylvania.

6. I am a registered voter in Philadelphia. I vote in every election, including primary and general elections.

7. Voting is very important to me and I believe it is the responsibility of every citizen to vote. Voting is a critical way to participate in shaping the policies under which we live.

8. I started voting by mail about two years ago. I prefer to vote by mail because it provides time to do internet research and gather information about the candidates and issues on the ballots before I submit my vote. I believe that voting around the kitchen table results in smarter voting because I can review the ballot in advance. I do not want to walk into the voting booth without the proper amount of information and vote on a ballot that I am seeing for the first time.

9. I voted by mail in the Philadelphia's Special Election this year for State Representative in the 195th District. About one month before the September 2024 special election, I received a mail-in ballot from the Philadelphia City Commissioners.

10. After I received my ballot, I marked it, inserted it into the secrecy envelope and the outer return envelope. I thought I had filled out everything on the ballot correctly when I submitted it. I was aware that there were lawsuits and efforts in the state legislature to change the envelope dating requirement and I tried to follow all the directions so that my vote would be counted.

11. As far as I know, I have never made a mistake that disqualified my ballot in prior elections when I voted by mail. I am getting older and more forgetful, which may have contributed to my mistake when completing the mailin ballot envelope.

12. I believe that my vote should be counted. After reading dozens of articles about this issue, I am not aware of any rationale for why the date is helpful or necessary. The date on the envelope is not important because it is the date that the ballot arrives in the election office that determines whether the vote is valid. I tried to comply with the mail-in ballot rules, but this bureaucratic stumbling block will prevent my vote from counting.

13. I returned my mail-in ballot on time and I believe that denying a citizen's vote because they didn't include the date on the mail-in ballot envelope is taking away that person's vote for no good reason.

I understand that false statements herein are subject to the penalties of 18 Pa.C.S. § 4904 relating to unsworn falsification to authorities.

I, Susan T. Kinniry, hereby declare as follows:

1. I have personal knowledge of the matters in this declaration and this is what I would testify to if called as a witness in Court.

2. I am 38 years old and am otherwise competent to testify.

3. I am a resident of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

4. I grew up in Jenkintown, Pennsylvania. I attended high school and law school in Philadelphia.

5. I have worked as an attorney for the Social Security Administration since 2017. My work initially focused on the disability program and presently involves labor and employee relations issues.

6. I have been a registered voter in Philadelphia since around 2018. I try to vote in every primary and general election.

7. Voting is very important to me because it is one of the most direct ways that citizens can influence what kind of government we have and who represents our interests. I try not to pass up that opportunity to participate in governance.

8. I started voting by mail in Philadelphia in 2019. I prefer to vote by mail because it is more convenient than voting in person, and because I like having time to review the ballot at home before casting my vote.

9. I voted by mail this year in Philadelphia's Special Election for State Representative in the 195th District. I made an annual request for mail-in ballots and received a mail-in ballot from the Philadelphia City Commissioners a few weeks before the September 2024 special election.

10. After I received my ballot, I marked it, inserted it into the secrecy envelope and the outer return envelope. I signed the declaration on the outer envelope. I thought I had filled out the outer envelope correctly when I submitted it. I was aware that elections offices in Pennsylvania cannot count ballots for immaterial reasons, so I am embarrassed that I forgot to include the date.

11. As far as I know, I have never made any mistakes on prior mail-in ballots. I do not recall ever receiving an email stating that my ballot was invalid before this September 2024 special election.

12. After I returned my ballot, I received an email from the Pennsylvania Department of State on August 27, informing me that I did not date my ballot return envelope and that my vote would not be counted if I didn't take additional steps to fix this mistake. A true and correct copy of the email dated August 27 is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

13. I was annoyed at myself when I learned that my ballot would not be counted because I forgot the date. I also thought that if I made this mistake, despite my experience with technical, legal requirements, many others must make the same mistake.

14. I did not attempt to fix my ballot because shortly after receiving the email stating that I forgot to date my ballot return envelope, I read in the news about a recent Commonwealth Court decision finding that it was unconstitutional to reject ballots that do not comply with the date requirement. I thought that the Court had reached the right result.

15. I wish that my vote had been counted in this election. I think it is important to participate in off-cycle elections to show that voters are paying attention to what local officials are doing. Often voter turnout is low in these kinds of special elections, so I made an intentional effort to submit my ballot.

16. I believe that voting rules should encourage more participation, not less. The envelope dating requirement seems like an unnecessary stumbling block that will result in fewer ballots being counted. That is not the result that is in everyone's best interest.

I understand that false statements herein are subject to the penalties of 18 Pa.C.S. § 4904 relating to unsworn falsification to authorities.

DECLARATION OF ARIEL SHAPELL IN SUPPORT OF PETITIONERS' PETITION FOR REVIEW

1. I, Ariel Shapell, am an attorney at the American Civil Liberties Union of Pennsylvania ("ACLU-PA") and have a background in data analytics.

2. I received a B.S.B.A. with majors in mathematics and finance from Washington University in St. Louis in 2011 and a J.D. from the University of Pennsylvania Carey Law School in 2021.

3. In 2014 and 2015, I served as the Director of Business Intelligence at Beatport LLC, a digital music and entertainment company, where I was responsible for organizing, analyzing, and reporting the company's business data. In my role, I performed data analyses and visualizations and developed systems to extract, transform, and load data. I also supervised a team of three data scientists and analysts.

4. From 2015 until 2018, I served as the lead product manager at Postlight LLC, a technology consultancy. At Postlight LLC, I oversaw data analytics and digital product development projects for large entertainment, finance, and cultural institutions.

5. From 2019 through the present, I have worked as a volunteer, intern, and now legal fellow at the ACLU-PA. During my time with the ACLU-PA, I have conducted numerous analyses of large data sets for both litigation and advocacy.

6. During my time with the ACLU-PA, I have conducted numerous analyses of large data sets for both litigation and advocacy.

7. I have been asked by the ACLU-PA, Arnold & Porter Kaye Scholer LLP, and the Public Interest Law Center (collectively, "Petitioners' Counsel" or "Counsel") to apply my training and expertise to assess the number of mail-ballots that were coded as canceled or pending because the voter neglected to write the date on the outer envelope or because the voter wrote a date that was deemed "incorrect."

8. I have been informed and understand that on August 21, 2023, ACLU-PA attorney Kate Steiker-Ginzberg received access from the Pennsylvania Department of State to the "Pennsylvania Statewide Mail-Ballot File," which contains point-in-time public information about each mail-ballot application and mail-ballot recorded in Pennsylvania's Statewide Uniform Registry of Electors ("SURE") system.

9. Attorney Steiker-Ginzberg made two versions of the Pennsylvania Statewide Mail-Ballot File available to me: (1) a version of the file generated on November 17, 2023 based on Department of State data from the SURE system corresponding to mail-ballots submitted in the November 2023 municipal election, under the file name VR_SWMailBallot_External 20231117.TXT; and (2) a version of the file generated on May 14, 2024 based on Department of State data from the SURE system corresponding to mail-ballots received in the April 2024 Pennsylvania presidential primary election, under the file name VR_SWMailBallot_External 20240514.TXT.

10. For the May 14, 2024 SURE file, I identified mail ballots that were coded as canceled or pending because the voter neglected to write the date on the outer envelope by selecting the rows in the files where the "Ballot status reason" field was set to "CANC - NO DATE" or "PEND – NO DATE." For the November 17, 2023 SURE file, I identified mail ballots that were coded as canceled because the voter neglected to write the date on the outer envelope by selecting the rows in the files where the "Ballot status reason" field was set to "CANC - NO DATE" or "PEND – NO DATE." NO DATE." No "PEND – NO DATE" "Ballot status reason" the files were present in the November 17, 2023 SURE file.

11. Similarly, for the May 14, 2024 SURE file, I identified mail ballots that were coded as canceled or pending because the voter wrote a date that was deemed "incorrect" by selecting the rows in the files where the "Ballot status reason" field was set to "CANC - INCORRECT DATE" or "PEND – INCORRECT DATE". For the November 17, 2023 SURE file, I identified mail ballots that were coded as canceled because the voter wrote a date that was deemed "incorrect" by selecting the rows in the files where the "Ballot status reason" field mail ballots that were coded as canceled because the voter wrote a date that was deemed "incorrect" by selecting the rows in the files where the "Ballot status reason" field was set to "CANC - INCORRECT DATE." No "PEND – INCORRECT DATE" "Ballot status reason" values were present in the November 17, 2023 SURE file.

- 12. Based on the methodology described above, I determined that:
 - a. As of November 17, 2023, 6,804 mail-ballots submitted in the November 2023 municipal election had been coded in the SURE file as canceled because the voter neglected to write the date on the outer envelope or because the voter wrote a date that was deemed "incorrect." Of that total, 4,849 ballots were coded as canceled because the voter neglected to write the date on the outer envelope, and 1,955 were coded as canceled because the voter wrote a date that was deemed "incorrect."
 - b. As of May 14, 2024, 4,421 mail-ballots submitted in the April 2024 Pennsylvania presidential primary election had been coded in the SURE file as canceled or pending because the voter neglected to write the date on the outer envelope or because the voter wrote a date that was deemed "incorrect." Of that total, 1,216 ballots were coded as canceled or pending because the voter neglected to write the date on the outer envelope, and 3,205 were coded as canceled or pending because the voter wrote a date that was deemed the voter wrote a date that was deemed the voter envelope.

13. My conclusions, and the bases for my conclusion, are presented in this declaration. My work on these matters is ongoing, and I may make necessary revisions or additions to the conclusions in this declaration should new information become available or to respond to any opinions and analyses proffered by Respondents. I am prepared to testify on the conclusions in this declaration, as well as to provide any additional relevant background. I reserve the right to prepare additional exhibits to support any testimony.

The statements made in this Declaration are true and correct to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief. I understand that false statements made herein are subject to the penalties of 18 Pa.C.S. § 4904, relating to unsworn falsification to authorities.

ORDER

AND NOW, this 27th day of September, 2024, upon consideration of Petition of Republican National Committee and Republican Party of Pennsylvania to Intervene in the above action (filed September 26,2024 the day after the hearing in the above matter) and the Joint Emergency Motion of Petitioners Baxter and Kinniry and Respondent Philadelphia Board of Elections wherein the parties do not oppose the Petition to Intervene, it is hereby ORDERED that the Petition to Intervene is GRANTED¹ and the Emergency Motion for Reconsideration and Clarification is MOOT.

It is further ordered and due consideration, that Intervenor's Motion to Dismiss is DENIED.

BY THE COURT:

Crumlish, III, J.

The court deferred considering Intervenors Petition in this matter and repeatedly consulted the docket for a filing, but no Petition was reflected on the record as of the time the court submitted its order and its order was entered on the docket at 4:38 p.m. on September 25. The docket thereafter revealed that Petitioner's filing was not made (despite representations to the court to the contrary) until 1:13 pm the following day after the hearing had been concluded. Petitioner's delay disadvantaged the court insofar as the court had no basis at the trial to review the Intervenor's Petition and issue a ruling until such filing was made of record and the delay further has caused inconvenience to the parties in obtaining finality in the court's ruling and necessitating further proceedings to dispose of the Petition to Intervene.

IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS OF PHILADELPHIA COUNTY

1925a ORDER

This matter came before the court on an appeal of the decision of the Philadelphia Board of Elections not to count the Petitioners' ballots in the September 17, 2024 Special Election. The court scheduled a hearing on September 25, 2024, at which the parties appeared and had the opportunity to present their arguments. Intervenor appeared at the hearing and sought to make asserted augments it had already filed intervene (although contrary to representations of intervenor's counsel) nor was the purported Petion available for the court at the hearing to consider and in fact had not yet been filed). The did allow the purported intervenor to address the court. The parties also presented the court with a stipulated consent order to allow forthwith certification of the pending special election results. After argument on the Petition, the court ruled that the Board's decision to reject Petitioners' ballot for failure to affix the date deprived them of their Pennsylvania Constitutional right to vote. The court's reasons for its decision were fully stated on the record at the hearing and are reflected in the transcript. The following day, the court entered an order memorializing that decision.

Prior to the court's written order being entered, but day after the hearing a Petition to Intervene was docketed. The court then set the matter of the Petition down for a hearing. The parties filed a joint emergency¹ motion for reconsideration of the court's order scheduling the hearing in which they stated that they had "intended" the court's ruling to be a final appealable order and the scheduled hearing appeared to leave the case open for further proceedings. The parties stated clearly that they would not take a position on the Petition and therefore deemed it uncontested. Thereafter, the court granted the Petition in an order which represented a final order. The reasons for the court's granting of the Petition were that the Parties did not oppose intervention. The court also denied a motion to dismiss that was appended to the Petition but identified or asserted at the hearing and not properly filed as a motion with time for the court or the parties to consider at the hearing. The court's reasons for denying the motion to dismiss were also because it was untimely and procedurally defective.

JAMES C. CRUMLISH, III, J.

¹ The parties objected to the court's order on the grounds that it was intended that the court's ruling on the Petition was "intended to be" a final appealable order and the parties were seeking to invoke the 3-day appeal period in the Supreme Court's rule related to the November 5, 2024 election. The Petition order in question related to a special election that had already occurred and did not involve voting in the November 2024 election

MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT OF MOTION TO DISMISS PETITION FOR REVIEW IN THE NATURE OF A STATUTORY APPEAL

Proposed Intervenor-Respondents, the Republican National Committee and the Republican Party of Pennsylvania (collectively, "Republican Committees"), by and through their undersigned counsel, submit this Brief in Support of their Motion to Dismiss¹ Petitioners' Petition for Review in the Nature of a Statutory Appeal (the "Petition").

¹ The Republican Committees have styled the motion supported by this brief as a Motion to Dismiss based on the Pennsylvania Commonwealth Court's decision in Schimes v. City of Scranton Non-Uniform Pension Bd., No. 1526 C.D. 2018, 2019 Pa. Commw. Unpub. LEXIS 438 at *9 (Pa. Commw. Aug. 1, 2019), which found that "the Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure are not applicable to statutory appeals; thus, preliminary objections, the grounds for which are set forth in Pa. R.C.P. 1028, cannot be used as a vehicle for challenging such an appeal" (citing Appeal of Borough of Churchill, 575 A.2d 550, 553 (Pa. 1990)). See also Barros v. City of Allentown, No. 1592 C.D. 2011, 2012 Pa. Commw. Unpub. LEXIS 466 at *7 n. 4 (Pa. Commw. Feb. 17, 2012) ("Because preliminary objections are not permitted in statutory appeals, the common pleas court erred when it dismissed Barros' appeal on the City's preliminary objections as a motion to dismiss ... Accordingly, and because the parties are not prejudiced as a result, we will treat our review of the common pleas court's order as though the City filed a motion to dismiss...").

I. INTRODUCTION

"While the Pennsylvania Constitution mandates that elections be 'free and equal,' it leaves the task of effectuating that mandate to the Legislature." Pa. Democratic Party v. Boockvar, 238 A.3d 345, 374 (Pa. 2020). Accordingly, the question which ballot-casting rules should govern how Pennsylvania voters complete and cast their ballots—and whether ballots should be "rejected due to minor errors made in contravention of those requirements"—"is one best suited for the Legislature." Id. The General Assembly has exercised this broad legislative discretion to enact an array of mandatory ballot-casting rules, including rules that make voting by mail available to all Pennsylvania voters.

For example, decades ago, the General Assembly adopted the mandate that voters who vote by mail "fill out, date and sign the declaration printed on [the outer] envelope" completely and accurately. 25 P.S. §§ 3146.6(a), 3150.16(a).² That declaration mandate requires election officials to decline to count any mail ballot that fails to comply with it. See id. §§ 3146.6(a), 3150.16(a). The General Assembly has also adopted a mandatory secrecy-envelope rule to preserve the secrecy of mail ballots. See id. §§ 3146.6(a), 3150.16(a).

For its part, the Pennsylvania Supreme Court has adhered to the rule of legislative primacy to set ballot-casting rules. It has never invalidated a ballot-casting rule enacted by the General Assembly under the Free and Equal Elections Clause (Pa. Const. art. 1, § 5). In fact, it has expressly upheld against Free and Equal Elections challenges the declaration mandate—of which the date requirement is part—and the secrecy-envelope rule. See Pa. Democratic Party, 238 A.3d at 372-80. In so doing, it has never applied, or suggested that courts should apply, any kind of judicial scrutiny or balancing test to determine the constitutionality of ballot-casting rules. See id.

