

If I break the law, I may have to go to court.

The court will decide what happens to me since I broke the law.

I will have an attorney to help me.

I will be able to meet the attorney before court.

I can tell the attorney about my autism if I want.

My attorney will tell the court my story.

There are many rules in court. My attorney will help me understand those rules.

My attorney will tell me what I should wear to court.

My attorney will tell me what I can and can't say in court.

My attorney will tell me when it's my turn to talk.

If I don't understand something, my attorney will explain it to me.

My attorney is there to help me.
