

Rule 311. Attorney Participants in Defender or Legal Services Programs

* * *

(g) Expiration of Admission. When an attorney admitted under this rule ceases to be employed by or associated with an office, association or program as set forth in the motion previously filed, a written statement to that effect shall be filed with the Prothonotary by a representative of the public defender's office, defender association or legal services program. Admission to practice under this rule shall expire after 30 months[, unless the Court for good cause shown shall extend such period in an individual case,] or when the attorney ceases to be employed by or associated with such office, association or program, whichever shall first occur.