² This Memorandum uses "mail ballots" to refer to both absentee ballots, see 25 P.S. § 3146.6, and mail-in ballots, see id. § 3150.16.

In recent years, however, several groups of plaintiffs—often represented by Petitioners' lawyers—have launched a barrage of lawsuits attacking the date requirement separate and apart from the declaration mandate of which it is part. 25 P.S. §§ 3146.6(a), 3150.16(a). Those suits have repeatedly failed in state and federal court. In 2022, the Pennsylvania Supreme Court held that the date requirement is mandatory under state law and ordered all 67 county boards of elections not to count any mail ballots that fail to comply with it. See Ball v. Chapman, 289 A.3d 1 (Pa. 2023); Ball v. Chapman, 284 A.3d 1189 (Pa. 2022). Earlier this year, the Third Circuit held that the mandatory date requirement does not violate the Materiality Provision of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 because it does not violate "the right to vote." Pa. State Conf. of NAACP Branches v. Sec 'y Commonwealth of Pa., 97 F.4th 120 (3d Cir. 2024). Just a couple weeks ago, the Pennsylvania Supreme court vacated an opinion invalidating the date requirement, and it refused to exercise extraordinary jurisdiction to consider the exact same arguments Petitioners advance now. See Order 1, Black Political Empowerment Project v. Schmidt, No. 68 MAP 2024 (Pa. Sept. 13, 2024) (per curiam).

Neither Petitioners nor any other plaintiffs have ever explained how their challenges to the date requirement can survive the Pennsylvania Supreme Court's unbroken line of controlling precedent upholding the General Assembly's ballot-casting rules. Indeed, Petitioners do not explain how the date requirement can violate the Free and Equal Elections Clause when the Pennsylvania Supreme Court has already rejected a challenge under the Clause to the broader declaration mandate of which the date requirement is part. See Pa. Democratic Party, 238 A.3d at 372-74. They also do not explain how the date requirement can be unconstitutional when other ballot-casting rules like the secrecy-envelope rule are not. See id. at 376-80. And they do not explain how their Free and Equal Elections challenge can survive Ball, where the very same arguments Petitioners raise here were before the Pennsylvania Supreme Court when it upheld the date requirement as mandatory. See 289 A.3d at 14-16 & n.77.

Instead, Petitioners merely quadruple-down on their challenge to the date requirement in this Court, and even go so far as to suggest that the Free and Equal Elections Clause subjects it to strict scrutiny. See Pet. ¶¶ 59-60. That would come as a surprise to the Pennsylvania Supreme Court, which did not apply any level of scrutiny, let alone strict scrutiny, to uphold the entire declaration mandate against a Free and Equal Elections challenge in Pa. Democratic Party. See 238 A.3d at 372-80. This proposed test is especially shocking as, just weeks ago, the Pennsylvania Supreme Court reaffirmed that mandatory ballot-casting rules only violates the Free and Equal Elections Clause if they "deny the franchise itself, or make it so difficult [to vote] as to amount to a denial." In re: Canvas of Provisional Ballots in 2024 Primary Election, 2024 WL 4181584, at *7 (Pa. Sept. 13, 2024) (cleaned up). And it should surprise this Court too, because it would subject all of the General Assembly's ballot-casting rules to strict scrutiny, in contravention of controlling Pennsylvania Supreme Court case-law and the Pennsylvania Constitution's delegation of the "task of effectuating" the Free and Equal Elections "mandate to the Legislature," not the Judiciary. Pa. Democratic Party, 238 A.3d at 372-80. Simply put, the Petition amounts to nothing more than an attempt to overrule Pennsylvania Democratic Party, Ball, and In re: Canvas of Provisional Ballots in 2024 Primary Election, by inviting this Court to invalidate the date requirement.

The Petition also suffers from serious procedural defects. Even as the Pennsylvania Supreme Court just vacated a lower court holding against the date requirement because Petitioners' counsel failed to join all of Pennsylvania's county boards of elections, Petitioners make the same error here. The other 66 county boards have interests in this case, and they must be joined. See id. Further, Petitioners seek relief based on contested facts. Proposed Intervenor-Respondents have evidence that the date requirement serves important functions. For example, the date requirement was recently used as evidence in a voter-fraud prosecution that secured a conviction. See Commonwealth v. Mihaliak, CP-36-CR-0003315-2022 (Lancaster Cnty. 2022); Exhibit B (charging document in Mihaliak). Proposed Intervenor-Respondents would like to exercise their procedural rights to engage in factual development and conduct discovery. Other county boards might also wish to exercise those rights.

As a matter of law, the Court can reject the Petition because it is foreclosed by binding precedent. If the Court disagrees, the procedurally proper course is to proceed with all county boards and to allow the various respondents to develop a factual record about the date requirement. In no event should the Court issue an order before the imminent 2024 elections. A judicial order declaring the date requirement unenforceable as voters are imminently voting in the 2024 elections would unleash voter confusion," "chaos," Kuznik v. Westmoreland Cnty. Bd. of Comm'rs, 902 A.2d 476, 504-07 (Pa. 2006), and an erosion of the public "[c]onfidence in the integrity of our electoral processes [that] is essential to the functioning of participatory democracy," Purcell v. Gonzalez, 549 U.S. 1, 4 (2006). It is simply too late to change the rules for the 2024 election, and this Court should not rush to do so.

II. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

Petitioners appeal from the decision of the Philadelphia County Board of Elections (the "Board") to reject the Petitioners' mail-in ballots due to their failure to date the declaration on the outer envelope in the September 17, 2024, Special Election for State House Districts 195 and 201 (the "Special Election").

R0057

The Board's decision complies with unambiguous statutory law. The Election Code requires voters who submit mail-in ballots to "fill out, date, and sign" the declaration on the outer envelope. 25 P.S. §§ 3146.6(a), 3150.16(a). The Pennsylvania Supreme Court has held that this requirement is mandatory, and that noncompliant ballots cannot be counted. Ball v. Chapman, 289 A.3d 1 (Pa. 2023).

Petitioners do not dispute that they failed to comply with the Election Code, and they do not dispute that the Election Code mandates rejection of their ballots. Instead, they ask this Court to hold that the Free and Equal Elections Clause in the Pennsylvania Constitution renders the date requirement unconstitutional and enforceable. See Pet. ¶ 63. Petitioners ask the Court to do so— and thus destabilize the enforceability of the date requirement across the Commonwealth—even as voting in the 2024 general election is already underway. See 25 P.S. § 3146.2a (noting mail ballots can be sent out starting on September 16). And they ask for this Court to act immediately even as the Pennsylvania Supreme Court, just weeks ago, refused to exercise original jurisdiction to consider the exact same arguments Petitioners advance now. See Black Political Empowerment Project, Sept. 13, 2024 Order 1.

III. LEGAL STANDARD

A Court of Common Pleas can reverse the decision of a county board of elections "only for an abuse of discretion or error of law." In re Canvass of Absentee & Mail-in Ballots of Nov. 3, 2020 Gen. Election, 241 A.3d 1058, 1070 (Pa. 2020) (citing Appeal of McCracken, 88 A.2d 787, 788 (Pa. 1952)); see also, 25 P.S. § 3157(b) (confining Court of Common Pleas' review of decision of board of elections to matters involving "fraud or error"). In reviewing the decision of a board of elections, "[i]t is not the function of [the trial] court to substitute its judgment for that of the board's. . . [the trial court is] bound to uphold the decision of the board unless it is in violation of the law." Lower Saucon Twp. v. Election Bd. of Northampton Cty., 27 Pa. D. & C.3d 387, 393 (Northampton C.P. 1983).

IV. ARGUMENT

I. PETITIONERS' CLAIM FAILS ON THE MERITS.

Petitioners invite the Court to do something unprecedented in the Commonwealth's history: to wield the Free and Equal Elections Clause to strike down a neutral ballot-casting rule that governs how voters complete and cast their ballots. See A. McCall, Elections, in K. Gormley et. al., The Pennsylvania Constitution: A Treatise on Rights and Liberties 215-232 (identifying the types of cases the Free and Equal Elections Clause has been applied in). But in order to function properly, elections must have rules, including ballot-casting rules. The judiciary may not disregard those rules, rewrite them, or declare them unconstitutional simply because a voter failed to follow them and, accordingly, had his or her ballot rejected. See, e.g., Ins. Fed'n of Pa., Inc. v. Commonwealth, Ins. Dep't, 970 A.2d 1108, 1122 n.15 (Pa. 2009); Pa. Env't Def. Found. v. Commonwealth, 161 A.3d 911, 938 n.31 (Pa. 2017); accord Ritter v. Migliori, 142 S. Ct. 1824, 1825 (2022) (Alito, J., dissental) ("When a mail-in ballot is not counted because it was not filled out correctly, the voter is not denied 'the right to vote.' Rather, that individual's vote is not counted because he or she did not follow the rules for casting a ballot. 'Casting a vote, whether by following the directions for using a voting machine or completing a paper ballot, requires compliance with certain rules." (quoting Brnovich v. DNC, 594 U.S. 647, 669 (2021)); Pa. State Conf. of NAACP, 97 F.4th at 133-34 (agreeing with Justice Alito on this point).

Thus, a voter does not suffer constitutional harm when his ballot is rejected because he failed to follow the rules the General Assembly enacted for completing or casting it. As the Pennsylvania Supreme Court held over a century ago (and recently reaffirmed in Pennsylvania Democratic Party), "[t]he power to regulate elections is legislative." Pa. Democratic Party, 238

A.3d at 373 (quoting Winston v. Moore, 91 A. 520, 522 (Pa. 1914)). Thus, "[w]hile the Pennsylvania Constitution mandates that elections be 'free and equal,' it leaves the task of effectuating that mandate"—including the adoption of ballot-casting rules and the decision whether ballots should be "rejected due to minor errors made in contravention of those requirements"— "to the Legislature." Id. at 374.

A party seeking to strike down a statute as unconstitutional must meet an extremely high burden. The "starting point" is the presumption that "all legislative enactments" are constitutional and "[a]ny doubts are to be resolved in favor of a finding of constitutionality." Mixon v. Commonwealth, 759 A.2d 442, 447 (Pa. Commw. Ct. 2000); League of Women Voters v. Commonwealth, 178 A.3d 737, 801 (Pa. 2018).

This presumption of constitutionality is strong. Mixon, 759 A.2d at 447. To overcome it, Petitioners must prove the date requirement "clearly, palpably, and plainly violates the Constitution." League of Women Voters, 178 A.3d at 801. Indeed, a "statute is facially unconstitutional only where no set of circumstances exist under which the statute would be valid." Pa. Env't Def. Found., 161 A.3d at 938 n.31.

Petitioners' Free and Equal Elections challenge to the General Assembly's duly enacted and longstanding date requirement fails for several reasons. First, the Pennsylvania Supreme Court has already rejected the very Free and Equal Elections challenges Petitioners mount here. Pa. Democratic Party, 238 A.3d at 372-80; Ball, 289 A.3d at 14-16 & n.77. It recently declined to exercise extraordinary jurisdiction to revisit those challenges. See Black Political Empowerment Project, Sept. 13, 2024 Order 1.

Case ID: 240902

Control No.: 24095206

Second, even if the Court deems that to be an open question, Petitioners' claims fail on the Clause's plain text and history and the controlling precedent construing the Clause. See, e.g., League of Women Voters, 178 A.3d at 807-10.

Third, case-law from other states with "free and equal elections" clauses and case-law construing the right to vote under the U.S. Constitution foreclose Petitioners' claims.

Fourth, Petitioners' requested relief is improper. Invalidating the Free and Equal Elections Clause to invalidate the date requirement would "impermissibly distort[]" state law and, thus, violate the Elections and Electors Clauses of the U.S. Constitution. Moore v. Harper, 600 U.S. 1, 38 (2023) (Kavanaugh, J., concurring) (quoting Bush v. Gore, 531 U.S. 98, 115 (2000) (Rehnquist, C.J., concurring)); see id. at 34-36 (holding that federal courts must review state-court interpretations of federal election laws passed by state legislatures). And if this Court invalidates the date requirement, the entirety of Act 77—including its creation of no-excuse mail voting for all Pennsylvania voters—would be invalidated under the non-severability provision the General Assembly enacted to protect its political compromises in the Act. See McLinko v. Dep't of State, 279 A.3d 539, 609-610 (Pa. 2022) (Brobson, J., dissenting).

For each of these reasons, the Court should reject the Petition.

A. The Pennsylvania Supreme Court Has Rejected Free and Equal Elections Challenges To The Date Requirement.

Petitioners' claims are foreclosed because the Pennsylvania Supreme Court has already rejected these Free and Equal Elections challenges to the date requirement.

The petitioners in Pennsylvania Democratic Party already brought a Free and Equal Elections challenge to the Election Code's declaration mandate of which the date requirement is part. In particular, those petitioners asserted that "the multi-stepped process for voting by mail-in or absentee ballot inevitably leads to … minor errors, such as not completing the voter declaration," which requires voters to "fill out, date, and sign the declaration printed on the outer envelope." Pa. Democratic Party, 238 A.3d at 372. The petitioners argued that mail ballots should be counted notwithstanding "minor errors" or "irregularities" in completion of the declaration. Id. at 373. They therefore asked the Pennsylvania Supreme Court to hold that the Clause requires county boards to provide voters notice and an opportunity to cure such "minor errors" before rejecting the ballot. See id. at 373-74.

The Secretary of the Commonwealth opposed this request and the petitioners' construction of the Free and Equal Elections Clause. See id. at 373. The Secretary agreed that "so long as a voter follows the requisite voting procedures, he or she will have an equally effective power to select the representative of his or her choice," which is all that the Clause guarantees. Id. (quotation marks omitted). In other words, the Secretary concluded that the General Assembly does not violate the Clause when it mandates that ballots not be counted where a voter fails to "follow[] the requisite voting procedures" it has enacted. Id.

The Pennsylvania Supreme Court agreed and rejected the petitioners' claim. It reasoned that the Free and Equal Elections Clause does not mandate a cure procedure "for mail-in and absentee ballots that voters have filled out incompletely or incorrectly." Id. at 374. After all, the Clause "leaves the task of effectuating th[e] mandate" that elections be free and equal "to the Legislature." Id. It therefore resides in the Legislature to decide both "the procedures for casting and counting a vote by mail" and whether even "minor errors in contravention of those requirements" warrant rejection of the ballot. Id.

The Pennsylvania Supreme Court therefore held that the declaration mandate complies with the Free and Equal Elections Clause even though it requires county boards to reject ballots due to "minor errors" in completion of the declaration. See id. The court thus rejected Petitioners' current argument: that the Clause precludes mandatory application of the declaration mandate and its date requirement to reject noncompliant mail ballots. See id.

Case ID: 24090

Petitioners' arguments, see Pet. ¶¶ 55-66, that the date requirement serves no purpose and that mandatory application of the date requirement violates the Clause were also presented to the Pennsylvania Supreme Court in Ball. See Brief of Respondent in Ball, 2022 WL 18540590, at *37 ("Imposing draconian consequences for insignificant errors could, as is the case here [] implicate the Constitution's Free and Equal Elections Clause[.]"); Democratic Intervenors' Ball Br., 2022 WL 18540587, at *1-2 & *8-10 (discussion alleged lack of purpose), *29-32 (making argument under Free and Equal Elections Clause). The court even noted those arguments in its opinion. See 289 A.3d at 14-15 (discussing Free and Equal Elections Clause arguments raised by the parties); 16 n.77 (discussing alleged lack of "functionality" of the date requirement). It nonetheless upheld the date requirement as "unambiguous and mandatory" such that a voter's failure to comply with it renders the ballot legally "invalid," id. at 20-23, thus rejecting those arguments.

Petitioners' rehash of these same challenges to the date requirement is foreclosed by precedent. Indeed, the Pennsylvania Supreme Court recently declined to exercise extraordinary jurisdiction to revisit these challenges. Black Political Empowerment Project, Sept. 13, 2024 Order 1.

B. The Date Requirement Does Not Violate The Constitution.

The Pennsylvania Supreme Court's rejection of Free and Equal Elections challenges to the date requirement alone warrants summary relief. See supra Part I.A. But even if the Court deems that question open, it still should grant this relief because controlling law makes clear that the date requirement comports with the Clause.

