OFFICE OF THE PROTHONOTARY

Pennsylvania Rule of Appellate Procedure 124 requires that all filers leave the original of any paper filing unbound but securely clipped. Remaining copies are to be securely bound. This requirement applies to briefs and reproduced records.*

Those filing on paper must deliver briefs and reproduced records to their respective district filing offices as follows:

- 6 bound and 1 unbound copy of any brief
- 3 bound and 1 unbound copy of any reproduced record***

Paper briefs and reproduced records must be accompanied by an electronic copy on CD or flash drive, formatted in PDF. Microsoft Word files are not acceptable.

Please note that Pa.R.A.P. 2185(a)(1), (2), concerning service and filing of briefs will be strictly enforced. The rule specifically limits the circumstances under which the date of mailing will be deemed the date of filing: “Briefs shall be deemed filed on the date of mailing if first class, express, or priority United States Postal Service mail is utilized.” Deliveries made by commercial carrier do not qualify for such treatment and will be docketed with the date of receipt in the filing office.

Those who PACFile their brief and reproduced record must deliver the bound copies noted above, but should not provide the unbound copy, CD or flash drive.

Requirements for electronic copies:

- CD's and flash drives should be accompanied by an averment that the material included is an accurate and complete representation of the paper version of the filing.
- When possible the electronic version should be made by converting the word processing document directly to PDF. If a document must be scanned, it should be scanned using 300 dpi for black and white and 200 dpi for color.
- PDF documents should be saved as standard quality.
- Separate documents must be provided as separate files. For example, a separate brief and reproduced record should be separate files on the CD or flash drive.
- Name documents clearly, such as Brief for Appellant. Use only letters, numbers, dashes and spaces in naming.
- Label discs and flash drives with the Superior Court docket number, name of party and name of filing. Write on the disc with a permanent marker or print directly on the disc. Do not use mailing labels or other adhesive labels on discs. Flash drives may be identified with adhesive tags.

*NOTE: Appellants who proceed in forma pauperis (indigent status) need not file a reproduced record. Pa.R.A.P. 2151(b).
