ORDER

PER CURIAM

AND NOW, this 16th day of September, 2025, the Petition for Allowance of Appeal is GRANTED. The issues have been condensed into a single issue and rephrased for clarity, as follows:

Whether the Superior Court erred in holding that the Court of Common Pleas lacked jurisdiction to review the arbitration award, where Petitioners claimed their untimely request for judicial review pursuant to Section 7342(b) of the Judicial Code fell within the non-negligent-happenstance exception to timeliness as set forth in Bass v. Commonwealth, 401 A.2d 1133 (Pa. 1979)?