11

R0063

Case ID: 24090

1. The Clause Does Not Invalidate Mandatory Ballot-Casting Rules.

The Pennsylvania Supreme Court has never used the Free and Equal Elections Clause to strike down a neutral ballot-casting rule governing how voters complete and cast their ballots. See McCall, supra, at 215-232 (discussing different ways Clause has been used); see also League of Women Voters, 178 A.3d at 802, 806, 818 (repeatedly using same treatise to interpret the Clause). In fact, it has routinely upheld ballot-casting rules—such as the declaration mandate and the secrecy-envelope rule—against challenges under the Clause. See Pa. Democratic Party, 238 A.3d at 372-80.

These holdings make perfect sense: the Clause delegates to the "Legislature" the "task of effectuating" its mandate, including the adoption of ballot-casting rules and the decision whether ballots should be invalidated "due to minor errors made in contravention of those requirements." Id. at 374. Originally adopted in 1790, the Clause provides that "[e]lections shall be free and equal." Pa. Const. art. I § 5. Its purpose is to "ensure that each voter will have an equally effective power to select the representative of his or her choice, free from any discrimination on the basis of his or her particular beliefs or views." League of Women Voters, 178 A.3d at 809. In other words, the Clause guarantees that every Pennsylvania voter has "the same free and equal opportunity to select his or her representatives." Id. at 814; see also Pa. Democratic Party, 238 A.3d at 373 ("so long as a voter follows the requisite voting procedures, he or she will have an equally effective power to select the representative of his or her choice") (internal quotation marks omitted).

Precedent and history demonstrate that the Clause performs three functions—none of which implicate, let alone invalidate, ballot-casting rules like the date requirement. First, the Clause prohibits arbitrary voter-qualification rules that disqualify classes of citizens from voting. League of Women Voters, 178 A.3d at 807. During Pennsylvania's colonial period, large numbers of Pennsylvanians were prohibited from voting because of religious or property-based qualifications. Id. at 804-05. Pennsylvania's Framers prohibited such arbitrary and discriminatory qualifications when they adopted the Clause. See id. at 807 (Clause achieves "universal suffrage" by "prohibiting exclusion from the election process of those without property or financial means"); see McCall, supra, at 217.

Second, the Clause prohibits intentional discrimination against voters based on social or economic status, geography of residence, or religious or political beliefs. League of Women Voters, 178 A.3d at 807. That is why the Pennsylvania Supreme Court held that the Clause prohibits political gerrymandering. Id. at 808-09. The court explained this holding flows from the Clause's aim to prohibit "dilution of the right of the people of this Commonwealth to select representatives to govern their affairs based on considerations of the region of the state in which they lived, and the religious and political beliefs to which they adhered." Id.

Third, the Clause prohibits "regulation[s]" that "make it so difficult [to vote] as to amount to a denial" of "the franchise." Id. at 810 (quoting Winston, 91 A. at 523). Unless a regulation imposes such extreme burdens, "no constitutional right of [a] qualified elector is subverted or denied" and the regulation is not subject to judicial scrutiny under the Free and Equal Elections Clause. Id. Just a few weeks ago, the Pennsylvania Supreme Court reaffirmed this is the standard, In re: Canvas of Provisional Ballots in 2024 Primary Election, 2024 WL 4181584, at *7 (Pa. Sept. 13, 2024), not Petitioners' proposed strict-scrutiny test.

After all, the Clause guarantees only that every voter shall have an equal opportunity to cast a vote in the election, not that every voter will successfully avail himself or herself of that opportunity. Pa. Democratic Party, 238 A.3d at 374; League of Women Voters, 178 A.3d at 810. It therefore does not—and has never been interpreted to—restrict the authority of the Legislature to adopt neutral ballot-casting rules. To the contrary, "[i]t is not possible, nor does the Constitution require, that this freedom and equality of election shall be a perfect one," and "some may even lose their suffrages by the imperfection of the system; but this is no ground to pronounce a law unconstitutional." Patterson v. Barlow, 60 Pa. 54, 75-76 (1869). Indeed, "nothing short of gross abuse would justify a court in striking down an election law demanded by the people, and passed by the lawmaking branch of government." Winston, 91 A. at 523.

2. The Date Requirement Does Not Violate The Free And Equal Elections Clause.

The Pennsylvania Supreme Court applied this governing precedent to reject challenges to two sets of ballot-casting rules in Pennsylvania Democratic Party: the declaration mandate and the secrecy-envelope rule. See Pa. Democratic Party, 238 A.3d at 372-80. As part of the declaration mandate, and like the secrecy-envelope rule, the date requirement is a neutral, non-discriminatory ballot-casting rule that does not violate the Free and Equal Elections Clause. See id. at 372-73; Mixon, 759 A.2d at 449-50.

Petitioners do not—and cannot—claim that the date requirement unconstitutionally narrows who is eligible to vote or constitutes intentional discrimination by the bipartisan majority of the General Assembly that enacted Act 77. See League of Women Voters, 178 A.3d at 807. Petitioners thus must be invoking the Clause's third protection, see id., and claiming that the date requirement "make[s] it so difficult [to vote] as to amount to a denial" of "the franchise." Id. at 810.

That claim is nonsense. In the first place, Pennsylvania law permits all voters to vote in person without complying with the date requirement. See, e.g., 25 P.S. § 2811. So far from making voting "so difficult as to amount to a denial" of "the franchise," League of Women Voters, 178 A.3d at 810, the date requirement is inapplicable to an entire universally available method of voting—R0066 Case ID: 240902481 Control No · 24095206 the method that the majority of Pennsylvania voters use to vote. 2022 General Election Official Returns (Statewide), November 8, 2022 (22.8% of ballots counted in the 2022 U.S. Senate election—1,225,446 out of 5,368,021)—were mail ballots), https://www.electionreturns.pa.gov/_ENR/General/SummaryResults?ElectionID=94&ElectionTy pe=G&IsActive=0.

In the second place, even if Petitioners were correct that the Free and Equal Elections Clause requires ignoring the preferred voting method of the majority of Pennsylvania voters and focusing only on mail voting, there is nothing "difficult" about signing and dating a document, let alone "so difficult" as to deny the right to vote. League of Women Voters, 178 A.3d at 810. Petitioners' own position contemplates as much, since they do not challenge the "fill out" and "sign" aspects of Pennsylvania's declaration mandate—and they offer no explanation as to how dating the declaration can be more difficult than filling out and signing it. Moreover, signing and dating documents is a mandatory and common feature of life. The forms provided in Pennsylvania statutes which provide spaces for both a signature and a date are too numerous to list here.³

Furthermore, both signing a piece of paper and writing a date on it are nothing more than the "usual burdens of voting," Crawford v. Marion Cnty. Election Bd., 553 U.S. 181, 198 (2008) (opinion of Stevens, J.); id. at 204-09 (Scalia, J., concurring), not a "difficult[y]" so severe "as to amount to a denial" of "the franchise," League of Women Voters, 178 A.3d at 810. Every State requires voters to write pieces of information on voting papers—both for in-person and mail voting. See, e.g., 25 P.S. §§ 3146.6(a), 3150.16(a) (signature requirement); 25 P.S. § 3050

(requirement to maintain in-person voting poll books); Electronic Poll Books, National Conference of State Legislatures (Oct. 25, 2019), ncsl.org/elections-and-campaigns/electronic-poll-books; How States Verify Voted Absentee/Mail Ballots, National Conference of State Legislatures (Jan. 22, 2024), ncsl.org/elections-and-campaigns/table-14-how-states-verify-voted-absentee-mail-ballots. Anyone who has voted knows this.

In fact, dating a ballot declaration is far less difficult than performing other tasks that have been upheld as non-burdensome and constitutional under the Free and Equal Elections Clause and other constitutional provisions. As noted, the Pennsylvania Supreme Court has already upheld against a Free and Equal Elections challenge the declaration mandate of which the date requirement is part and the secrecy-envelope rule. See Pa. Democratic Party, 238 A.3d at 372-80. Petitioners never even attempt to explain how those rules can be valid under the Clause but the date requirement is not. Nor could they, since the date requirement—like the signature requirement Petitioners do not challenge—is necessarily easier to comply with than the range of rules (including the "fill out," "date," and "sign" requirements) that form the declaration mandate.

Moreover, the United States Supreme Court has upheld as constitutionally nonburdensome "the inconvenience of making a trip to the [Bureau of Motor Vehicles], gathering . . . required documents, and posing for a photograph" as required to obtain a photo identification for in-person voting. Crawford, 533 U.S. at 198 (opinion of Stevens, J.). It has also reasoned that "[h]aving to identify one's own polling place and then travel there to vote does not exceed the usual burdens of voting." Brnovich, 594 U.S. at 678. Yet both of these tasks are far more difficult than signing and dating a ballot envelope—so, a fortiori, the date requirement does not "make it so difficult [to vote] as to amount to a denial" of "the franchise." League of Women Voters, 178 A.3d at 810.

Case ID: 24090

This is the end of the analysis, and Petitioners' challenge fails. Indeed, this aspect of the Pennsylvania Supreme Court's Free and Equal Elections jurisprudence turns on the objective burden imposed by the challenged rule—i.e., whether the challenged rule "make[s] it so difficult [to vote] as to amount to a denial" of "the franchise"—not the number of voters who fail to comply with it. Id.

But even if the number of noncompliant ballots were relevant, see, e.g., Pa. Democratic Party, 238 A.3d at 389 (Wecht, J., concurring) (reasoning that the requirement that voters "'fill out, date and sign the declaration printed on' the ballot return envelope" is constitutional unless it "will result in a constitutionally intolerable ratio of rejected ballots"), the rejection rates under the date requirement demonstrate that the date requirement is not so "difficult" to comply with as to be unconstitutional, League of Women Voters, 178 A.3d at 810. Only 0.85% of the 1,258,336 mail ballots returned statewide in the 2022 general election were rejected. See Black Political Empowerment Project, 2024 WL 4002321 at *54 (McCullough, J., dissenting); U.S. Election Administration Commission, Election Administration and Voting Survey 2022 Comprehensive Report: A Report from the U.S. Election Assistance Commission to the 118th Congress at 45, 47, https://www.eac.gov/sites/default/files/2023-06/2022_EAVS_Report_508c.pdf. A requirement that over 99% of mail voters complied with cannot be "so difficult as to amount to a denial" of the "franchise." League of Women Voters, 178 A.3d at 810.

Moreover, this 0.85% noncompliance rate is lower than the historic noncompliance rate under the secrecy-envelope requirement. See Black Political Empowerment Project, 2024 WL 4002321 at *54-55 (McCullough, J., dissenting); MIT Election & Science Lab, How Many Naked Ballots Were Cast in Pennsylvania's 2020 General Election? (statewide rejection rate for noncompliance with secrecy-envelope requirement around 1%), https://electionlab.mit.edu/articles/how-many-naked-ballots-were-cast-pennsylvanias-2020general-election. Thus, because the secrecy-envelope requirement does not violate the Free and Equal Elections Clause, see Pa. Democratic Party, 238 A.3d at 376-80, the date requirement cannot either.

Notably, the rejection rate under the date requirement actually decreased in the 2024 primary elections to 0.56%. See Black Political Empowerment Project, 2024 WL 4002321 at *54 (McCullough, J., dissenting). The vast majority of Pennsylvania mail voters therefore again complied with the date requirement, so it cannot violate the Free and Equal Elections Clause. League of Women Voters, 178 A.3d at 810.

Finally, as even the majority in the now-vacated Commonwealth Court opinion recognized, there is every reason to think the rejection rate will only continue to decline. After all, the Secretary recently redesigned the mail-ballot declaration in a manner that "eliminates" the most common forms of dating errors in past elections. Black Political Empowerment Project, 2024 WL 4002321 at *9. Thanks to the Secretary's actions, county boards must (1) preprint the entire year in the date field, thus "eliminat[ing]" the error of "a voter writing an incomplete or inaccurate year," id. at *9; (2) print "Today's date here (REQUIRED)," thus further specifying which date is "correct," id. at *19; and (3) print four boxes in the date field and to specify that the date should be written in MM/DD format, thus eliminating any confusion regarding whether voters should use the American or International dating conventions. See id. at *9.

3. Pennsylvania Law Forecloses Petitioners' Request For Strict Scrutiny.

Case ID: 240902

Control No · 24095206

R0070

Well-established Pennsylvania law, therefore, forecloses Petitioners' Free and Equal Elections challenges to the date requirement. Petitioners thus pivot to inviting this Court to transform the Clause into a license for judges to routinely second-guess any election rule adopted by the General Assembly. See Pet. ¶¶ 55-63. In their preferred world, Pennsylvania courts would subject all state election rules to a demanding balancing test that considers burdens on voters and the wisdom of the General Assembly's policy judgment that those rules are justified. In fact, Petitioners go so far as to advocate that the Court subject the date requirement to strict scrutiny. See id..

The Court should decline Petitioners' invitation to author this dramatic rewrite of Pennsylvania law for several reasons. First, the Pennsylvania Supreme Court has never applied the Free and Equal Elections Clause in this manner. Thus, Petitioners can identify no support in Pennsylvania law for doing so. To the contrary, consistent with its historical aims, the Clause has been applied "infrequently," League of Women Voters, 178 A.3d at 809, and never to invalidate a neutral ballot-casting rule. Moreover, when the Pennsylvania Supreme Court considered Free and Equal Elections challenges to the declaration mandate and the secrecy-envelope rule, it did not apply any kind of judicial scrutiny or balancing, let alone strict scrutiny. See Pa. Democratic Party, 238 A.3d at 372-80; see also id. at 374 ("task of effectuating" Free and Equal Elections mandate belongs to "the Legislature").

Second, Petitioners argue "strict scrutiny" applies to "any restriction" on voting. Pet. ¶ 59. That would come as a surprise to the Pennsylvania Supreme Court, which in Pennsylvania Democratic Party recognized that the right to vote is fundamental but did not apply any scrutiny or balancing, let alone strict scrutiny, to the voting rules challenged there. See 238 A.3d at 372-80, 385. And in the other case Petitioners cite, this Court declined to apply strict scrutiny over an argument that the challenged law implicated the fundamental right to vote. See Petition of Berg, 712 A.2d 340, 342-44 (Pa. Commw. Ct. 1998) (cited at Pet. ¶ 59).

Control No · 24095

Third, expanding the Free and Equal Elections Clause to subject all neutral ballot-casting rules to an open-ended balancing test would be inconsistent with Pennsylvania's separation of powers. "While the Pennsylvania Constitution mandates that elections [shall] be 'free and equal,' it leaves the task of effectuating that mandate to the Legislature." Pa. Democratic Party, 238 A.3d at 374; see Pa. Const. art. VII, § 14(a). And the Judiciary "may not usurp the province of the legislature by rewriting [statutes] ... as that is not [the court's] proper role under our constitutionally established tripartite form of governance." In re: Fortieth Statewide Investigating Grand Jury, 197 A.3d 712, 721 (Pa. 2018).

Adopting Petitioners' proposed framework would effectively force the Judiciary to routinely "second-guess the policy choices of the General Assembly." Ins. Fed'n of Pa., Inc., 970 A.2d at 1122 n.15 (emphasis in original). Even though "ballot and election laws have always been regarded as peculiarly within the province of the legislative branch of government," Winston, 91 A. at 522, Petitioners would subject all of Pennsylvania's election laws to searching judicial scrutiny. This Court should reject that dangerous and legally unfounded approach.

C. Other States' "Free And Equal Elections" Precedent And Federal Right-To-Vote Precedent Foreclose Petitioners' Claims.

The Pennsylvania Supreme Court's rejection of Free and Equal Elections challenges to the date requirement, see supra Part I.A, and its precedent construing the Clause, see supra Part I.B, are each alone sufficient to warrant summary relief of judgment against Petitioners. If more were somehow needed, other States' "free and equal elections" jurisprudence and federal right-to-vote case-law refute Petitioners' challenge to the date requirement.

1. "Free And Equal Elections" Clauses In Other States Do Not Invalidate Ballot-Casting Rules.

As the Pennsylvania Supreme Court has noted, twelve other States have "free and equal elections" provisions similar to the Clause. League of Women Voters, 178 A.3d at 813 n.71. Yet Petitioners cite zero cases from any of those States in which a neutral ballot-casting rule like the date requirement was invalidated or enjoined under such a provision.

That is because courts in those States have consistently held that, under analogous "free and equal elections" clauses, a ballot-casting rule is lawful "so long as what it requires is not so grossly unreasonable that compliance therewith is practically impossible." Simmons v. Byrd, 136 N.E. 14, 17-18 (Ind. 1922); see Mills v. Shelby Cnty. Election Comm'n, 218 S.W.3d 33, 40-41 (Tenn. Ct. App. 2006) (provision "refers to the rights of suffrage and not to the logistics of how the votes are cast."). Other state courts interpret their "free and equal election" provisions merely to prohibit the use of coercion to bar access to voting or to require that lawfully-cast votes be given equal weight. See, e.g., Chavez v. Brewer, 214 P.3d 397, 407 (Ariz. Ct. App. 2009); Ross v. Kozubowski, 538 N.E.2d 623, 627 (Ill. App. Ct. 1989) ("free and equal election" provision does not guarantee an election "devoid of all error" and requires "only" that "each voter have the opportunity to cast his or her [own] vote without restraint and that his or her vote have the same influence as the vote of every other voter"); Graham v. Sec'y of State, 684 S.W.3d 663, 684-85 (Ky. 2023) (violation only where "restraint or coercion, physical or otherwise, is exercised against a voter's ability to cast a vote"); Gentges v. State Election Bd., 419 P.3d 224, 228 (Okla. 2018) (provision violated when there is "conscious legislative intent for electors to be deprived of their right to vote"); Libertarian Party of Or. v. Roberts, 750 P.2d 1147, 1152 (Or. 1988) (clause requires equal counting of votes); Chamberlin v. Wood, 88 N.W. 109, 110-12 (Ga. 1901) (clause prohibits coercion and requires equal counting of votes).

R0073 Case ID: 240902481 Control No · 24095206 After a diligent search, Republican Intervenors are aware of zero cases applying any other State's "free and equal election" clause to invalidate an ordinary ballot-casting rule like the date requirement. To the contrary, the Delaware Chancery Court recently rejected a challenge to a mailballot receipt deadline under that State's Free and Equal Elections Clause. See League of Women Voters of Del. v. Dep't of Elections., 250 A.3d 922, 935-37 (Del. Ch. 2020). That court acknowledged that "some people will be disenfranchised because they spoil mail-in ballots in a variety of ways," but explained that such failures are inevitable and do not implicate the Delaware Free and Equal Elections Clause. Id. at 935-36. The choice of which rules to set for mail ballots, the court explained, is a "matter of policy, not the Delaware Constitution." Id. at 936.

2. Federal Right-To-Vote Precedent Also Refutes Petitioners' Challenge.

Federal law also refutes Petitioners' request to recognize a constitutional right to require counting ballots that do not comply with neutral ballot-casting rules like the date requirement. That is true even if the Court adopts a judicial balancing approach at odds with the Pennsylvania Supreme Court's governing Free and Equal Elections Clause precedent.

To start, the U.S. Supreme Court has recognized that there is no constitutional right to vote by mail and that a State's regulation of one method of voting cannot violate the right to vote when another voting method remains available. See, e.g., McDonald v. Bd. of Election Comm'rs, 394 U.S. 802, 807-808 (1969); Crawford, 553 U.S. at 201 (opinion of Stevens, J.); Tex. Democratic Party v. Abbott, 961 F.3d 389, 403-05 (5th Cir. 2020). In other words, the federal constitutional right to vote is violated only when an individual is "absolutely prohibited from exercising the franchise" through any method. McDonald, 394 U.S. at 809.

The date requirement for mail ballots clearly comports with the U.S. Constitution because Pennsylvania allows all voters to vote in person without complying with the date requirement.

Pennsylvania thus stands in the same position as Indiana in Crawford, where the Court refused to consider alleged constitutional burdens on elderly voters' ability to vote in person because "the elderly in Indiana are able to vote absentee." 553 U.S. at 201 (opinion of Stevens, J.). Because Pennsylvania permits all eligible voters to vote in person, Petitioners here, like Indiana's elderly voters in Crawford, are not "absolutely prohibited" from voting. McDonald, 394 U.S. at 809. Indeed, "[Pennsylvania] permits [all voters] to vote in person; that is the exact opposite of 'absolutely prohibit[ing]' them from doing so." Tex. Democratic Party, 961 F.3d at 404. Petitioners' right to vote under the federal Constitution is therefore unaffected by the date requirement. See McDonald, 394 U.S. at 807.

Moreover, even if Petitioners were correct that this Court could apply a judicial balancing approach here, federal law underscores that the date requirement is constitutional even under such an approach. Courts assess alleged violations of the federal constitutional right to vote under the so-called Anderson-Burdick test. Under that framework, regulations imposing "severe burdens on [voters'] rights must be narrowly tailored and advance a compelling state interest," while those imposing "[1]esser burdens … trigger less exacting review, and [the] State's important regulatory interests will usually be enough to justify reasonable, nondiscriminatory restrictions." Timmons v. Twin Cities Area New Party, 520 U.S. 351, 358 (1997). Moreover, the "usual burdens of voting" cannot violate any right to vote under federal law. Crawford, 553 U.S. at 198 (opinion of Stevens, J.); accord Brnovich, 594 U.S. at 669 (2021).

The date requirement easily withstands scrutiny under that standard. Writing a date on a piece of paper is nothing more than a "usual burden[] of voting" and thus receives no scrutiny under the Anderson-Burdick framework. Crawford, 553 U.S. at 198 (opinion of Stevens, J.); id. at 204-09 (Scalia, J., concurring).

Control No · 24095206

The Third Circuit's holding that the date requirement does not violate the federal statutory "right to vote" underscores that rules imposing the usual burdens of voting cannot violate the constitutional right to vote. Pa. State Conf. of NAACP, 97 F.4th at 133. As the Third Circuit explained, "a voter who fails to abide by state rules prescribing how to make a vote effective is not 'denied the right to vote' when his ballot is not counted." Id. Indeed, "[i]f state law provides that ballots completed in different color inks, or secrecy envelopes containing improper markings, or envelopes missing a date, must be discounted, that is a legislative choice that federal courts might review if there is unequal application, but they have no power to review under" a theory that the right to vote has been denied. Id. The Third Circuit reached this conclusion that neutral, nondiscriminatory ballot-casting rules do not violate the "right to vote" without conducting any balancing of the burdens imposed, and state interests served, by those rules. See id.

To be sure, the Third Circuit was discussing the statutory "right to vote" in the Materiality Provision. But the appellees there and the dissenting judge argued that the "right to vote" in the Materiality Provision is broader than the right to vote in the U.S. Constitution, see id. at 139-40 (Shwartz, J., dissenting); Id., No. 23-3166 (3d Cir.) ECF 144 at 13-14, 17 n.1. If anything, the "right to vote" in the federal civil-rights laws is coterminous with the federal constitutional right and there is no authority suggesting the federal constitutional right to vote is broader than the federal statutory right to vote. See Brnovich, 594 U.S. at 669-70 (consulting "standard practice" at the time "when § 2 [of the Voting Rights Act] was amended" to determine what "furnish[es] an equal 'opportunity' to vote in the sense meant by § 2"); Baker v. Carr, 369 U.S. 186, 247 (1962) (Douglas, J., concurring) (the "right to vote" was "protected by the judiciary long before that right received [] explicit protection" in civil-rights statutes). A fortiori, the Third Circuit's conclusion that the date requirement does not violate the statutory right to vote means that it does not violate the constitutional right to vote either.

In all events, the date requirement easily passes muster even if it is subjected to interest balancing under the Anderson-Burdick framework. Any burden imposed by the date requirement is trivial compared to burdens the U.S. Supreme Court has held are minor under the Anderson-Burdick framework. Writing a date on a document is far less onerous than "the inconvenience of making a trip to the [Bureau of Motor Vehicles], gathering . . . required documents, and posing for a photograph" upheld as minimal and constitutional in Crawford. 553 U.S. at 198 (opinion of Stevens, J.). It is also substantially less burdensome than "[h]aving to identify one's own polling place and then travel there to vote," which "does not exceed the usual burdens of voting." Brnovich, 594 U.S. at 678 (internal quotation marks omitted).

Because the date requirement imposes, at most, a minor burden on voting, it is subject to "rational basis review," Mays v. LaRose, 951 F.3d 775, 784 (6th Cir. 2020), which is obviously "quite deferential," Mazo v. N.J. Sec'y of State, 54 F.4th 124, 153 (3d Cir. 2022). Under that standard, the "State's important regulatory interests will usually be enough to justify reasonable, nondiscriminatory" election regulations. Timmons, 520 U.S. at 351-52.

The date requirement easily passes muster under that standard because it is supported by several legitimate state interests. As the Pennsylvania Supreme Court has already held, the date requirement serves several weighty interests and an "unquestionable purpose." In re Canvass of Absentee & Mail-In Ballots, 241 A.3d at 1090 (opinion of Justice Dougherty, Chief Justice Saylor, and Justice Mundy); see id. at 1087 (opinion of Justice Wecht) (noting that "colorable arguments ... suggest [the date requirement's] importance").

Control No · 240952

To start, the date requirement "provides proof of when [an] 'elector actually executed [a] ballot in full." Id. at 1090 (opinion of Justice Dougherty, Chief Justice Saylor, and Justice Mundy). Such information facilitates the "orderly administration" of elections and is undoubtedly a legitimate state interest. Crawford, 553 U.S. at 196 (opinion of Stevens, J.). To be sure, Pennsylvania election officials are required to timestamp a ballot upon receiving it, and they rely on that date when entering information into Pennsylvania's Statewide Uniform Registry of Electors ("SURE") system. See Pa. State Conf. of NAACP v. Schmidt, 2023 WL 8091601, at *21 (W.D. Pa. Nov. 21, 2023), rev'd, Pa. State Conf. of NAACP, 97 F.4th 120. And there is every reason to think that ordinarily happens. See id. But the handwritten date serves as a useful backstop, and it would become quite important if a county failed to timestamp a ballot upon receiving it or if Pennsylvania's SURE system malfunctioned—a possibility Judge Matey has highlighted. See Migliori v. Cohen, 36 F.4th 153, 165 (2022) (Matey, J., concurring in judgment), vacated Ritter v. Migliori, 143 S. Ct. 297 (2022), and majority holding disavowed, Pa. State Conf. of NAACP, 97 F.4th at 128.

Further, the date requirement serves the State's interest in solemnity—i.e., in ensuring that voters "contemplate their choices" and "reach considered decisions about their government and laws." Minn. Voters All. v. Mansky, 585 U.S. 1, 15 (2018). Signature-and-date requirements serve a "cautionary function" by "impressing the parties with the significance of their acts and their resultant obligations." Davis v. G N Mortg. Corp., 244 F. Supp. 2d 950, 956 (N.D. Ill. 2003). Such formalities "guard[] against ill-considered action," Thomas A. Armbruster, Inc. v. Barron, 491 A.2d 882, 883-84 (Pa. Super. Ct. 1985), and the absence of formalities "prevent[s] ... parties from exercising the caution demanded by a situation in which each ha[s] significant rights at stake," Thatcher's Drug Store v. Consol. Supermarkets, 636 A.2d 156, 161 (Pa. 1994). Indeed, the Fifth Circuit recently upheld an original-signature requirement, in part, on the basis that an "original signature to a voter registration form carries 'solemn weight." Vote.Org v. Callanen, 89 F.4th 459, 489 (5th Cir. 2023).

Moreover, the date requirement advances the State's interests in "deterring and detecting voter fraud" and "protecting the integrity and reliability of the electoral process." Crawford, 553 U.S. at 191 (opinion of Stevens, J.); In re Canvass of Absentee & Mail-In Ballots, 241 A.3d at 1091 (opinion of Justice Dougherty, Chief Justice Saylor, and Justice Mundy). Here, the date requirement's advancement of the interest in preventing fraud is actual, not hypothetical: In 2022, the date requirement was used to detect voter fraud committed by a deceased individual's daughter. See Commonwealth v. Mihaliak, CP-36-CR-0003315-2022 (Lancaster Cnty. 2022). In fact, because current Pennsylvania Supreme Court precedent precludes county boards of elections from comparing the signature on the ballot envelope with one in the official record, see In Re: Nov. 3, 2020 Gen. Election, 240 A.3d 591, 595 (Pa. 2020), the only evidence of third-party fraud on the face of the fraudulent ballot was the handwritten date of April 26, 2022, which was twelve days after the decedent had passed away. See Exhibit C (charging document in Mahaliak). That evidence was used to secure a guilty plea from the fraudster, who was sentenced to probation and barred from voting for four years. See Mihaliak, CP-36-CR-0003315-2022.

The U.S. Supreme Court has made clear that States do not need to point to evidence of election fraud within their borders in order to adopt rules designed to deter and detect it. Brnovich, 594 U.S. at 686. Yet here, where the date requirement has actually been used to detect and prosecute fraud, the State's interest in "deterring and detecting voter fraud" is unquestionably advanced. Crawford, 553 U.S. at 191 (opinion of Stevens, J.). And the date requirement's fraud deterrence and detection function advances the related vital state interest of preserving and promoting voter "[c]onfidence in the integrity of our electoral process" that is so "essential to the functioning of our participatory democracy." Purcell v. Gonzalez, 549 U.S. 1, 4 (2006) ("Voter fraud drives honest citizens out of the democratic process and breeds distrust of our government.").

In sum, federal law refutes, rather than supports, Plaintiffs' request to extend Pennsylvania's Free and Equal Elections Clause to invalidate ordinary ballot-casting rules like the date requirement.

D. Invalidating The Date Requirement Would Violate The U.S. Constitution.

Invalidating the date requirement under the Pennsylvania Constitution would also violate the Elections and Electors Clauses of the U.S. Constitution. The Elections Clause directs: "The Times, Places, and Manner of holding Elections for Senators and Representatives, shall be prescribed in each State by the Legislature thereof; but the Congress may at any time by Law make or alter such Regulations." U.S. Const. art. I, § 4, cl. 1. The Electors Clause grants the General Assembly plenary authority to set the rules for Presidential elections and to prescribe the "Manner" by which the Commonwealth "appoints [Presidential] Electors." U.S. Const. art. II, § 1, cl. 2; McPherson v. Blacker, 146 U.S. 1, 27 (1892).

These two constitutional provisions "expressly vest[] power to carry out [their] provisions in 'the Legislature' of each State, a deliberate choice [courts] must respect." Moore, 600 U.S. at 34. Thus, "state courts do not have free rein" in interpreting or applying state constitutions to election laws passed by the state legislatures. Id.; accord id. at 39 (Kavanaugh, J., concurring). State courts cannot "impermissibly distort[]" state law "beyond what a fair reading required." Bush, 531 U.S. at 115 (Rehnquist, C.J., concurring); accord Moore, 600 U.S. at 39 (Kavanaugh, J., concurring) (endorsing this standard); id. at 34-36 (holding that federal courts must review state courts' treatment of election laws passed by state legislatures regulating federal elections).

Control No · 24095

The Pennsylvania Supreme Court has already held that the General Assembly's date requirement is mandatory. Ball, 289 A.3d at 20-23. It has also declined two invitations to wield the Free and Equal Elections Clause to invalidate the date requirement or declare it non-mandatory. See supra Part II.A. And as established, there is no support in the Clause's text or history, Pennsylvania case-law, precedents interpreting analogous state constitutional provisions, or federal constitutional law for invalidating the date requirement. See supra Parts II.A-C. Doing so anyway would "transgress the ordinary bounds of judicial review such that [the court would be] arrogat[ing] to [itself] the power vested in [the] state legislature[] to regulate federal elections." Moore, 600 U.S. at 36. That action therefore would violate the U.S. Constitution and only lead to potential review by the U.S. Supreme Court.

E. Declaring The Date Requirement Unconstitutional Would Strike Act 77 And Universal Mail Voting In Pennsylvania.

Finally, if this Court were to accept Petitioners' argument that the date requirements of 25 P.S. §§ 3145.6(a) and 3150.16(a) are unconstitutional, it would necessarily mean striking universal mail voting in Pennsylvania.

Act 77 states that: "Sections 1, 2, 3, 3.2, 4, 5, 5.1, 6, 7, 8, 9 and 12 of this act are nonseverable. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remaining provisions or applications of this act are void." Act 77 § 11. The date requirement is part of the creation of universal mail voting established in section 8, which means that invalidation of the date requirement would have the effect of invalidating the entirety of the Act.

This point was specifically addressed by Justice Brobson, who noted that the question remains open. See McLinko, 279 A.3d at 609-610 (Brobson, J., dissenting). Judge Wojcik also addressed this issue in his partial dissent in McClinko v. Dep't of State, 270 A.3d 1243, 1277-78

R0081 Case ID: 240902481 Control No.: 24095206 (Pa. Commw. Ct. 2022) (Wojcik, J., dissenting in part) ("Section 11 of Act 77 contains a 'poison pill' that would invalidate all of Act 77's provisions if this Court determines that any of its provisions are invalid... [t]hus, if the no-excuse mail-in provisions of Act 77 are found to be unconstitutional, all of Act 77's provisions are void.").

Such a result would be a necessary outcome, given that "[a]s a general matter, nonseverability provisions are constitutionally proper." Id. at 1278 (quoting Stilp v. Commonwealth, 905 A.2d 918, 978 (Pa. 2006)). That is especially true where non-severability provisions legitimately arise from "the concerns and compromises which animate the legislative process." Stilp, 905 A.2d at 978. Here, there is considerable evidence that the non-severability provision in Act 77 was an important reason the bill was passed. Both the Democratic sponsor of Act 77 and the Republican Senate Majority Leader described Act 77 as a politically difficult compromise. See 2019 Pa. Legislative Journal–Senate 1000 (Oct. 29, 2019); id. at 1002. The non-severability provision helped reassure legislators that their parts of the bargain would be not be discarded by courts while their concessions remained in place. Consider the following colloquy on the House floor involving State Government Committee Chair Garth Everett:

Mrs. DAVIDSON. Thank you.

My second question has to do with the severability clause. It is my understanding that the bill says that the Supreme Court will have exclusive jurisdiction over challenges to elimination of straight-party voting, absentee voting, and mail-in voting. Then I also understand it also reads that the provisions of the bill will be nonseverable. So is that to mean that if somebody wants to challenge whether or not they were discriminated against because they did not have a ballot in braille, would they be able to – would that be a suit that they could bring to the Supreme Court under the severability clause?

Mr. EVERETT. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

There is a nonseverability clause, and there is also the section that you mentioned that gives the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania jurisdiction, because the intent of this is that this bill works together, that it not be divided up into parts, and there is also a provision that the desire is, and of course, that could be probably gotten around legally, but that suits be brought within 180 days so that we can settle everything before this would take effect. So those are the provisions that have to do with nonseverability.

R0082

Case ID: 240902481

Mrs. DAVIDSON. So in effect, if a suit was brought to the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania and they found it to be unconstitutional, it would eliminate the entire bill because it cannot be severed.

Mr. EVERETT. Yes; that would be just in those sections that have been designated as nonseverable.

Mrs. DAVIDSON. All right. Thank you.

2019 Pa. Legislative Journal—House 1740-41 (Oct. 29, 2019).

It is thus clear that Act 77's non-severability provision arises from "the concerns and compromises which animate the legislative process." Stilp, 905 A.2d at 978. Thus, if the Court grants the relief requested by Petitioners and holds that application of the date requirement is unconstitutional, then by its own terms, Act 77 in its entirety—and the system of "no excuse" mail-in voting currently available to all Pennsylvania voters—must be stricken as well.

II. THE COURT CANNOT GRANT RELIEF TO PETITIONERS.

This Court can and should reject the Petition under binding precedent. But if it deems the date requirement's constitutionality somehow unsettled, it cannot grant relief. This is true for several reasons.

First, factual development would be necessary to grant the Petition. The Petition asserts that the General Assembly's date requirement is "meaningless." Pet. ¶ 4. Proposed Intervenor-Respondents strongly disagree. See supra Part I.C.2. This is a factual dispute that cannot be resolved without record development.

Petitioners assert that other courts have found that the date requirement serves no function. See Pet. ¶ 4. This is false. The federal-court cases Petitioners cite dealt not with right-to-vote arguments, but with challenges under a federal statute (the Materiality Provision). See Pa. State R0083 Case ID: 240902481 Control No.: 24095206 Conf. of NAACP v. Schmidt, 703 F. Supp. 3d 632, 668 (W.D. Pa. 2023), rev'd 97 F.4th 120; Pa. State Conf. of NAACP Branches v. Schmidt, 97 F.4th 120 (3d Cir. 2024) (rejecting challenges to date requirement). Statements respecting the date requirement are thus passing dictum, as they were irrelevant to the Third Circuit's holding. See, e.g., In re Nat'l Football League Players Concussion Inj. Litig., 775 F.3d 570, 583 n.18 (3d Cir. 2014). Indeed, it is apparent those courts did not give "full and careful consideration" to this point. Id. After all, they did not address the State's interest in documenting the date the voter completed the ballot as part of trustworthy election administration or as a back-up for scanning errors or SURE system malfunctions. See Migliori, 36 F.4th at 165 (Matey, J., concurring in judgment). They also did not address the State's interest in solemnity. See Pa. State Conf. of NAACP, 97 F.4th at 125. And the Third Circuit did not address the State's interest in deterring and detecting fraud or even mention the Mihaliak case, see id., while the district court offered a footnote saying evidence of fraud was "irrelevant" under the Materiality Provision, 703 F.Supp.3d at 679 n.39. And the vacated Commonwealth Court decision Petitioners cite erroneously relied on those inapt federal cases, see Black Political Empowerment Project, 2024 WL 4002321, at *32, all without allowing 65 county boards of elections to participate and contribute to a record regarding the date requirement's functions.

Second, the other 66 county boards of elections must be allowed to participate in this case. The Pennsylvania Supreme Court already recognized that those county boards have interests in this case and must be joined. See Exhibit A at 1. It is therefore bewildering that Petitioners, represented by the same counsel who failed to join the other county boards just weeks ago, repeat the same reversible error.

Nor is this an empty formality. The other county boards may wish to participate in the development of a factual record about the date requirement. Some county boards have vigorously defended the date requirement in parallel federal litigation. See, e.g., Pa. State Conf. of NAACP, 703 F. Supp. 3d at 643-44 (noting defenses by Lancaster and Berks County Boards). They should be given the chance to do so here.

Case ID: 240902

Control No · 24095

R0084

Third, this Court cannot enter relief before the imminent and ongoing 2024 general election. Some county boards have already sent out mail ballots for the 2024 general election. See 25 P.S. § 3146.2a. Jeopardizing the enforceability of the date requirement would unleash voter confusion," "chaos," Kuznik, 902 A.2d at 504-07, and an erosion of the public "[c]onfidence in the integrity of our electoral processes [that] is essential to the functioning of participatory democracy," Purcell, 549 U.S. at 4.

Chaos would be inevitable. There would be rushed appeals to the Pennsylvania Supreme Court and, potentially, the U.S. Supreme Court. See, e.g., Republican Party of Pa. v. Boockvar, 141 S. Ct. 643 (2020) (equally divided vote in October, 2020 on whether to stay Pennsylvania Supreme Court rule change). The date requirement—which has already bounced in and out of effect repeatedly over the last few election cycles, would likely be put back into effect, confusing voters. At the same time, a judicial order barring enforcement of something as mundane and commonsensical as the date requirement would undermine public confidence in the integrity of Pennsylvania's elections and Pennsylvania's courts. See, e.g., Democratic Nat'l Comm. v. Wis. State Legislature, 141 S. Ct. 28, 29 (2020) ("Last-minute changes to longstanding election rules risk other problems too, inviting confusion and chaos and eroding public confidence in electoral outcomes.").

But it would be worse than that—much worse. If this Court holds that the date requirement is unconstitutional, the Philadelphia County Board of Elections would presumably comply with that order for the 2024 general election. But no other county board would be bound to comply with this Court's order. In fact, the other county boards would be obliged to follow the Pennsylvania Supreme Court's prior order in Ball, which ordered the county boards to comply with the date requirement in 2022, see 284 A.3d at 1189, just as Commissioner Bluestein understood in this case. See Pet. ¶ 50. That means that different counties would apply different standards for determining the validity of mail ballots—in violation of the U.S. Equal Elections Clause and the Pennsylvania Constitution.

Control No · 24095

Under the Equal Protection Clause of the U.S. Constitution, a "State may not, by [] arbitrary and disparate treatment, value one person's vote over that of another." Bush, 531 U.S. at 104-05. Accordingly, at least where a "statewide" rule governs, such as in a statewide election, there must be "adequate statewide standards for determining what is a legal vote, and practicable procedures to implement them." Id. at 109-10. Courts cannot order different "counties [to] use[] varying standards to determine what [constitutes] a legal vote." Id. at 107.

Yet that is precisely what this Court would be doing if it grants Petitioners' requested relief. Such an order would result in "varying standards to determine what [is] a legal vote" from "county to county" and be improper. See id. at 106-07.

Such an order would also violate the Pennsylvania Constitution, which decrees that "[a]ll laws regulating the holding of elections . . . shall be uniform throughout the State." Pa. Const. art. VII, § 6. The Free and Equal Elections Clause's mandate of "free and equal" elections, id. art. I, § 5, likewise prohibits discrimination against voters "based on considerations of the region of the state in which [voters] live[]," League of Women Voters, 178 A.3d at 808, and requires election rules to "treat[] all voters alike" and "in the same way under similar circumstances," Winston, 91 A. at 523. The Election Code, moreover, requires that elections be "uniformly conducted" throughout the Commonwealth. 25 P.S. § 2642(g). If this Court enters relief now, during an ongoing election, all these state-law commands would be violated.

The Pennsylvania Supreme Court could have adjudicated Petitioners' current arguments before the 2024 elections, but it chose not to do so. See Black Political Empowerment Project, Sept. 13, 2024 Order 1. This Court should follow that court's lead. Instead of rushing to judgement and unleashing chaos on the Commonwealth, the Court should adhere to normal procedures, allow proper factual development, allow all interested parties to participate, and withhold a decision until well after the imminent and ongoing 2024 elections.

V. CONCLUSION

For all of these reasons, Petitioners' Petition for Review in the Nature of a Statutory Appeal should be dismissed.

STATEMENT OF INTEREST OF AMICI CURIAE¹

Amici Curiae, Republican Leader of the Pennsylvania House of Representatives Bryan Cutler, President Pro Tempore of the Pennsylvania Senate Kim Ward, and Majority Leader of the Pennsylvania Senate Joe Pittman (collectively the "Legislative Leaders" or "Amici Curiae") hereby file this amici curiae brief pursuant to Pennsylvania Rule of Appellate Procedure 531(b)(1)(i) in opposition to Petitioners' (and Intervenor-Petitioners') Cross-Application for Summary Relief ("Petitioners' Application") and in support of Intervenor-Respondents' Cross-Application for Summary Relief ("Respondents' Application").

This case concerns the constitutionality of important election laws enacted by the Pennsylvania General Assembly (the "General Assembly"), including the Legislative Leaders. The provisions challenged here have been the subject of numerous disparate challenges, under a plethora of legal theories, over the past several election cycles. The Legislative Leaders have either moved to intervene or filed an amicus curiae brief in a number of these cases.

The Legislative Leaders possess a strong legal interest in protecting their exclusive authority, as legislators in the General Assembly, to enact—or repeal legislation concerning the administration of elections in Pennsylvania, a role which ¹ No party's counsel authored any part of this brief. No person other than Amici and their counsel contributed any money intended to fund the preparation or submission of this brief.

Petitioners ask this Court to usurp. Accordingly, the Legislative Leaders file this amici curiae brief to bring issues to this Court's attention about which they possess both a heightened interest and unique viewpoint.

SUMMARY OF ARGUMENT

In their latest attack on the Commonwealth's democratically-enacted Election Code, Petitioners, who plainly lack standing to bring this action in the first place² and are represented by the same counsel who have already unsuccessfully challenged this statute on numerous grounds, now seek yet another bite at the apple. This time, Petitioners challenge on state constitutional grounds Election Code provisions that require voters submitting an absentee or mail-in ballot to "date and sign" their ballot return envelope. Petitioners blithely (and contrary to numerous recent judicial pronouncements of Pennsylvania and federal courts³) insist that this ² "[T]he right to vote is personal" and the rights sought to be vindicated in a challenge are "personal and individual." Albert v. 2001 Legis. Reapportionment Comm'n, 790 A.2d 989, 995 (Pa. 2002) (quoting Reynolds v. Sims, 377 U.S. 533, 554–55 (1964)). When "the right to vote and the right to have one's vote counted is the subject matter of a . . . challenge," then "any entity not authorized by law to exercise the right to vote in this Commonwealth lacks standing." Id. at 994–95; see also Erfer v. Commonwealth, 794 A.2d 325, 330 (Pa. 2002) (dismissing Democratic Committee); Order ¶ 4, League of Women Voters of Pa. v. Commonwealth, No. 261 M.D. 2017 (Pa. Commw. Ct. filed Nov. 13, 2017) (Exhibit 1) (dismissing one of the petitioners here, the League of Women Voters of Pennsylvania, because it was not authorized by law to exercise the right to vote in the Commonwealth). Here, none of Petitioners has standing since, as entities and not individual voters, they all lack the right to vote. Moreover, the harm alleged by Petitioners is based entirely on the belief that some voters could forget to sign their ballot envelopes. This is not an "immediate" interest, it is, at best, "remote" and "speculative." See, e.g., Pittsburgh Palisades Park, LLC v. Commonwealth, 888 A.2d 655, 660 (Pa. 2005).

requirement serves no purpose whatsoever and therefore violates the Free and Equal Election Clause of the Pennsylvania Constitution.

Their claim fails for a host of reasons. Every prior case finding a violation of the Free and Equal Elections Clause implicated the right to vote, whereas the dating requirement is merely one of many ballot-casting rules voters must follow, and it neither takes away, nor burdens so as to take away, the right to vote. The history of the Free and Equal Election Clause shows that it was designed to prevent discrimination against groups of Pennsylvanians, but the dating requirement applies to all voters and does not single out any geographic, political or other group. Petitioners are not entitled to strict scrutiny of the statutes in question, and they cannot overcome the strong judicial presumption that the dating requirement is constitutional.

Moreover, Act 77, which includes the rule Petitioners now criticize, was actually a historic expansion of voting rights. Continued debate within the General Assembly—along with the election law jurisprudence of Pennsylvania and federal courts—demonstrate that this question should be resolved by the legislature as a policy matter, not the judiciary.

As such, this Court should grant Respondents' Application and deny Petitioners' Applications.

BACKGROUND

The Pennsylvania Constitution provides that "[e]lections shall be free and equal; and no power, civil or military, shall at any time interfere to prevent the free exercise of the right of suffrage." PA. CONST. art. I, § 5 ("Free and Equal Elections Clause"). A prototype of this edict originally appeared in Pennsylvania's first organic charter of governance, adopted in 1776. League of Women Voters of Pa. v. Commonwealth, 178 A.3d 737, 804 (Pa. 2018) ("LWV"). The current iteration, "which has remained unchanged to this day by the people of this Commonwealth," was added to the 1790 Constitution. Id. at 808. Despite this near-quarter-millennium history, few cases have been brought under it, and even fewer such challenges were successful.

In an early case applying the provision, the Pennsylvania Supreme Court elaborated that:

[E]lections are free and equal within the meaning of the Constitution when they are public and open to all qualified electors alike; when every voter has the same right as every other voter; when each voter under the law has the right to cast his ballot and have it honestly counted; when the regulation of the right to exercise the franchise does not deny the franchise itself, or make it so difficult as to amount to a denial; and when no constitutional right of the qualified elector is subverted or denied him.

Winston v. Moore, 91 A. 520, 523 (Pa. 1914). More recently, the Pennsylvania Supreme Court summarized "the actual and plain language of" the clause is to "mandate[] that all voters have an equal opportunity to translate their votes into representation." LWV at 804. (emphasis added).

This history shows that the dating requirement Petitioners challenge is not inconsistent with the history, meaning, and intent of the Free and Equal Election Clause. "Each and every Pennsylvania voter must have the same free and equal opportunity to select his or her representatives." LWV at 814 (emphasis in original). As explained below, the dating requirement does not violate this fundamental precept.

ARGUMENT

I. The Dating Requirement Is Presumptively Constitutional.

A. The Dating Requirement Does Not "Clearly, Palpably and Plainly" Violate the Constitution.

A bedrock principle of judicial review in Pennsylvania is the "judicial presumption that our sister branches take seriously their constitutional oaths." Stilp v. Commonwealth, 905 A.2d 918, 938-39 (Pa. 2006). "It is well settled that a statute is presumed to be constitutional and will not be declared unconstitutional unless it clearly, palpably and plainly violates the constitution." Purple Orchid v. Pa. State Police, 813 A.2d 801, 805 (Pa. 2002) (internal citations omitted) (emphasis added). Because of this high standard, "the party challenging the constitutionality of a statute has a heavy burden of persuasion." Id. For the reasons discussed below, the dating requirement is constitutional, and Petitioners have not come close to meeting their

"heavy burden" of showing that the dating requirement "clearly, palpably and plainly violates the constitution." Id.

B. The Dating Requirement Is Not Subject to Strict Scrutiny Review.

Petitioners argue that the dating requirement for absentee and mail-in ballots should be subject to strict scrutiny. But this presupposes that the dating requirement "burdens" and "interferes with" the right to vote in the first place. (Pet'rs' App. for Prelim. Inj. at 14.) It does not.

Petitioners rely on In re Nomination of Berg, 712 A.2d 340, 342 (Pa. Commw. Ct. 1998), aff'd, 713 A.2d 1106 (Pa. 1998), to argue that "laws which affect a fundamental right, such as the right to vote . . . are subject to strict scrutiny" (emphasis added). But the Berg Court actually "declined to employ the strict scrutiny standard of review on the ground that no fundamental rights were affected by" the challenged requirement. Berg, 713 A.2d at 1106. That is because merely "affecting" a right is not enough—"a discriminatory law must have a real and appreciable impact on voters' rights before the strict scrutiny test of reasonable necessity would be applied in the challenge." Cavanaugh v. Shaeffer, 444 A.2d 1308, 1311 (Pa. Commw. Ct. 1982) (citing Bullock v. Carter, 405 U.S. 134, 144 (1972) (emphasis added)); see also William Penn Sch. Dist. v. Pa. Dep't of Educ., 170 A.3d 414, 458 (Pa. 2017) ("[W]here a suspect classification has been made or a fundamental right has been burdened, another standard of review is applied: that of strict scrutiny."). This Court has even gone as far to say that "[o]nly where a law imposes a severe burden on the right to vote is it subject to strict scrutiny." Working Families Party v. Commonwealth, 169 A.3d 1247, 1257 n. 22 (Pa. Commw. Ct. 2017) (citing Burdick v. Takushi, 504 U.S. 428, 434 (1992) (emphasis added)).

Far from being a "burden" or having a "real and appreciable impact on voters' rights" (much less a "severe" one), writing the date on the ballot envelope as part of the voter declaration is one of the easiest steps in the entire voting processsignificantly easier than finding a mailbox or drop box at which to deposit a ballot and little more burdensome than licking (or peeling and sticking) the flap of the envelope. Insisting that this minor procedural step—which completed Pennsylvanians are asked to do any time they sign a contract, write a check, fill out a form, pick their child up early from school or in countless other everyday situations—is a "burden" betrays an especially low view of voters. Indeed, another court recently "conclude[d] that the burden imposed by the handwritten date requirement is slight" Migliori v. Lehigh Cnty. Bd. of Elections, No. 5:22-cv-00397, 2022 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 46352, at *24 (E.D. Pa. Mar. 16, 2022) (rejecting a strict scrutiny standard and considering only whether Pennsylvania has "important regulatory interests . . . to justify the restrictions").⁴

The dating requirement is also far less burdensome and impactful than other challenged election procedures that were not subjected to strict scrutiny analysis. For example, in Berg, the Petitioner challenged Pennsylvania's requirement that prospective gubernatorial candidates obtain 100 signatures from ten counties on their nominating petition. Berg, 712 A.2d at 340. A similar requirement for state Supreme Court candidates was previously challenged in Cavanaugh v. Shaeffer, 444 A.2d at 1308. In both cases, this Court concluded that the ballot access requirements did not have a "real and appreciable impact" on the right to vote and therefore applied the rational basis test, rather than strict scrutiny. Berg, 713 A.2d at 1109 (quoting Cavanaugh, 444 A.2d at 1311).

The only election case Petitioners identify where strict scrutiny applied is this Court's unreported decision in Applewhite v. Commonwealth, No. 330 M.D.2012, 2014 Pa. Commw. Unpub. LEXIS 756 (Pa. Commw. Ct. Jan. 17, 2014), challenging the implementation of Pennsylvania's 2012 voter identification law. While a voter identification requirement is itself constitutional, the Applewhite court found issues with PennDOT's implementation of the law. In that case, the court applied strict scrutiny analysis only after it found that "[h]undreds of thousands of electors in Pennsylvania lack[ed] compliant photo ID" and concluded that the law would have "the effect of disenfranchising them through no fault of their own" because PennDOT had failed to create a process allowing these hundreds of thousands of potential voters to obtain sufficient identification in time to be able to vote. Id. at *54. Effectively disenfranchising voters through no fault of their own is not the situation here; instead, at worst, an "individual's vote [may not be] counted because he or she did not follow the rules for casting a ballot," which is not a denial of "the right to vote." Ritter v. Migliori, 142 S.Ct. 1824, 1825 (2022) (Alito, J., dissenting) (emphasis added). "Even the most permissive voting rules must contain some requirements, and the failure to follow those rules constitutes the forfeiture of the right to vote, not the denial of that right." Id. (emphasis added).

Petitioners naturally wish for this Court to jump straight to strict scrutiny review, which is legendarily "strict in theory, but fatal in fact." Gerald Gunther, The Supreme Court, 1971 Term-Forward: In Search of Evolving Doctrine on a Changing Court: A Model for a Newer Equal Protection, 86 HARV. L. REV. 1, 8 (1972). But they have not explained how writing a date imposes a "severe" burden or real and appreciable impact on the right to vote. Instead, this Court should follow the practical wisdom of our Supreme Court in Berg that "[t]o subject every voting regulation to strict scrutiny . . . would tie the hands of states seeking to assure that elections are operated equitably and efficiently." 713 A.2d at 1109.

II. The Dating Requirement Does Not Abridge Any Voter's Right to Participate in the Electoral Process.

The Free and Equal Election Clause permits reasonable election administration regulations, if those regulations do not impair or unduly burden the right to vote itself. See LWV at 809. The dating requirement falls squarely within this permissible category, a reasonable regulation directing the manner of exercising the right to vote. It is a minor procedural requirement that does not prevent any eligible voter from casting one's ballot or having one's vote counted if the voter complies. The requirement applies equally to all absentee and mail-in voters, without discriminating against any particular group or class of voters.

A. The Dating Requirement Does Not Impair Anyone's Right To Vote or Make Voting So Difficult as to Amount to a Denial.

Petitioners correctly frame the Free and Equal Elections Clause as "establish[ing] the right to vote as a fundamental individual right." (Pet'rs' App. for Prelim. Inj. at 1 (emphasis added)). As the Pennsylvania Supreme Court observed (and to which Petitioners also cite), the Free and Equal Elections Clause "strike[s] ... at all regulations of law which shall impair the right of suffrage," and when legal voters are "denied the right to vote, the election is not free and equal." LWV at 809, 813 n.71 (emphasis added).

But "[e]ven the most permissive voting rules must contain some requirements, and the failure to follow those rules constitutes the forfeiture of the right to vote, not the denial of that right." Ritter v. Migliori, 142 S.Ct. at 1825 (Alito, J., dissenting) (emphasis added). This is precisely why the Third Circuit recently concluded that the "individuals are not 'denied' the 'right to vote' if non-compliant ballots [lacking a date] are not counted." NAACP, 97 F.4th at 135.5 While arising in the context of the Materiality Provision, the Third Circuit nonetheless centered its analysis specifically on whether the "date and sign" requirement impaired the right to vote, ultimately concluding that there was "no authority that the 'right to vote' encompasses the right to have a ballot counted that is defective under state law." Id. at 133; see also Ball, 289 A.3d at 22 ("[F]ailure to comply with the date requirement would render a ballot invalid in any election after 2020. Pennsylvania's candidates, electors, and local officials therefore were on notice that ballots must be dated, and that failure to provide a date would result in disqualification."); Vote.org v. Callanen, 39 F.4th 297, 305 n.6 (5th Cir. 2022) ("It cannot be that any requirement that may prohibit an individual from voting if the individual fails to comply denies the right of that individual to vote under § 1971. Otherwise, virtually every rule governing how citizens vote . . . is suspect.").

Indeed, just as multiple federal courts have agreed that the "date and sign" requirement does not deny the "right to vote" for purposes of the Civil Rights Act, the same holds true for purposes of the Pennsylvania Constitution, where our Courts have universally held that a violation would require the right to vote to be impaired.

⁵ NAACP is the latest of a series of cases concerning whether the "date and sign" requirement violated the Materiality Provision of the Federal Civil Rights Act, which provides that "[n]o person acting under color of law shall . . . deny the right of any individual to vote in any election because of an error or omission . . . if such error or omission is not material in determining whether such individual is qualified under State law to vote in such election." 52 U.S.C. § 10101(a)(2)(B) (emphasis added).

The history of Free and Equal Elections Clause cases makes this plain. In two such cases, election deadlines were extended when a natural disaster or emergency was found to impede voters' ability to timely cast their ballots. See Pa. Democratic Party v. Boockvar, 238 A.3d 345 (Pa. 2020); In re General Election-1985, 531 A.2d 836, 838-39 (Pa. Commw. Ct. 1987). In these instances, the courts concluded that the original election deadlines would have made voting "so difficult as to amount to a denial" of the right to vote. Winston v. Moore, 91 A. at 523.

The other applications of the Free and Equal Elections Clause arose in the contexts of voting districts that either explicitly or implicitly denied certain Pennsylvanians their right to vote. In the early 20th century, a new school district was created that overlapped with the boundaries of two existing school districts. See In re New Britain Borough Sch. Dist., 145 A. 597 (Pa. 1929). The Pennsylvania Supreme Court found that residents of the two former school districts would "be deprived of their right to vote for school directors as allowed in all other fourth-class districts." Id. at 599 (emphasis added). A similar result came when the legislative redistricting act of 1937 excluded 10 municipalities from any legislative district, obviously resulting in voters in those communities being "deprived of the right to vote for a representative in the General Assembly." Shoemaker v. Lawrence, 31 Pa. D.&C. 681, 686 (Dauphin Co. C.C.P. 1938) (emphasis added).

More recently, the Pennsylvania Supreme Court struck down the General Assembly's 2011 congressional redistricting plan on the basis that it allegedly "subordinate[d] the traditional redistricting criteria in service of achieving unfair partisan advantage," which would "undermine[] voters' ability to exercise their right to vote in free and 'equal' elections." LWV at 821.

Contrary to these determinations, which were based on an abridgement of the right to vote, every eligible Pennsylvania voter currently "has the right to cast his [or her] ballot". Winston, 91 A. at 523; see also Ritter, 142 S.Ct. at 1825 ("When a mail-in ballot is not counted because it was not filled out correctly, the voter is not denied 'the right to vote.' Rather, that individual's vote is not counted because he or she did not follow the rules for casting a ballot."). Nor does the dating requirement "deny the franchise itself, or make it so difficult as to amount to a denial." Winston, 91 A. at 523. Instead, the dating requirement is an exceptionally easy step to complete that does not impose any significant additional burden on voters beyond the other steps they must already take to complete and return their ballot. Voters must already fill out and sign the declaration on the envelope, which includes other attestations and identifying information. The simple step of writing the date on the envelope does not meaningfully increase the burden or complexity of the process.

The dating requirement does not deny Pennsylvanians their right to vote (or make voting so difficult as to effectively impair the right), nor preclude them from having their ballot counted if they record the date on it; thus the requirement falls outside the ambit of what is proscribed by the Free and Equal Elections Clause.

B. Compliance with the Dating Requirement is a Choice Entirely Within Voters' Personal Control.

Another key difference between the dating requirement and election laws that have been found to violate the Free and Equal Elections Clause is the role of voters' own agency. That is, voters themselves possess the capacity to control whether they will satisfy the dating requirement when casting their ballot. This makes the dating requirement no different from all the other implicit and explicit requirements of casting a ballot, ranging from the trivial (like finding a pen to fill out the bubbles) to the substantive (like returning the ballot on time to the correct location). As Justice Alito has noted:

A registered voter who does not follow the rules may be unable to cast a vote for any number of reasons. A voter may go to the polling place on the wrong day or after the polls have closed. A voter may go to the wrong polling place and may not have time to reach the right place before it is too late. A voter who casts a mail-in ballot may send it to the wrong address.

Ritter, 142 S.Ct. at 1825 (Alito, J., dissenting). All of these mistakes (which, as discussed supra Part II.A, "constitute[] the forfeiture of the right to vote, not the denial of that right," id.) are within voters' own control, subject to their own agency.

Conversely, where statutes have been found to violate the Free and Equal Elections Clause, it is because they operated to dilute or disenfranchise voters independent of the voters' own best efforts to exercise the franchise. As noted in Part II.A, Pennsylvania courts postponed election deadlines in 1985 and 2020 on account of natural disasters and emergencies. In those instances, the courts suspended clear requirements of the Election Code where those emergencies – outside of the control of the voter – allegedly would have prevented voter compliance. See, e.g., Pa. Democratic Party, 238 A.3d at 371 (concluding that "the timelines built into the Election Code cannot be met by the USPS's current delivery standards"). Voting districts struck down in other decisions would have either eliminated (in the case of New Britain Borough School District and Shoemaker) or diluted (in the case of LWV) the ability for voters to select representatives of their choosing, no matter how carefully voters followed the rules.

Thus, the dating requirement fundamentally differs from other enactments that were held to have violated the Free and Equal Elections Clause, which all involved impairments to voting that voters could not overcome.

C. The Dating Requirement Does Not Discriminate Against or Unduly Burden Certain Voters.

Not only does the dating requirement not impede any individual Pennsylvanian's right to vote, it also does not benefit (or hinder) any group of voters. This is especially relevant in light of the history of the Free and Equal Elections Clause, which was first introduced to the Pennsylvania Constitution following a century of economic, religious and ethnic factionalism and a bloody revolution against a heavy-handed British Crown. See LWV, 178 A.3d at 804-08. The Free and Equal Elections Clause should thus be "viewed against the backdrop of . . . intense and seemingly unending regional, ideological, and sectarian strife" as an attempt to end "the dilution of the right of the people of this Commonwealth to select representatives" of their choosing. Id. at 808-09. Charles Buckalew, a delegate to Pennsylvania's 1873 Constitutional Convention, explained that the intent of the Free and Equal Elections Clause was to "exclude not only all invidious discriminations between individual electors, or classes of electors, but also between different sections or places in the State." Charles R. Buckalew, An Examination of the Constitution of Pennsylvania: Exhibiting The Derivation and History of Its Several Provisions, Article I at 10 (1883); see also LWV, 178 A.3d at 809 (explaining that the Pennsylvania Supreme Court "has ascribed the same expansive meaning to the terms 'free and equal' in Article I, Section 5" as Buckalew).

But unlike other legislative enactments that violated the Free and Equal Elections Clause, the dating requirement does not disfavor any particular geographic, economic, religious, ethnic, regional, ideological or partisan faction. Far from discriminating against any voter "on the basis of his or her particular beliefs or view," LWV, 178 A.3d at 809, or based on the "sections or places in the State" where they live, Buckalew, An Examination of the Constitution of Pennsylvania, supra, "[e]very voter is treated alike" by the ballot signature requirement, "[e]very voter has the same right as any other voter, and every voter has the right to cast his ballot and have it counted," Commonwealth ex rel. Jones v. King, 5 Pa. D.&.C. 515, 518 (Dauphin Co. C.C.P. 1924).

In fact, Pennsylvania courts have rejected challenges under the Free and Equal Elections Clause when the challenged law applies equally to all voters. See, e.g., Working Families Party v. Commonwealth, 209 A.3d 270, 282 (Pa. 2019) (upholding that Pennsylvania's "anti-fusion" statutes because minority party supporters had "the same right as every other voter"); City Council of Bethlehem v. Marcincin, 515 A.2d 1320, 1324 (Pa. 1986) (upholding a term limits ordinance because it "neither 'denies the franchise' to the electors nor dilutes the vote of any segment of the constituency"); Shankey v. Staisey, 257 A.2d 897, 899 (Pa. 1969) (upholding a ballot access statute because "minority party candidates and their supporters" had to "secure the same showing of public support before being put on the ballot as required by a majority party candidate"); King, 5 Pa. D.&.C. at 518 (upholding a ballot access law because "[e]very voter is treated alike").

In light of this history, this Court should reject Petitioners' claim, because the dating requirement does not single out any particular group based on their geography, partisan leaning or other affiliation, but instead applies to all voters equally.

III. The Legislative History of the Dating Requirement Further Belies Petitioners' Arguments.

Courts have consistently recognized that state legislatures have a legitimate interest in enacting reasonable procedural requirements to ensure the integrity and reliability of the electoral process. See, e.g., Crawford v. Marion Cty. Election Bd., 553 U.S. 181, 196 (2008) (upholding voter ID law as a reasonable procedural requirement to deter fraud and promote public confidence in elections). While "those enactments are nonetheless subject to the requirements of the Free and Equal Elections Clause," id., as explained above, the dating requirement is a reasonable and non-discriminatory regulation of the electoral process that does not deprive any Pennsylvanian of the right to vote. The requirement falls well within the General Assembly's plenary authority to establish procedures for the orderly and secure administration of elections clause.

A. The Legislative History of Act 77 Demonstrates a Clear Commitment by the General Assembly to Free and Equal Elections.

Petitioners argue that the dating requirement enacted by the General Assembly curtails voting rights, but in reality, the General Assembly is responsible for the most significant voting expansion in the Commonwealth in a generation.

The dating requirement has a long history as a part of the Commonwealth's Election Code. Originally, absentee voting was limited to military voters. It was then extended to the general public in 1963. See Act No. 37, Session of 1963, Pub. L. No. 707, § 22. Even then, absentee voting was only permitted for those with a statutorily-defined reason for doing so, such as a physical disability or absence from their municipality on Election Day. See 25 P.S. § 3146.1. In order to cast an absentee ballot, a Pennsylvania voter was required to provide a permissible reason to do so and would have to return his or her absentee ballot no later than 5:00 PM on the Friday before the election. Id.

Since that 1963 enactment, the procedure for completing and submitting an absentee ballot has remained consistent. In particular, after marking his or her ballot, a Pennsylvania absentee voter must:

[F]old the ballot, enclose and securely seal the same in the envelope on which is printed, stamped or endorsed 'Official Election Ballot.' This envelope shall then be placed in the second one, on which is printed the form of declaration of the elector . . . The elector shall then fill out, date and sign the declaration printed on such envelope. Such envelope shall then be securely sealed and the elector shall send same by mail . . . or deliver it in person to said county board of election.

25 P.S. § 3146.6(a) (emphasis added).

In 2019, the General Assembly dramatically expanded the ability for Pennsylvanians to vote by mail. Rather than the limited eligibility to vote by absentee ballot, the General Assembly created a new category of "no excuse" mailin voting through Act 77. For reasons including simplicity of legislative drafting, consistency with other non-in-person ballot forms, and familiarity for voters, Act 77 maintained identical procedures for filling out, dating and signing the ballot return envelope for no-excuse mail-in ballots that had always applied with respect to absentee ballots. Compare 25 P.S. § 3150.16(a) (procedure for mail-in ballots) with 25 P.S. § 3146.6(a) (procedure for absentee ballots).

In addition, the traditional voting options were maintained by Act 77 and remain available for Pennsylvanians—voters may still request an absentee ballot if they have a statutorily permitted reason for doing so, or they may vote in-person on Election Day. See 25 P.S. § 3146.1; 25 P.S. § 3031.12. Far from making it harder to vote, the upshot of Act 77 was making it dramatically easier for Pennsylvanians to cast a ballot on or before election day.

B. The Legislative History After Act 77 Indicates the General Assembly Believes the Dating Requirement is Constitutional.

Following passage of Act 77 in 2019, the General Assembly has continued to propose, debate and vote upon additional changes to the Election Code. In particular, legislators have proposed a series of revisions to the dating requirement. Although no substantive changes to this requirement have become law, the General Assembly's continued consideration of such changes reveals a collective understanding that the dating requirement is constitutional and can only be modified or repealed by the General Assembly itself.

During the 2021-22 legislative term, during second consideration of HB 1800, Representative (now Speaker of the House) Joanna McClinton offered amendment

A2942, which would have provided that a "missing or inaccurate date on the declaration of the elector on the outer return envelope shall not be a fatal defect for the ballot." In support of her amendment she remarked that "[a] missing date or a missing outer envelope, an unsigned declaration—these things should not disenfranchise our neighbors who of course want to participate in the process of voting." See Pennsylvania Legislative Journal-House, Nov. 17, 2021, 1591-92. She also introduced HB 2090, a bill substantively similar to her amendment A2942, which would have also deemed "a missing or inaccurate date [on] an absentee or mail-in ballot shall not be a fatal defect for the ballot." House Bill 2090, Regular Session 2021-22.

During the current 2023-24 legislative term, Representative Scott Conklin introduced HB 847, which would provide that "[f]ailure to date the envelope . . . shall not disqualify the ballot if the declaration is otherwise properly executed." Amendment A2305, offered by Representative Malcolm Kenyatta to SB 224, would have the same effect, that "[a] missing or inaccurate date on the declaration of the elector . . . of an absentee or mail-in ballot shall not be a fatal defect for the ballot." And in the Senate, Senator Jim Brewster introduced SB 857, which would strike the dating requirement for mail-in ballots.

While none of these amendments or bills has yet become law, the fact they are being currently and actively proposed by members of the General Assembly provides an insight into contemporaneous legislative intent—that legislators from both parties, not just Amici, believe the dating requirement is a statutory question for policymakers, rather than a constitutional question for the judiciary. Otherwise, legislators would need not attempt to eliminate the requirement via statute; they could leave it to the courts (especially with respect to a requirement that has been the subject of a multitude of court challenges in recent years, of which Pennsylvania legislators are undoubtedly aware).

C. The Dating Requirement Serves a Clear Purpose as a Part of the General Assembly's Comprehensive Election Code.

Despite Petitioners' glib pronouncements to the contrary, numerous courts have recognized that the requirement that electors date and sign their absentee or mail-in ballot return envelope serves a variety of important election administration purposes. For example,

The date on the ballot envelope provides proof of when the "elector actually executed the ballot in full, ensuring their desire to cast it in lieu of appearing in person at a polling place. The presence of the date also establishes a point in time against which to measure the elector's eligibility to cast the ballot[.]" The date also ensures the elector completed the ballot within the proper time frame and prevents the tabulation of potentially fraudulent back-dated votes.

In re Canvass of Absentee and Mail-in Ballots of Nov. 3, 2020 Gen. Election, 241 A.3d 1058, 1079 (Pa. 2020) ("2020 Canvass") (Dougherty, J., concurring and dissenting) (citation omitted); see also Ritter v. Lehigh Cty. Bd. of Elections, No.

1322 C.D. 2021, 2022 Pa. Commw. Unpub. LEXIS 1, at *10-11 (Pa. Commw. Ct. Jan. 3, 2022) (same).

The Migliori District Court similarly concluded that these statutory provisions serve "an important public interest in the integrity of an election process that ensures fair, efficient, and fraud-free elections is served by compliance with the statute mandating the handwritten date requirement." Migliori, 2022 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 46352, at *38-39. And as Judge Leeson further observed:

An elector's compliance with the signature and date requirement is an important guard against fraud. Where an elector fully complies with the instructions on the outer envelope, the electoral authorities conducting the election can be assured of the date on which the ballot was executed. Where, however, the outer envelope remains undated, the possibility for fraud is heightened, as individuals who come in contact with that outer envelope may, post hoc, fill in a date that is not representative of the date on which the ballot was executed.

Id. at *38.

A practical example comes from a recent Lancaster County election fraud case concerning a mail-in ballot cast 12 days after a voter's death. There the date supplied on the ballot declaration was the only piece of evidence of fraud on the face of the ballot, and in conjunction with the Commonwealth's SURE system, the date on the ballot declaration helped to detect fraud. See Commonwealth v. Mihaliak, Docket Nos. MJ-02202-CR-000126-2022; CP-36-CR-0003315-2022.⁶

As the U.S. District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania previously concluded, "the Pennsylvania legislature 'weigh[ed] the pros and cons,' and adopted a broader system of 'no excuse' mail-in voting as part of the Commonwealth's Election Code." Donald J. Trump for President, Inc. v. Boockvar, 493 F. Supp. 3d 331, 395 (W.D. Pa. 2020) (citing Weber v. Shelley, 347 F.3d 1101, 1107 (9th Cir. 2003)). "And the key point is that the legislature made that judgment in the context of erecting a broader election scheme that authorizes other forms of voting and has many . . . safeguards in place to catch or deter fraud and other illegal voting practices." Id. at 396. "In this larger context, the Court cannot say that the balance Pennsylvania struck across the Election Code was unreasonable, illegitimate, or otherwise not 'sufficiently weighty to justify " Id.

Lastly, as noted in Part III.A above, the General Assembly mirrored the existing ballot return procedures for absentee ballots when crafting Act 77 to create no-excuse mail-in voting. Again, this was an intentional approach to minimize the complexities of legislative drafting, remain consistent with laws governing absentee ballot procedures, and maintain familiarity for voters wishing to take advantage of mail-in voting who may have previously cast an absentee ballot.

⁶ While Petitioners insist the date is rarely used by counties, an inference could be made that the lack of affirmative "use" of the date in prosecuting fraud is evidence that the date works to deter fraud in the first place, as opposed to being a mere "superfluous" requirement.

* * *

Therefore, given the General Assembly's well-recognized constitutional plenary power to prescribe the time, place, and manner of the Commonwealth's elections, the clear legislative mandate of what is required of the elector, and the election-administration purposes of the statute, the statute in question is an important part of Pennsylvania's Election Code that should be modified only by legislative enactment.

IV. Petitioners Should Not Be Permitted to Sow Election Chaos Through Their Cavalcade of Judicial Challenges or Intended Usurpation of the General Assembly.

Just as the rule of law is reinforced by the stability and predictability that come from adherence to legal precedent, consistency in voting procedures furthers public confidence in elections. Perpetual litigation, along with constantly shifting guidance from the Secretary of the Commonwealth over the dating requirement, conversely, serves only to raise doubts, and to confuse voters. To the extent voters are confused about the dating requirement, it is because they are now repeatedly told – six decades after expansion of absentee voting, including the dating requirement – that all of a sudden, it is unconstitutional.

Petitioners and their counsel should not be permitted to treat the Pennsylvania and federal judiciary like a roulette wheel, constantly testing out novel theories hoping they will eventually win something. It is fundamentally problematic that, in addition to their present Hail Mary on behalf of Petitioners claiming the dating requirement violates the Free and Equal Elections Clause, this same group of attorneys has filed voluminous, unsuccessful litigation challenging this requirement:

- Challenging the requirement under both the Materiality Provision and the First Amendment in 2022 before the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, see Migliori, 2022 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 46352;
- Attempting to intervene and submitting an amicus brief opposing efforts to require elections officials to uphold the law as written in a 2022 Pennsylvania King's Bench case, see Ball, 289 A.3d 1;
- Challenging the requirement under the Materiality Provision (again) in 2023, this time before the U.S. District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania, see Pa. State Conference of the NAACP v. Schmidt, No. 1:22-CV-00339, 2023 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 208213 (W.D. Pa. filed Nov. 21, 2023), rev'd, 97 F.4th 120 (3d Cir. 2024); and
- An amended challenge under the Equal Protection Clause, filed just last week, after the Third Circuit reversed and remanded NAACP v. Schmidt, see Pa. State Conference of the NAACP v. Schmidt, No. 1:22-CV-00339;

At a minimum, these challenges could have been consolidated for benefit of judicial economy and confidence in the Commonwealth's election procedures, but instead, these same attorneys have continued a scattershot approach to challenging this democratically-enacted requirement which continues to sow doubt, chaos and confusion about the Commonwealth's elections.

* * *

It is axiomatic that "[t]he judiciary may not sit as a super legislature to judge the wisdom or desirability of legislative policy determinations made in areas that neither affect fundamental rights nor proceeds along suspect lines." Mercurio v. Allegheny Cty. Redev. Auth., 839 A.2d 1196, 1203 (Pa. Commw. Ct. 2003) (internal citations omitted); see also Ferguson v. Skrupa, 372 U.S. 726, 730 (1963) ("Courts do not substitute their social and economic beliefs for the judgment of legislative bodies, [which] are elected to pass laws."). Indeed, courts should be cautious before:

[S]woop[ing] in and alter[ing] carefully considered and democratically enacted state election rules when an election is imminent.

That important principle of judicial restraint not only prevents voter confusion but also prevents election administrator confusion—and thereby protects the State's interest in running an orderly, efficient election and in giving citizens (including the losing candidates and their supporters) confidence in the fairness of the election.

Democratic Nat'l Comm. v. Wis. State Legis., 141 S. Ct. 28, 31 (2020) (Roberts, C.J., concurring). That is precisely why Justice Wecht wrote in 2020 Canvass that "[a] court's only 'goal' should be to remain faithful to the terms of the statute that the General Assembly enacted, employing only one juridical presumption when faced with unambiguous language: that the legislature meant what it said." 241 A.3d at 1082 (Wecht, J., concurring and dissenting) (emphasis in original).

"While the Pennsylvania Constitution mandates that elections be 'free and equal,' it leaves the task of effectuating that mandate to the Legislature." Pa. Democratic Party, 238 A.3d at 374. Moreover, our Supreme Court has previously "determined that the Election Code's command [regarding the dating requirement] is unambiguous and mandatory." Ball, 289 A.3d at 21-22 (enjoining undated ballots from being counted). Thus, the only way around that "unambiguous and mandatory" application would be for this Court to find that the dating requirement impacts the right to vote (which it doesn't, as discussed in Part II.A), and to find discrimination in a statute that, by its express terms (as discussed in Part II.C), treats all voters equally.

This Court should decline to reward Petitioners' (and their attorneys' unending) litigation, put an end to this latest scattershot challenge to the democratically-enacted (and judicially-upheld) Election Code, and help ensure voter confidence.

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Amici Curiae respectfully request that this Court uphold the General Assembly's constitutional power and responsibility as the Commonwealth's "democratically-elected representatives to weigh the pros and cons of various balloting systems," Weber, 347 F.3d at 1106, and deny Petitioners' Application.

INTRODUCTION

The Allegheny and Philadelphia County Boards of Elections (collectively, "Respondent Counties") are committed to protecting the fundamental right to vote through the fair and orderly administration of elections in their respective counties. Respondent Counties have taken no position on the merits of Petitioners' constitutional claims. Respondent Counties submit this brief to highlight the lack of any meaningful purpose served by the dating requirement, the disparate impact enforcement of that requirement has had on elderly and disadvantaged voters, and the administrative burdens associated with enforcing it.

Respondent Counties' commitment to fair and orderly election administration also compels them to respond in opposition to the Republican Intervenors' invitation to this Court to invalidate all of Act 77. This attack on Act 77—including its introduction of universal mail voting for all qualified voters in Pennsylvania—is as wrong as it is extreme. Declining to enforce the meaningless dating requirement does not trigger the nonseverability provision of Act 77. And even if it did, that would not justify invalidating the entirety of Act 77. A contrary conclusion will have staggering and profound implications for the electoral process in Pennsylvania, needlessly disenfranchise thousands of Pennsylvania voters, and sow electoral chaos shortly before the 2024 General Election.

ARGUMENT

I. Respondent Counties Need to Expend Considerable Time, Labor, and Resources to Enforce a Meaningless Dating Requirement.

No governmental entity in this case, including Respondent Counties, believes that the requirement to handwrite a date offers any benefit to the administration of elections.¹ The handwritten date is not used to determine a voter's qualification or the timeliness of the ballot, nor is it relied upon to prevent or detect fraud. After the ballot template is certified by the Pennsylvania Department of State, Mem. Op. 31, county boards of elections print and mail absentee and mail ballots to qualified voters who have successfully applied to receive such a ballot. When Respondent Counties receive an absentee or mail ballot, the ballot envelope is stamped with the date and time of receipt to confirm its timeliness. Id. at 77. Only ballots stamped before 8:00 p.m. on Election Day may be counted. Id. at 21.² If an absentee or mail ballot is timely received by a county board of elections, it could only have been marked and dated between the time it was sent to a qualified voter and 8:00 p.m. on Election Day. Id.

² This does not include military overseas ballots, which may be counted as timely if submitted for delivery no later than 11:59 p.m. the day before the election and received by a County Board of Elections by 5:00 p.m. on the seventh day following an election. See 25 P.S. §§ 3509(2), 3511(a).

The dating requirement is a meaningless paperwork-related technicality, and it has been challenging and costly for Respondent Counties to enforce it. Cf. Brief of Amicus Curiae County Officials at 15-19. To process the large volume of absentee and mail ballots received each election,³ Respondent Counties rely on automated sorting machines to recognize when ballot envelopes are returned without handwritten signatures or without the internal secrecy envelope that is required by the Pennsylvania Election Code. Mem. Op. at 38 (citing Respondent Counties' Commonwealth Ct. Statement of Position at 4-5). These machines, however, cannot be configured to determine whether the date on the ballot's outer return envelope is "correct." Id. at 38. As a result, Respondent Counties must devote additional time and labor to manually inspect, identify, and set aside ballots that do not comply with the dating requirement. Id. at 38-39.

This labor-intensive and time-consuming manual review is compounded by the lack of guidance as to what constitutes an "incorrect" date. To be clear, since this Court's decision in Ball v. Chapman, 289 A.3d 1 (Pa. 2023), Respondent Counties have followed the mandate and invalidated ballots based on the non-substantive requirement in the Pennsylvania Election Code that voters handwrite a correct date on the outer return envelope of an absentee or mail ballot. See 25 P.S. §§ 3146.6(a), 3150.16(a). But this Court left it to county boards to "evaluate the ballots that they receive in future elections . . . for compliance" with the dating requirement. Mem. Op. at 65-66 (citing Ball, 289 A.3d at 23). And as the Commonwealth Court observed, the Secretary "has thrice changed his guidance following Ball," twice in the last year alone. Id. at 61, 81. This unnecessary administrative burden does not contribute to the integrity or efficiency of the election process in Allegheny or Philadelphia County. The only effect of the of the non-substantive date requirement is to reject timely ballots of otherwise qualified voters.

II. The Dating Requirement Disproportionately Affects Elderly Pennsylvania Voters.

Respondent Counties' experience establishes that the dating requirement disproportionately affects elderly Pennsylvania voters, and resulted in the rejection of more than 10,000 Pennsylvania ballots in the 2022 General Election alone. Mem. Op. at 12, 38. For example, when the Philadelphia County Board of Elections analyzed its own data for the 2022 General Election, it found: (i) 60.9% of undated ballots and 64.1% of misdated ballots were submitted by voters who were 60-years old or older, (ii) 37.5% of undated ballots and 40.9% of misdated ballots were submitted by voters who were 70 years old or older; (iii) 14.1% of undated ballots and 13.9% of misdated ballots were submitted by voters who were 80 years old or older; and (iv) 57 undated ballots and 15 misdated ballots were submitted by voters who were 90 years old or older.⁴ "The percentages all are significantly higher than the percentage of Philadelphia's registered voters that these age groups represent."⁵ While Respondent Counties have not taken a position on the merits of Petitioners' constitutional claims, their experience demonstrates that enforcement of the dating requirement results in the practical disenfranchisement of thousands of elderly, qualified Pennsylvania voters who rely on mail voting to participate in elections.

III. Declining to Enforce the Dating Requirement Would Not Trigger Act 77's Nonseverability Provision or Invalidate Act 77.

If this Court were to affirm that enforcement of the date requirement is unconstitutional, it need not also strike all of Act 77, including universal mail voting in Pennsylvania. (Republican Intervenors Br. at 55.) Republican Intervenors' contrary argument misses the mark for two reasons: The Commonwealth Court's order did not trigger Act 77's severability provision. And even if it did, the severability provision is not enforceable in the sweeping, reckless manner urged by the Republican Intervenors.

At the outset, affirming the Commonwealth Court's conclusion that enforcing of the dating requirement violates the Pennsylvania Constitution would not trigger Act 77's nonseverability provision. That provision (i.e., Section 11 of Act 77) states: "Sections 1, 2, 3, 3.2, 4, 5, 5.1, 6, 7, 8, 9 and 12 of this act are nonseverable. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remaining provisions or applications of this act are void." As the Commonwealth Court observed, its decision did not "invalidate" the date requirement, as voters are still required to date their declaration. Mem. Op. at 89-90; see also Murphy v. NCAA, 584 U.S. 453, 487-89 (2018) (Thomas, J. concurring) ("Invalidating a statute is not a 'remedy,' like an injunction, a declaration, or damages."). In other words, the decision below was directed at preventing county boards from rejecting ballots based on the date requirement, rather than altering the obligations of the voters themselves.

The Commonwealth Court's holding that the dating requirement does not need to be invalidated or stricken from Act 77 to grant Petitioners relief is consistent with its prior holding in Bonner v. Chapman, 298 A.3d 153 (Pa. Commw. Ct. 2023). In Bonner, as here, the issue was whether declining to enforce the dating requirement triggered Act 77's nonseverability provision. 298 A.3d. at 168-69. The Commonwealth Court determined that Act 77's nonseverability provision was not triggered because a decision not to enforce the dating requirement did not "str[ike] the Dating Provisions from the Election Code," nor did it imply "that electors cannot or should not handwrite a date on the declaration in accordance with those provisions." Id. at 168. Here, too, Act 77's nonseverability provision is "not triggered" because "the Dating Provisions" will "remain part of the Election Code and continue to instruct electors to date the declaration on the return mailing envelope, which, as history has shown, a majority of electors will do." Id.

Additionally, even if this Court were to conclude that the nonseverability provision were triggered, such a conclusion would not justify invalidating Act 77 in its entirety. Pennsylvania statutes are presumptively severable, and this Court has ample discretion to exercise its independent judgment with respect to how to interpret and apply Act 77's nonseverability provision. See Stilp v. Com., 905 A.2d 918, 970-75, 980 (Pa. 2006). In Stilp, this Court confronted a "boilerplate" nonseverability clause worded almost identically to the one found in Act 77⁶ but still held that the statute was severable unless: (1) "the valid provisions of the statute are so essentially and inseparably connected with, and so depend upon, the void provision or application, that it cannot be presumed the General Assembly would have enacted the remaining provisions without the void one"; or (2) "the remaining valid provisions, standing alone, are incomplete and are incapable of being executed in accordance with the legislative intent." Id. at 970-74, 980-81 (quoting 1 Pa. C.S. § 1925).

As the Stilp Court explained, where a nonseverability clause "sets forth no standard for measuring nonseverability, but instead, simply purports to dictate to the courts how they must decide severability"—as is the case here—such provisions are not treated as "inexorable commands." Id. at 972-73 (quoting Saulsbury v. Bethlehem Steel Co., 196 A.2d 664, 667 (Pa. 1964)). Additionally, a nonseverability provision improperly "intrude[s] upon the independence of the Judiciary and impair[s] the judicial function" where, as here, it "serve[s] an in terrorem function," or operates to "guard against judicial review altogether by making the price of invalidation too great." Id. at 979-80 (quoting Fred Kameny, Are Inseverability Clauses Unconstitutional?, 68 ALB. L. REV. 997, 1001 (2005)).

As in Stilp, it would impair the judicial function if this Court were to strike down all of Act 77 simply because the enforcement of an irrelevant, minor provision were held to violate the constitution. To interpret Act 77's boilerplate nonseverability provision in this sweeping manner raises separation-of-powers concerns because it sets "no standard for measuring non-severability, but instead simply purports to dictate to the courts how they must decide severability." Pa. Democratic Party v. Boockvar, 238 A.3d 345, 397 n.4 (Pa. 2020) (Donohue, J., concurring and dissenting) (quoting Stilp, 905 A.2d at 973). Likewise, to strike all of Act 77—an enormously popular piece of legislation that broadened access to Pennsylvania elections—makes the price of invalidating minor provisions (like the dating requirement) too great.

This Court itself recognized that even the mail voting provisions of Act 77 "are only a fraction of the scope of the Act." McLinko v. Dep't of State, 279 A.3d 539, 543 (Pa. 2022). Act 77 also "eliminated the option for straight-ticket voting; moved the voter registration deadline from thirty to fifteen days before an election; allocated funding to provide for upgraded voting systems; and reorganized the pay structure for poll workers, along with other administrative changes." Id. All these provisions would be invalidated under the Republican Intervenors' nonseverability argument. For this reason, to treat Act 77's nonseverability provision as an "inexorable command" would be to improperly "employ[] [it] as a sword against the Judiciary or the Executive, rather than as a shield to ensure preservation of a legislative scheme or compromise." Stilp, 905 A.2d at 978. These types of boilerplate, standard-less nonseverability provisions are what led the Pennsylvania Supreme Court in Stilp to admonish that it "has never deemed nonseverability clauses to be controlling in all circumstances." Id. at 980.

Instead of adopting the Republican Intervenor's argument to invalidate all of Act 77, this Court should apply the presumption of severability that it applied in Stilp, which requires severance "in those circumstances where a statute can stand alone absent the invalid provisions." 905 A.2d at 970. This "specific, cogent standard" "emphasizes the logical and essential relationship of the void and valid provision" and makes clear that the remainder of Act 77 is severable from the dating requirement. See id.

That conclusion follows from the undisputed fact that the dating requirement serves no purpose in the administration of elections by the Allegheny and Philadelphia County Boards of Elections. The handwritten date is not used by either County Board to determine a voter's qualification or the timeliness of the ballot, or to prevent or detect fraud. Mem. Op. at 76-79. Since the dating requirement serves no purpose, any suggestion that the statutory scheme cannot function without it—or that Act 77 would not have been enacted without it—falls flat. The legislative history of Act 77 does not even mention the dating requirement, much less suggest that it was "so essentially and inseparably connected with" the rest of Act 77 that the General Assembly might not have enacted Act 77 without it.⁷ See 1 Pa.C.S. § 1925. Nor is there any reason to believe that without the dating requirement, Act 77 would be incomplete or incapable of being executed in accordance with the intent of the General Assembly. The numerous provisions of Act 77 that are unrelated to dating the outer envelopes of mail and absentee ballots surely can be enforced without the dating requirement, irrespective of whether the Act as a whole was, in the words of the Republican Intervenors, "a politically difficult compromise." (Republican Intervenor Br. at 56.) Indeed, essentially all of Act 77 has nothing to do with the dating provision.⁸ And there is no reason to believe that the General Assembly intended that "invalidation" of any word, phrase, or sub-clause of the Act would trigger invalidation of Act 77, which "effected major amendments to the Pennsylvania Election Code" and "was an enormously popular piece of legislation on both sides of the aisle." McLinko, 279 A.3d at 543. In these circumstances, it is simply illogical to infer that the General Assembly intended to invalidate the entirety of Act 77—including its elimination of straight-ticket voting, introduction of universal mail ballots, and numerous other reforms to modernize Pennsylvania's elections—based on the invalidation of "shall ... date" language that serves no purpose other than disenfranchising otherwise qualified voters. See 1 Pa.C.S. § 1922(1) (in interpreting a statute, it should be presumed "[t]hat the General Assembly does not intend a result that is absurd [] ... or unreasonable").

⁷ Act 77's legislative history shows that several components of Act 77 were considered essential parts of the legislative compromise. See, e.g., S. LEGIS. J. NO. 46, 203rd. SESS. at 1000-02 (Pa. 2019) (discussing how eliminating straight-ticket voting and the adequacy of election funding were key Republican concerns). The dating provision, by contrast, appears to have been a holdover from a previous version of the Election Code that was not discussed during Act 77's passage. See H. LEGIS. J. NO. 64, 203rd SESS. at 1740 (Pa. 2019); see also 25 P.S. § 3146.6(a)(1) (effective prior to Act 77).

That conclusion is further reinforced by the fact that the Pennsylvania Legislature has amended Act 77 several times without including a similar nonseverability provision.⁹ If the General Assembly intended that Act 77's nonseverability provision would be applied in the face of those subsequent amendments, it would have included nonseverability clauses in those later enactments. Plus, accepting the Republican Intervenors' nonseverability argument would, in effect, force this Court to parse each amendment to ascertain which parts of the Election Code would remain in effect after applying the nonseverability provision—a result plainly not contemplated by the General Assembly when it enacted Act 77. And even if this Court were to agree that all of Act 77 must be invalidated due to the nonseverability provision—and it should not reach that conclusion—the subsequent amendments would likely leave the remaining statutory scheme entirely incoherent. Subsequent amendments to the Election Code thus confirm that the General Assembly did not intend for all of Act 77 to be stricken over the enforceability of dating requirement. In sum, if the dating requirement is declared unconstitutional, this Court can and should conclude that Act 77's nonseverability provision is either inapplicable or unenforceable. In either event, this Court should not invalidate all of Act 77.

IV. Invalidating Act 77 Would Disenfranchise Voters and Cause Electoral Chaos.

The Republican Intervenors ignore the staggering consequences of their extreme nonseverability argument. Accepting that argument would have dire consequences for Pennsylvania voters and the County Boards of Elections tasked by law with administering the 2024 General Election. Universal "no-excuse" mail voting has been a resounding success since the General Assembly adopted it in 2019. It has made voting more accessible and less burdensome to hundreds of thousands of voters. It has become a settled part of Pennsylvania's electoral process, with over one million voters now relying on mail voting to exercise their constitutional right to vote. The sudden elimination of this time-tested and proven method of voting—mere months before the 2024 General Election—would be devastating to those who are unable to vote in person yet are excluded from the narrow categories of those permitted to vote by absentee ballot. Indeed, invalidating Act 77 would, in effect,

"disenfranchise a massive number of Pennsylvanians from the right to vote in the upcoming election." Pa. Democratic Party, 238 A.3d at 397 n.4 (Donohoe, J., concurring in part and dissenting in part).

Eliminating Act 77 would also be confusing to voters and extremely disruptive and chaotic to the electoral process. Act 77 is a comprehensive election modernization statute in which county boards of elections, elections officials, Pennsylvania voters, and candidates for office have developed significant reliance interests. Respondent Counties alone have invested significant time and resources implementing and complying with Act 77, including by ensuring that mail ballots are available to all qualified applicants in Allegheny and Philadelphia Counties and by developing robust processes for handling those ballots in a manner that complies with state and federal law. With the General Election soon approaching, eliminating Act 77 would be profoundly disruptive to those efforts.¹⁰

At least 5.5 million Pennsylvanians have voted in each of the last five presidential elections dating back to 2004.¹¹ As of April 23, 2024, nearly one million voters had already applied for mail ballots in the 2024 General Election¹² and are therefore already relying on their access to mail ballots to exercise their right to vote in the upcoming election. And Respondent Counties are preparing to send mail ballots to qualified applicants in the fall¹³—a significant task that would be disrupted if this Court were to declare Act 77 invalid. 25 P.S. § 3150.12a(b). Invalidating all of Act 77—which includes voting reforms that go well beyond the introduction of universal no-excuse mail voting—would sow chaos and place countless voters at risk of disenfranchisement. This Court should decline the invitation to create mass election confusion and chaos shortly before a major presidential election.

¹¹ Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Voting & Election Statistics, available at https://www.pa.gov/en/agencies/dos/resources/voting-and-elections-resources/voting-and-election-statistics.html (last accessed September 4, 2024).

CONCLUSION

For these reasons, if this Court affirms the decision below on the merits of Petitioners' constitutional claims, it should reject Republican Intervenors' request to strike all of Act 77.

¹³ Respondent Allegheny County has already approved over 150,000 applications for mail ballots, and Respondent Philadelphia County has already approved over 120,000. The process for ordering, printing, and mailing these ballots is well underway.

We went through a few formulations of what happens when a voter submits a mail ballot, comes to the polls, and variations of that. What if the mail ballot is received by the Board of Elections and is rejected because of a missing or incorrect date and the voter then appears at the polling place? What happens then? A. Again, I'm not aware of any instances that that has happened. So I would be speculating as to how we would handle that because we have not had to.	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18	I don't believe that was one of the topics that she was asked to prepare for, but and also calls for speculation. But with those objections, you can answer the question as best you can. THE WITNESS: Again, it would be speculation as to how the board would choose to move forward on those provisional ballots. BY MR. OSHER: Q. Do you have any reason to believe that the voter's in-person ballot would not be counted because of the rejected mail ballot that was received before? MR. ZIMOLONG: Objection to form.
